Item 8.01 Other Events

On May 5, 2015, the Board of Directors of Overstock.com, Inc. authorized a stock repurchase program (the “Repurchase Program”), pursuant to which the Company may, from time to time, purchase shares of its common stock for an aggregate repurchase price not to exceed $25 million at any time through December 31, 2017. The Repurchase Program does not obligate the Company to purchase any shares.

The Repurchase Program is for the purpose of mitigating dilution from the Company’s issuance of common stock upon the vesting of employees’ restricted stock units and exercise of employee stock options. Shares may be repurchased from time to time in open market transactions at prevailing market prices under Rule 10b-18 or in transactions not covered by Rule 10b-18 or in privately negotiated transactions or by other means in accordance with federal securities laws. The program may be implemented by means of a plan complying with Rule 10b5-1 or otherwise.

The actual timing, number and value of any shares repurchased under the Repurchase Program will be determined by management in its discretion and will depend on the Company’s liquidity and anticipated needs for liquidity, the market price of the shares from time to time, general market and economic conditions, legal considerations and restrictions, contractual restrictions, and such other matters as management deems relevant. There is no assurance of the number or aggregate price of any shares that the Company may actually repurchase, and the Repurchase Program may be extended, suspended or terminated at any time without notice at the Company’s discretion.

This Report on Form 8-K contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such forward-looking statements include all statements about whether or how the Company may repurchase shares under the repurchase program or how many shares, if any, the Company may repurchase, and include all statements other than statements of historical fact. Information regarding factors that could materially affect results and the Company’s ability or willingness to repurchase any shares may be found in the Company’s Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2015, which was filed with the SEC on April 29, 2015 and in any subsequent filings with the SEC. There also may be additional risks that the Company does not presently know about or that it currently believes are immaterial that could also impair its business or results of operations and could adversely affect the Company’s ability or willingness to repurchase any shares. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on any forward-looking statements, which speak only as of their dates. The Company undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
