INFORMATION STATEMENT
IN LIEU OF 2009 ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

Dear Rubicon Financial Incorporated Stockholder:

The purpose of this letter and the enclosed Information Statement is to inform you that stockholders holding a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock of Rubicon Financial Incorporated have executed written consents in lieu of a special or annual meeting to elect a member to the board of directors and to ratify the appointment of Weaver & Martin, LLC as Rubicon's independent public accountant for the year ending December 31, 2009.

From June 16, 2009 through June 17, 2009, stockholders holding approximately 57.69% of Rubicon's outstanding common stock executed written consents approving the election of Joseph Mangiapane, Jr. as Rubicon's sole board member; thereby effectively removing Suzanne Herring and Todd Vande Hei as members of Rubicon's board of directors, and ratifying the appointment of Weaver & Martin, LLC as Rubicon's independent public accountant. The majority consent Rubicon received constitutes the only stockholder vote required for the election of directors under Delaware corporate law and Rubicon's certificate of incorporation and bylaws, as presently in effect. Pursuant to Rule 14c-2 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, the stockholder actions taken by majority consent will not become effective until July 10, 2009, which is approximately 21 calendar days after June 19, 2009, the date Rubicon first mailed the Information Statement to its stockholders.

WE ARE NOT ASKING YOU FOR A PROXY AND
YOU ARE REQUESTED NOT TO SEND US A PROXY.

Because the written consent of holders of a majority of Rubicon's outstanding common stock satisfies all applicable stockholder voting requirements, Rubicon is not asking you for a proxy; please do not send Rubicon one. Rubicon is furnishing this Information Statement to you solely to inform you of the election of the director and ratification of the auditor by holders of a majority of outstanding shares of Rubicon's common stock. Delaware General Corporation Law requires that Rubicon notify you of these approvals because they were obtained by written consent of stockholders in lieu of an annual or special meeting. This letter and the Information Statement are intended to provide such notice. No action is required by you.

The Information Statement is for information purposes only — Please read it carefully.

Yours truly,

/s/ Joseph Mangiapane, Jr.
Joseph Mangiapane, Jr.

INFORMATION STATEMENT
(Dated June 19, 2009)

NO VOTE OR OTHER ACTION OF RUBICON'S STOCKHOLDERS IS REQUIRED IN CONNECTION WITH THIS INFORMATION STATEMENT.

WE ARE NOT ASKING YOU FOR A PROXY AND
YOU ARE REQUESTED NOT TO SEND US A PROXY.

GENERAL

Rubicon Financial Incorporated is distributing this information statement (the "Information Statement") to its stockholders in full satisfaction of any notice requirements Rubicon may have under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and applicable Delaware law. No additional action will be undertaken by Rubicon with respect to the receipt of written consents, and no dissenters' rights with respect to the receipt of the written consents, and no dissenters' rights under the Delaware General Corporation Law, are afforded to Rubicon's stockholders as a result of the adoption of the resolutions contemplated herein.

The Information Statement is being mailed on or about June 19, 2009 to the holders of record at the close of business on June 16, 2009 (the "Record Date"), of the common stock of Rubicon Financial Incorporated, a Delaware corporation ("Rubicon"), in connection with actions approved by written consent in lieu of an annual or special meeting to elect a director to the Board of Directors (the "Board") and ratify the appointment of Rubicon's independent auditor.

The vote required to elect directors is the affirmative vote by a majority of the votes cast in person or by proxy at an annual meeting or by a majority consent of Rubicon's stockholders in accordance with Section 228 of the Delaware General Corporation Law. Each holder of common stock was entitled to one vote for each share of common stock held. The date for purposes of determining the number of outstanding shares of common stock and for determining stockholders that were entitled to vote, was the close of business on the Record Date. As of the Record Date, Rubicon had 11,976,773 shares of common stock issued and outstanding.

Certain of Rubicon's stockholders, who as of the Record Date owned an aggregate of 6,909,793 shares (approximately 57.69%) of the outstanding shares of Rubicon's common stock then outstanding, consented in writing to the election of Mr. Mangiapane as the sole member of Rubicon's board of directors and the ratification of Weaver & Martin, LLC as Rubicon's independent public accountants (the "Actions"). Such stockholder consent is sufficient under Section 228 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, Rubicon's amended certificate of incorporation and its amended by-laws, as then in effect, to approve the Actions. Accordingly, the Actions will not be submitted to Rubicon's other stockholders for a vote, and this Information Statement is being furnished to you solely to give you notice of, and certain information concerning, the Actions, in accordance with Delaware General Corporation Law and the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), and the regulations promulgated thereunder, including Regulation 14C. No dissenters' or appraisal rights under Delaware Law are afforded to Rubicon's stockholders as a result of the approval of the resolutions. Rubicon does not intend to solicit any proxies or consents from any other stockholders in connection with the Actions.

The entire cost of furnishing this Information Statement will be borne by Rubicon. Rubicon will request brokerage houses, nominees, custodians, fiduciaries and other like parties to forward this Information Statement to the beneficial owners of its common stock held of record by them and will reimburse such persons for their reasonable charges and expenses in connection therewith.

Rubicon's Annual Report for the year ended December 31, 2008, on Form 10-K (the "10-K") is being mailed to stockholders concurrently with this information statement. The 10-K is not to be regarded as proxy soliciting material or as a communication by means of which any solicitation of proxies is to be made.

The corporate offices of Rubicon are located at 4100 Newport Place, Suite 600, Newport Beach, California 92660 and Rubicon's telephone number is (949) 798-7220.

Except as otherwise described herein, no director, executive officer, associate of any director or executive officer, or any other person has any substantial interest, other than election of office, direct or indirect, by security holdings or otherwise, in the Actions, which is not shared by all other holders of Rubicon's common stock.

No security holders have transmitted any proposals to be acted upon by Rubicon. However, on or about June 15, 2009, Rubicon received a letter from an approximate 10% stockholder, PCG Investments LLC, making a demand for Rubicon to hold an annual meeting, in accordance with the provisions of Rubicon's bylaws and Delaware General Corporation Law, on or before June 30, 2009. The stockholder demand was fulfilled by the majority consent, which satisfied the need for the annual stockholder meeting and such stockholder was a signatory to the majority consent.

VOTING SECURITIES

The following table presents information, to the best of Rubicon's knowledge, about the ownership of Rubicon's common stock on June 16, 2009 relating to those persons known to beneficially own more than 5% of Rubicon's capital stock and by Rubicon's directors and executive officers. The percentage of beneficial ownership for the following table is based on 11,976,773 shares of common stock outstanding.

Beneficial ownership is determined in accordance with the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission and does not necessarily indicate beneficial ownership for any other purpose. Under these rules, beneficial ownership includes those shares of common stock over which the stockholder has sole or shared voting or investment power. It also includes shares of common stock that the stockholder has a right to acquire within 60 days after June 16, 2009 pursuant to options, warrants, conversion privileges or other right. The percentage ownership of the outstanding common stock, however, is based on the assumption, expressly required by the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission, that only the person or entity whose ownership is being reported has converted options or warrants into shares of Rubicon's common stock.

ACTION 1. ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Rubicon stockholders generally elect the members of the board of directors annually. Rubicon’s board of directors at the time of the Majority Consent consisted of three members; Joseph Mangiapane, Jr., Suzanne Herring and Todd Vande Hei. The election of Rubicon directors required a majority of the votes cast in person or by proxy at an annual meeting or by a majority consent of Rubicon’s stockholders in accordance with Section 228 of the Delaware General Corporation Law. In accordance with the Majority Consent, stockholders holding a majority of Rubicon’s outstanding shares of common stock voted to elect only Mr. Mangiapane to serve as the sole board member of Rubicon; thereby effectively removing Ms. Herring and Mr. Vande Hei as board members.

Mr. Mangiapane’s professional experience is as follows:

Joseph Mangiapane, Jr. is the Chief Executive Officer, President, Secretary and has been the Chairman of the Rubicon’s Board of Directors since September 2006. Mr. Mangiapane was a senior registered options principal, compliance registered options principal, and a registered representative with Advantage Investment Strategies, Inc., and a FINRA registered broker/dealer from 2005 to 2007. From 2000 to 2004, Mr. Mangiapane owned and managed a restaurant in Orange County, California. From 1992 to 2000, Mr. Mangiapane was a stockholder, senior registered options principal, compliance registered options principal, and a registered representative with Tradeway Securities Group in Irvine, California. From 1987 to 1989, Mr. Mangiapane was an executive with Paine Webber’s Sexton Group, and from 1986 to 1987, he was an employee with Drexel Burnham Lambert. Mr. Mangiapane’s father was a founder of Dial-A-Cup, a wholly owned subsidiary of Rubicon.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Audit Committee and Financial Expert

On February 15, 2007, we established and appointed Mr. Terence Davis and Ms. Herring as the initial members to the audit committee of our board of directors. Further, in June of 2008, Mr. Vande Hei was appointed to serve as a member of the audit committee. Mr. Davis resigned as a director in February 2009, leaving Ms. Herring and Mr. Vande Hei to serve as the members of the audit committee. Currently, none of the members of the audit committee qualify as an independent director. The board of directors has determined that Ms. Herring is an “audit committee financial expert” as that term is used in Item 401(h) of Regulation S-K promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act. The purpose of the Audit Committee is to assist the Board in oversight of (i) the integrity of our financial statements, (ii) our compliance with legal and regulatory requirements, (iii) the independent auditors’ qualifications and independence, and (iv) the performance of the independent auditors audit function. Following the effective date of the majority consent, Mr. Mangiapane will be the sole director of Rubicon and will therefore perform the duties of the Audit Committee.

Nominating Committee

On January 15, 2007, Rubicon established and appointed Mr. Terence Davis and Mr. Bradley Bunch as the initial members to the governance, compensation and nominating committee and approved the committee's charter. Further, in June of 2008, Mr. Vande Hei was appointed to serve as a member of the committee. Messrs. Davis and Bunch resigned as directors in February 2009, leaving Mr. Vande Hei to serve as the sole member of the committee. Following the effective date of the Majority Consent, Mr. Mangiapane will be the sole director of Rubicon and will therefore perform the duties of the governance, compensation and nominating committee.

Director Nomination Procedures

The Governance, Compensation and Nominating Committee suggests nominees for directors.

Generally, nominees for directors are identified and suggested by the members of the board or management using their business networks. The board has not retained any executive search firms or other third parties to identify or evaluate director candidates in the past and does not intend to in the near future. In reviewing a nominee for director, the Governance, Compensation and Nominating Committee may consider the following criteria:

1. whether the nominee has the personal attributes for successful service on the board, such as demonstrated character and integrity; experience at a strategy/policy setting level; managerial experience dealing with complex problems; an ability to work effectively with others; and sufficient time to devote to the affairs of Rubicon;
2. whether the nominee has been the chief executive officer or senior executive of a public company or a leader of a similar organization, including industry groups, universities or governmental organizations;
3. whether the nominee, by virtue of particular experience, technical expertise or specialized skills or contacts relevant to Rubicon's current or future business, will add specific value as a board member; and
4. whether there are any other factors related to the ability and willingness of a new nominee to serve, or an existing board member to continue his service.

The Governance, Compensation and Nominating Committee has not established any specific minimum qualifications that a candidate for director must meet in order to be recommended for board membership. Rather the Governance, Compensation and Nominating Committee will evaluate the mix of skills and experience that the candidate offers, consider how a given candidate meets the board's current expectations with respect to each such criterion and make a determination regarding whether a candidate should be recommended to the stockholders for election as a director.

Compensation Committee

On January 15, 2007, Rubicon established and appointed Mr. Terence Davis and Mr. Bradley Bunch as the initial members to the governance, compensation and nominating committee and approved the committee's charter. Further, in June of 2008, Mr. Vande Hei was appointed to serve as a member of the committee. Messrs. Davis and Bunch resigned as directors in February 2009, leaving Mr. Vande Hei to serve as the sole member of the committee. Following the effective date of the Majority Consent, Mr. Mangiapane will be the sole director of Rubicon and will therefore perform the duties of the Compensation Committee. The Committee will oversee the review of all employment agreements and recommend compensation for our executive officers.

Stockholder Communications with the Board of Directors

Stockholders who wish to communicate with the Board or a particular director may send a letter to the Secretary of Rubicon at 4100 Newport Place, Suite 600, Newport Beach, California 92660. The mailing envelope must contain a clear notation indicating that the enclosed letter is a "Stockholder-Board Communication" or "Stockholder-Director Communication.” All such letters must identify the author as a stockholder and clearly state whether the intended recipients are all members of the Board or just certain specified individual Directors. The Secretary will make copies of all such letters and circulate them to the appropriate director or Directors.

Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

We have adopted a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics that applies to all of our directors, officers and employees, as well as to directors, officers and employees of each subsidiary of Rubicon. If any substantive amendments are made to the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics or if we grant any waiver, including any implicit waiver, from a provision of the Code to any of our officers and directors, we will disclose the nature of such amendment or waiver in a report on Form 8-K.

Limitation of Liability of Directors

Pursuant to our Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, we have agreed to indemnify our directors to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware General Corporate Law. Under General Delaware Corporate Law, other than in actions brought by or in the right of the corporation, such indemnification would apply if it were determined in the specific case that the proposed indemnitee acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed in or not opposed to be in the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, if such person had no reasonable cause to believe that the conduct was unlawful. To the extent that any director has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit, proceeding, as discussed herein, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, such person must be indemnified against reasonable expenses incurred by such person in connection therewith. A Certificate of Incorporation does not eliminate or limit the liability of a director for acts or omissions that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law by a director. Additionally, General Delaware Corporate Law does not affect the availability of equitable remedies such as an injunction or rescission based upon a director's breach of his duty of care.

Officers are appointed to serve until the meeting of the board of directors following the next annual meeting of stockholders and until their successors have been elected and qualified.
