Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

On August 31, 2010, DeVry Inc. issued a press release announcing that President and CEO Daniel Hamburger discussed the high-quality educational programs offered by DeVry's institutions while also pledging to continue transparency and accountability in the use of federal financial aid programs at a higher education forum in Chicago today. United States Senator Dick Durbin hosted the roundtable forum to promote a discussion on the role of private-sector higher education in Illinois.

The full text of this press release and Mr. Hamburger's prepared remarks are included as exhibits to this Form 8-K.

Forward Looking Statements

Certain statements contained in this Form 8-K and related press release, including those that affect DeVry's expectations or plans, may constitute forward-looking statements subject to the Safe Harbor Provision of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements generally can be identified by phrases such as DeVry Inc. or its management "anticipates," "believes," "estimates," "expects," "forecasts," "foresees," "intends," "plans," "may," "might," "will," "could," "should," "would," "possibly," "perhaps," or other words or phrases of similar import.

Because these forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties, there are important factors that could cause DeVry's actual results to differ materially from those projected or implied by these forward-looking statements. Additional information regarding factors that could cause results to differ can be found in DeVry's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2010.

These forward-looking statements are based on information as of August 31, 2010, and DeVry assumes no obligation to publicly update or revise its forward-looking statements even if experience or future changes make it clear that any projected results expressed or implied therein will not be realized.
