Vale signs energy supply contract with Casa dos Ventos

Rio de Janeiro, January 15th, 2019 Vale S.A. (Vale) informs that it has signed a long-term energy supply contract with Casa dos Ventos to be produced by the Folha Larga Sul wind farm in Campo Formoso, Bahia, Brazil. With an installed capacity of 151.2 MW, the project with investment responsibility by Casa dos Ventos, has its energy contracted for 23 years and is expected to begin commercial operation by the first half of 2020.

The agreement between Vale and Casa dos Ventos also includes a future asset call option held by Vale.

The partnership is yet another step into Vale's strategy to achieve 100% self-generation of electricity in Brazil by 2030 through the use of renewable sources of energy.

This press release may include statements that present Vale's expectations about future events or results. All statements, when based upon expectations about the future, involve various risks and uncertainties. Vale cannot guarantee that such statements will prove correct. These risks and uncertainties include factors related to the following: (a) the countries where we operate, especially Brazil and Canada; (b) the global economy; (c) the capital markets; (d) the mining and metals prices and their dependence on global industrial production, which is cyclical by nature; and (e) global competition in the markets in which Vale operates. To obtain further information on factors that may lead to results different from those forecast by Vale, please consult the reports Vale files with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), the Brazilian Comissão de Valores Mobiliários (CVM), and the French Autorité des Marchés Financiers (AMF), and in particular the factors discussed under "Forward-Looking Statements" and "Risk Factors" in Vale's annual report on Form 20-F.
