& Young Global, ("E&Y") as the Company's independent auditor and dismissed Manning Elliott. The decision to change auditors was considered and approved by our Board of Directors.

During the Company's two most recent fiscal years, the reports of Manning Elliott on the financial statements of the Company, did not contain any adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles, except that the reports contained an explanatory paragraph that expressed that substantial doubt existed regarding the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. During the Company's two most recent fiscal years, there was no disagreement with Manning Elliott on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which, if not resolved to Manning Elliott's satisfaction, would have caused it to make a reference to the subject matter of the disagreements in connection with its report; nor has Manning Elliott ever presented a written report, or otherwise communicated in writing to the Company or its board of directors the existence of any "disagreement" or "reportable event" within the meaning of Item 304 of Regulation S-B.

We have provided Manning Elliott with a copy of the foregoing disclosures, we have authorized Manning Elliott to respond fully to the inquiries of the our successor accountant E&Y and Manning Elliott has provided us with a letter addressed to the SEC, as required by Item 304(a)(3) of Regulations S-B, that is attached hereto as Exhibit 16.1.
