To the Shareholders

Dear Sir or Madam,

(1) REVISIONS OF ANNUAL CAPS FOR THE EXISTING CONTINUING CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS WITH CHINALCO
(PROVISION OF ENGINEERING DESIGN AND OTHER SERVICES)

AND

(2) NEW CONTINUING CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS WITH XINAN ALUMINUM (MUTUAL SUPPLY OF ALUMINUM PRODUCTS,
ALUMINUM FABRICATION PRODUCTS AND SERVICES)

1. INTRODUCTION

Reference is made to the announcement of the Company dated 20 October 2008 in which the Board announced, among other things, (1) the proposed revision of annual caps for the existing non-exempt continuing connected transactions with Chinalco with respect to the provision of certain engineering design, construction and supervisory services under the Provision of Engineering, Construction and Supervisory Services Agreement; and (2) the new non-exempt continuing connected transactions with Xinan Aluminum with respect to the mutual supply of aluminum products and aluminum fabrication products and services.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

As some of the applicable percentage ratios calculated in accordance with the Hong Kong Listing Rules for (1) the proposed revisions of annual caps in respect of the provision of engineering design, construction and supervisory services by Chinalco; and (2) the mutual supply of aluminum products and aluminum fabrication products and services with Xinan Aluminum exceed 2.5%, they are non-exempt continuing connected transactions subject to Independent Shareholders' approval in addition to the reporting and announcement requirements under the Hong Kong Listing Rules. An EGM will be convened to seek the approval of the Independent Shareholders in which Chinalco, Xinan Aluminum and their respective associates will abstain from voting on the resolutions proposed. An Independent Board Committee has been established to advise the Independent Shareholders in relation to such non-exempt continuing connected transactions and Taifook Capital has been appointed as the independent financial adviser to advise the Independent Board Committee and the Independent Shareholders.

The purposes of this circular are:

- (i) to provide you with information regarding the above proposals in order to allow you to make an informed decision on voting in respect of the resolutions to be proposed at the EGM;
- (ii) to set out the letter of advice from Taifook Capital to the Independent Board Committee and the Independent Shareholders and the recommendation of the Independent Board Committee on the proposed revision of annual caps and the new continuing connected transactions as advised by Taifook Capital.

For the purpose of this circular, all historic transaction amounts are based either on the audited accounts of the Company or the unaudited management accounts of the Company. All historic figures that have been audited are indicated by an asterisk and those that are not marked with an asterisk are from the unaudited management accounts of the Company.

The historic transaction amounts in connection with Xinan Aluminum have not been audited.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

2. REVISIONS OF ANNUAL CAPS FOR THE CONTINUING CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS UNDER THE PROVISION OF ENGINEERING, CONSTRUCTION AND SUPERVISORY SERVICES AGREEMENT WITH CHINALCO

2.1 Introduction

By the Provision of Engineering, Construction and Supervisory Services Agreement dated 5 November 2001, which was for an initial term of three years expiring on 30 June 2004 and subsequently extended by two extension agreements to 31 December 2009, Chinalco agreed to provide certain engineering, construction and supervisory services to the Group at the State-guidance price, and if there was no State-guidance price, then at market price. Such services are mainly provided by subsidiaries of Chinalco including China Aluminum International Engineering Co., Ltd., a subsidiary of Chinalco owned as to 95% by Chinalco and 5% by Chalco International Trading, which is the only construction main contractor in the PRC with specialized knowledge on the aluminum industry and accreditation by the PRC government.

2.2 Historic transactions and amounts

With the approval of the independent shareholders given at the extraordinary general meeting held on 27 February 2007, the annual cap of the transactions under the Provision of Engineering, Construction and Supervisory Services Agreement was set at RMB3,970 million for each year from 2007 to 2009.

The historic amounts of the services provided by Chinalco under the Provision of Engineering, Construction and Supervisory Services Agreement in each of the three years ended 31 December 2007 and in the first six months ended 30 June 2008 were:

Year ended 31 December		Six months ended
2005	2006	2007	30 June 2008
(RMB million)	(RMB million)	(RMB million)	(RMB million)
2,176*	1,454*	2,876*	3,358

The transaction amount in the first six months of 2008 of RMB3,358 million has not exceeded the existing annual cap for 2008 of RMB3,970 million.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

2.3 Proposed annual caps for 2008 and 2009

Subject to Independent Shareholders' approval, the Directors propose to increase the annual caps for the continuing connected transactions under the Provision of Engineering, Construction and Supervisory Services Agreement to RMB11,000 million and RMB12,200 million for each of the two years ended 31 December 2008 and 2009 respectively.

Estimated annual caps for 2008 and 2009 year ending
31 December 2008	31 December 2009
(RMB million)	(RMB million)
11,000	12,200

2.4 Reasons for the proposed increase in annual caps

The reasons for the substantial upward increase in the proposed annual caps for the transactions under the Provision for Engineering, Construction and Supervisory Services Agreement are as follows:

- (1) Due to the rapid business expansion of the Group in recent years, there has been a substantial increase in the capital expenditure of the Company in the construction of new production plants as well as upgrading of various existing production plants. The historic capital expenditures for the three years ended 31 December 2007 as well as the estimated capital expenditures for the three years ending 31 December 2010 are set out in the table below:

Historic capital expenditure			Estimated capital expenditure
year ended 31 December			year ending 31 December
(RMB million)			(RMB million)
2005	2006	2007	2008	2009	2010
8,332*	8,621*	10,288*	19,574	21,448	18,348

There are substantial increases in the capital expenditure in years 2007 and 2008 as compared to the previous years. The substantial increase is mainly due to:

- (a) the 42 large scale (over RMB100 million) Greenfield projects of the Group, such as the construction of an alumina plant by the Chongqing branch of the Company, with an annual capacity of 800,000 tonnes with an estimated total investment of about RMB5.4 billion; and

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

- (b) various extension or upgrading projects of the Group's existing plants as well as plants acquired during the last two years, such as phase III of the alumina expansion project of the Company's Guangxi branch with an estimated total investment of about RMB4.5 billion and the aluminum smelter expansion project of the Company's subsidiary, Fushun Aluminum Company Limited, with an estimated total expenditure of about RMB2.5 billion.

- (2) There has been a change in the contracting relationship with Chinalco and its associates. Prior to 2008, for contracting services provided by Chinalco and its associates, the Group would pay directly most of the independent services providers engaged by Chinalco or its associates. Since 2008, Chinalco or its associates has been appointed as the main contractor for most of the major contracts of the Company and will settle the payment for services provided by the third party service providers engaged by it.

Of the estimated capital expenditures for each of the three years ended 31 December 2010, approximately 54% to 57% of total capital expenditure each year, as set out in the table below, will be carried out by Chinalco and its associates. Prior to 2008, only approximately 17% to 28% of the total capital expenditure each year were carried out by Chinalco and its associates. As a result of the change in contracting relationship, there will be an increase in the payments to be made to Chinalco and its associates for their services provided under the Provision of Engineering, Construction and Supervisory Services Agreement.

	Year ending 31 December
	2005	2006	2007	2008	2009	2010

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

- (3) Chinalco, through its acquisition of Changsha Engineering & Research Institute of Nonferrous Metallurgy and China Nonferrous Metal Industry Changsha Exploration & Design Research Institute () has increased its capacities to provide engineering design, construction and supervisory services relating to the alumina and aluminum production plants. In addition, China Aluminum International Engineering Co., Ltd., a subsidiary of Chinalco, is the only construction main contractor in the PRC with specialized knowledge on the aluminum industry and accreditation by the PRC government. Most of the large scale projects are therefore awarded to Chinalco and its associates which have expertise in the construction and design of alumina and aluminum production plants.

As some of the applicable percentage ratios for the proposed revisions of annual caps in respect of the provision of engineering design and other services by Chinalco exceed 2.5%, such transactions are subject to Independent Shareholders' approval in addition to the reporting and announcement requirements under the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

3. NEW NON-EXEMPT CONTINUING CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS WITH XINAN ALUMINUM

3.1 Introduction

Xinan Aluminum was once a connected person of the Company by reason of its being an associate of the Company's former substantial shareholder, China Cinda Asset Management Corporation. Upon China Cinda Asset Management Corporation ceasing as a substantial shareholder of the Company on 24 September 2005, Xinan Aluminum also ceased as a connected person of the Company. It became a connected person of the Company again on 1 June 2008 upon Chalco SW Aluminum becoming a subsidiary of the Company when the Six Plants Acquisition was completed. Chalco SW Aluminum is owned as to 60% by the Company and 40% by Xinan Aluminum. Xinan Aluminum is a connected person of the Company by reason of its being a substantial shareholder of Chalco SW Aluminum.

3.2 Chalco SW Aluminum

Xinan Aluminum has business relationships with the Company since the establishment of the Company in 2001. Its current business relationships with the Company and in particular with Chalco SW Aluminum, a subsidiary of the Company, are as follows:

- (1) Xinan Aluminum purchases primary aluminum from various branches and subsidiaries of the Company, such as the Guizhou branch and Zunyi Aluminum Company Limited as raw materials for processing into aluminum alloy ingots and other aluminum products and aluminum fabrication products and also purchases aluminum alloy ingots from other branches of the Company, such as Qinghai branch and Guizhou branch, for processing into aluminum fabrication products;

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

- (2) Xinan Aluminum sells the aluminum alloy ingots so processed or purchased to Chalco SW Aluminum for further processing. Xinan Aluminum also supplies water, electricity, gas and other services to Chalco SW Aluminum;
- (3) Chalco SW Aluminum processes the aluminum alloy ingots into aluminum alloy sheets or rolls and sells back such products to Xinan Aluminum for sale to Xinan Aluminum's customers after further fabrication. Chalco SW Aluminum also sells back to Xinan Aluminum the aluminum fabrication scraps produced during the fabrication process to Xinan Aluminum for recycling; and
- (4) Chalco International Trading, a subsidiary of the Company, is engaged in the import, export and trading of aluminum related products; it purchases processed aluminum fabrication products from Xinan Aluminum for sale to its customers.

Transactions described in (1) (sale of primary aluminum and aluminum alloy ingots) and (3) (sale of processed aluminum alloy sheets or rolls and scraps) constitute sale (revenue) transactions of the Company. Transactions described in (2) (purchase of aluminum alloy ingots by Chalco SW Aluminum) and (4) (purchase of processed aluminum fabrication products by Chalco International Trading) constitute purchase (expenditure) transactions of the Company.

Upon completion of the Six Plants Acquisition (which includes the acquisition of Chalco SW Aluminum) and starting July 2008, Chalco SW Aluminum begins to purchase part of its aluminum alloy ingots directly from the Guizhou and Qinghai branches of the Company for processing into aluminum alloy sheets or rolls. Chalco SW Aluminum continues to but purchased a reduced volume of aluminum alloy ingots from Xinan Aluminum.

Xinan Aluminum became a connected person of the Company on 1 June 2008 and the transactions between it and the Company are subject to the announcement and reporting requirements under the Hong Kong Listing Rules since that date. As the transactions between the Company (including its branches and subsidiaries), Xinan Aluminum and Chalco SW Aluminum had been going on for years since 2001 well before Xinan Aluminum became a connected person of the Company, and it took time for the directors to actually take over the management of Chalco SW Aluminum upon completion of the Six Plants Acquisition and to ascertain the exact amount of the historic transactions that had been conducted, the directors consider that it is appropriate to include the transactions with Xinan Aluminum in the announcement dated 20 October 2008 and deal with them together with the other continuing connected transactions. The directors were able to ascertain the full extent of the historic transaction amounts with Xinan Aluminum only in the middle of August 2008.

3.3 Historical transactions and amounts

The historic amounts of the transactions between Xinan Aluminum and the Company (including Chalco SW Aluminum and Chalco International Trading) are as follows:

Note: Chalco SW Aluminum commenced its production in July 2005. In 2006, it had not yet reached its maximum annual production capacity of 350,000 tonnes as it normally takes some time for a factory to reach its full production capacity. This explains the initial transaction amounts of RMB1,050 million in 2005 and RMB3,150 million in 2006.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

3.4 Historical fluctuations

The major reasons for the decrease in the sale and purchase transactions with Xinan Aluminum for the two years ending 31 December 2009 as compared with the annual amount in the year 2007 are follows:

- (1) As stated above, since July 2008, Chalco SW Aluminum begins to purchase part of its aluminum alloy ingots directly from the Guizhou and Qinghai branches of the Company instead of from Xinan Aluminum for processing into aluminum alloy sheets or rolls. It is estimated that the purchase of aluminum alloy ingots from the Company will amount to 65,000 tonnes for the six months ending 31 December 2008 and for the 12-month ending 31 December 2009 would be approximately 154,000 tonnes. As a result, the purchase of aluminum alloy ingots from Xinan Aluminum will reduce which in turn will reduce the subsequent transactions between Chalco SW Aluminum and Xinan Aluminum and the aggregate amounts of such transactions; and
- (2) Chalco International Trading may purchase more aluminum alloy sheets or rolls directly from Chalco SW Aluminum, which will result in a reduction in the purchase from Xinan Aluminum in 2008 and 2009, compare to 2007.

3.5 Proposed annual caps

Based on the above estimates which are determined based on the historic transaction amounts but taking into consideration the anticipated future reduction in sale and purchase volume as stated in paragraphs (1) and (2) above, and by adding a buffer of about 15% to provide for any possible upward increase in unit price or transaction quantity, the Directors would like to set the aggregate annual caps of the transactions with Xinan Aluminum as follows:

Estimated annual caps for 2008 and 2009

	Year ending
	31 December 2008 (RMB million)	31 December 2009 (RMB million)
Revenue	9,000	7,000
Expenditure	4,600	4,000

Given the historic fluctuation in the market price of primary aluminum with the lowest price at RMB17,700 per tonne and the highest price at RMB20,600 per tonne in the one-year period from 1 September 2007 to 31 August 2008 (a fluctuation range of 17%), the directors consider the 15% buffer to be fair and reasonable in the current market condition.

As the relevant percentage ratios of the continuing connected transactions with Xinan Aluminum exceed 2.5%, they are non-exempt continuing connected transactions and are therefore subject to Independent Shareholders' approval.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

3.6 Mutual Provision of Products and Services Framework Agreement

(1) Parties:

Xinan Aluminum (for itself and on behalf of its subsidiaries and associates but exclude associates who are also subsidiaries of the Company) on the one part and the Company (for itself and on behalf of its relevant subsidiaries) on the other part

(2) Transactions to be regulated:

primary aluminum and aluminum alloy ingots

- * if there is no State-prescribed price, the State-guidance price;

LETTER FROM TAIFOOK CAPITAL

PRINCIPAL FACTORS AND REASONS CONSIDERED

In arriving at our opinion regarding the proposed revised annual caps of the Chinalco Transactions, and the terms of the Xinan Transactions and proposed annual caps thereof, we have considered the following principal factors and reasons:

(I) The Chinalco Transactions

1. Background and reasons

The Group is principally engaged in bauxite mining, alumina refining and primary aluminum smelting operations. The principal products of the Group include alumina and primary aluminum.

As advised by the Directors, Chinalco is a State-owned enterprise whose principal business activities include aluminum fabrication, copper fabrication and manufacturing of aluminum and provision of related engineering and construction services.

The Directors consider that the provision of engineering design, construction and supervisory services by the Chinalco Group to the Group under the Chinalco Agreement enhances the smooth operations of the Group and enables the Group to allocate more resources towards its principal activities.

On 5 November 2001, Chinalco and the Company entered into the Chinalco Agreement for a term of three years with effect from 1 July 2001, whereby the Chinalco Group shall provide engineering design, construction and supervisory services to the Group, while the Group shall provide engineering design services to the Chinalco Group. Our opinion and discussion herein will be confined to the provision of engineering design, construction and supervisory services by the Chinalco Group to the Group only for which Independent Shareholders' approval will be sought for the proposed revised annual caps.

On 28 June 2004 and 26 December 2006, Chinalco and the Company entered into the Extension Agreements such that the term of the Chinalco Agreement has been extended to 31 December 2009. As disclosed in the announcement of the Company dated 27 February 2007, the Company obtained independent shareholders' approval for, among others, the continuation of the Chinalco Transactions and the proposed annual caps for the Chinalco Transactions for each of the three years ending 31 December 2009, which was set at RMB3,970 million per annum (the "Existing Caps").

The Company has noted that the total amount of the Chinalco Transactions for the six months ended 30 June 2008 had reached approximately RMB3,358 million. The Directors anticipate that the total amount of the Chinalco Transactions for each of the two years ending 31 December 2009 will exceed the Existing Caps. The Directors therefore propose to revise the proposed annual caps of the Chinalco Transactions for each of the two years ending 31 December 2009.

LETTER FROM TAIFOOK CAPITAL

2. The proposed revised annual caps

As stated in the "Letter from the Board" of the Circular ("Letter from the Board"), the historical amounts, estimated amounts and proposed revised annual caps of the Chinalco Transactions are as follows:

Historical amounts		Estimated amounts
Year ended 31 December	Six months ended 30 June	Year ending 31 December
(RMB million)	(RMB million)	(RMB million)
2006	2007	2008	2008	2009
1,454	2,876	3,358	10,575	11,959
Proposed revised annual caps			11,000	12,200

We understand from the management of the Group that the main reasons for the substantial increase in the proposed annual caps for the Chinalco Transactions in 2008 and 2009 are as follows:

1. the Group has been expanding rapidly in recent years, through the construction of new plants and expansion and upgrading of its production plants and through mergers and acquisitions. As a result, the Company expects that there will be a substantial increase in the capital expenditure of the Group in 2008 and 2009 as compared to the previous years. As mentioned in the Letter from the Board, the estimated total capital expenditure of the Group in 2008 and 2009 are approximately RMB19,574 million and RMB21,448 million respectively, representing a substantial increase over the total capital expenditure of approximately RMB10,288 million in 2007 and approximately RMB8,621 million in 2006;
2. there has been a change in the contracting relationship with the Chinalco Group. As advised by the Directors, in the past, most of the fees in relation to the construction of production plants and facilities were settled directly by the Group with the independent equipment or services providers. From late 2007, the Group started to engage the Chinalco Group as the main contractor for some of the construction projects of the Group, under which the Chinalco Group will settle the payment for equipment and services provided by third party providers engaged by it. The Directors consider that the engagement of the Chinalco Group as main contractor would allow the Group to concentrate more resources towards its business in the production and sale of alumina, primary aluminum and aluminum fabrication products. As such, the number of construction projects of which the Chinalco Group acted as the main contractor increased in 2008. Under the main contractor model, the transaction amounts between the Group and the Chinalco Group, which include also the fees of third party providers engaged by the Chinalco Group, will be higher as compared to the case where the Chinalco Group does not act as the main contractor and the Group settles the amount directly with third party providers. Such change in contracting relationship with the Chinalco Group is expected to result in a higher percentage of the amount of the Chinalco Transactions in the Group's total capital expenditure in 2008 and 2009; and

LETTER FROM TAIFOOK CAPITAL

3. as advised by the Directors, through the acquisitions of (Changsha Engineering & Research Institute of Nonferrous Metallurgy) in late 2007 and (China Nonferrous Metal Industry Changsha Exploration & Design Research Institute) in mid 2008, the Chinalco Group has increased its capacities and abilities in providing engineering design, construction and supervisory services relating to the alumina and aluminum production plants. In addition, as advised by the Directors, (China Aluminum International Engineering Co., Ltd.), a subsidiary of Chinalco, is the only construction main contractor in the People's Republic of China (the "PRC") with specialized knowledge in the aluminum industry and accreditation by the PRC government. Accordingly, for 2008 and 2009, more large scale projects are awarded to the Chinalco Group which has expertise in the construction and design of alumina and aluminum production plants.

In order to assess the fairness and reasonableness of the proposed revised annual caps of the Chinalco Transactions, we have taken into account: (i) the expansion plan of the Group and accordingly the increase in the estimated total capital expenditure of the Group for each of 2008 and 2009 by approximately 90% and 108% over the historical total capital expenditure of the Group for 2007; (ii) the change in the contracting relationship with the Chinalco Group has resulted in a significant increase in the transaction amounts with the Chinalco Group; (iii) the increase in projects awarded to the Chinalco Group as a result of the increase in its capacities and abilities in providing engineering design, construction and supervisory services relating to the alumina and aluminum production plants through, among others, acquisitions of companies engaging in such business; and (iv) the proposed revised annual caps of the Chinalco Transactions for the two years ending 31 December 2009 are determined based on the capital expenditure plan of the Group. We have reviewed information including, among others, (i) the historical trend on the turnover of the Group from 2005 to 2007; (ii) the capital expenditure plan of the Group provided by the Company; and (iii) the circular of the Company in relation to recent acquisitions of the Group showing the expansion of the Group in recent years. We noted from the capital expenditure plan that a large portion of the total expected capital expenditure of the Group was attributable to projects in which the Chinalco Group acts as the main contractor and that the capital expenditure plan is in line with paragraphs (1) and (2) as mentioned above.

As advised by the Directors, in arriving at the annual caps, the Directors have not taken into consideration the impact of the current financial crisis, as the crisis has arisen only after the Directors have embarked on formulating the annual caps. However, based on the view of the Directors that it is difficult, if not impossible, for them to assess the extent of the impact of the financial crisis at this stage and having considered the bases adopted by the Company and factors considered by the Directors in arriving at the proposed revised annual caps of the Chinalco Transactions as mentioned above, we consider that the proposed annual caps of the Chinalco Transactions for the year ending 31 December 2008 and 2009 are fair and reasonable.

LETTER FROM TAIFOOK CAPITAL

(II) The Xinan Transactions

1. Background and reasons

As stated in the Letter from the Board, Xinan Aluminum is the largest aluminum fabrication manufacturer in the PRC. As advised by the Directors, the business activities of Xinan Aluminum include the production and sale of aluminum fabrication products such as aluminum alloy sheets, plates, strips, foils, tubes, rods and bars, forgings, etc.

The Group is principally engaged in bauxite mining, alumina refining and primary aluminum smelting operations. The principal products of the Group include alumina and primary aluminum.

As advised by the Directors, Chalco SW Aluminum is principally engaged in the production of aluminum alloy sheets and rolls. As stated in the Letter from the Board, since June 2008, Chalco SW Aluminum has become a 60% subsidiary of the Company, and Xinan Aluminum, by virtue of being a substantial shareholder of Chalco SW Aluminum, has become a connected person of the Company.

As advised by the Directors, Xinan Aluminum Group has business relationships with the Group since the establishment of the Company in 2001, and Chalco SW Aluminum has principally worked as a processing enterprise for Xinan Aluminum Group. As advised by the Directors, the current business relationships between the Group (including Chalco SW Aluminum) and Xinan Aluminum Group are summarized as follows:

- (i) Xinan Aluminum Group purchases primary aluminum from various branches and subsidiaries of the Company as raw materials for processing into aluminum alloy ingots and other aluminum fabrication products and also purchases aluminum alloy ingots from branches of the Company for processing into other aluminum fabrication products and for sale to Chalco SW Aluminum (the aforesaid sales by the Group to the Xinan Aluminum Group together are hereinafter referred to as "Sale Transactions A");
- (ii) Xinan Aluminum Group also sells aluminum alloy ingots, some of which are produced by Xinan Aluminum Group and some of which are purchased by Xinan Aluminum Group from the Group and third parties, to Chalco SW Aluminum for further processing. Xinan Aluminum Group also supplies ancillary materials and spare parts, equipment, water, electricity, gas and provides maintenance and repair, loading and unloading, transportation and storage services to the Group (the aforesaid purchases by the Group from Xinan Aluminum Group together are hereinafter referred to as "Purchase Transactions C");
- (iii) Chalco SW Aluminum processes the aluminum alloy ingots into aluminum alloy sheets or rolls and sells part of such products to Xinan Aluminum Group for sale to Xinan Aluminum Group's customers after further fabrication. Chalco SW Aluminum also sells to Xinan Aluminum Group the aluminum fabrication scraps produced during the fabrication process to Xinan Aluminum Group for recycling (the aforesaid sales by the Group to the Xinan Aluminum Group together are hereinafter referred to as "Sale Transactions B"); and

- (iv) Chalco International Trading, a subsidiary of the Company which as advised by the Directors, is principally engaged in import, export and trading of alumina, aluminum and fabrication products, and materials relating to the production of alumina and aluminum, purchases aluminum fabrication products from Xinan Aluminum Group for sale to its customers (the aforesaid purchases by the Group from Xinan Aluminum Group are hereinafter referred to as "Purchase Transactions D").

As advised by the Directors, prior to July 2008, all purchases of raw materials and sale of products by Chalco SW Aluminum were conducted by Xinan Aluminum as Chalco SW Aluminum was primarily a processing enterprise for the Xinan Aluminum Group. Starting from July 2008 after Chalco SW Aluminum has become a 60% subsidiary of the Company since June 2008, Chalco SW Aluminum begins to purchase part of its aluminum alloy ingots directly from the Group (instead of purchasing all aluminum alloy ingots from Xinan Aluminum) for processing into aluminum alloy sheets and rolls. In addition, the Directors expect that the amount of aluminum alloy ingots purchased by Chalco SW Aluminum from the Group will further increase and that purchased from Xinan Aluminum Group will further reduce in 2009. Having considered that Chalco SW Aluminum will purchase more aluminum alloy ingots directly from the Group in 2009, the Directors expect that Xinan Aluminum Group's purchase of aluminum alloy ingots from the Group will cease in 2009. On the other hand, starting from July 2008, Chalco SW Aluminum sells its aluminum alloy sheets and rolls not only to Xinan Aluminum Group but also to the Group and/or other third parties. The Directors expect that the amount of aluminum alloy rolls and sheets sold by Chalco SW Aluminum to the Group and third parties will further increase and that sold to Xinan Aluminum Group will further reduce in 2009. We understand from the Directors that in estimating the amount of aluminum alloy rolls and sheets sold by Chalco SW Aluminum to the Group and third parties in 2009, the Directors have taken into account the historical amount of such transactions in recent months and the expected demand for Chalco SW Aluminum's products by Chalco Southwest Aluminum Cold Rolling Company Limited (), a subsidiary of the Group, following the commencement of its production expected to take place in 2009. Based on the above and given that Chalco SW

Aluminum is under the control of the Company and its business will integrate with the Group, we concur with the view of the Directors that the increase in sale of aluminum alloy sheets and rolls to the Group and/or other third parties and purchase of aluminum alloy ingots from the Group by Chalco SW Aluminum after Chalco SW Aluminum becomes a subsidiary of the Company are reasonable.

2. Major terms of the Xinan Agreement

On 20 October 2008, the Company and Xinan Aluminum entered into the Xinan Agreement for a term from 1 June 2008 to 31 December 2009, the principal terms of which are summarized as follows:

1. Products and services to be provided: (i) by the Group (including the Company's branches) to Xinan Aluminum Group:

Both parties are entitled to purchase the products or services from third party if the provision of products or services by the selling party cannot meet the demand (either qualitatively or quantitatively) of the purchasing party and in accordance with the provisions of the Xinan Agreement.

Each party shall give priority in purchasing from or selling to the other party under the Xinan Agreement provided that the terms offered by third party is same as the terms offered by the other party.

We have reviewed some contracts for the sale of aluminum ingots by the Group to independent third parties and discussed with the management of the Group the terms thereof and noted no material difference of such terms with the terms of the sale of same type of products by the Group to Xinan Aluminum.

Based on the above, in particular,

- (i) the nature of the transactions contemplated under the Xinan Agreement is within the Group's existing business activities;
- (ii) the reasons for entering into the Xinan Agreement as mentioned above;
- (iii) the price at which the products or services will be provided under the Xinan Agreement will be determined according to government direction or market forces or at Reasonable Costs plus an average profit margin in the same industry, and will be the same as the price at which such products or services are sold by the selling party to independent third parties; and

- (iv) both parties are entitled to sell the products or services to, or purchase the products or services from, third party if the third party purchases or sells the same or similar products or services at a more favourable price than the price available under the Xinan Agreement and both parties are entitled to purchase the products or services from third party if the provision of products or services by the selling party cannot meet the demand of the purchasing party, we concur with the view of the Directors that the entering into of the Xinan Agreement is in the interests of the Company and the Independent Shareholders as a whole and in the ordinary and usual course of business of the Group, and the terms thereof are on normal commercial terms and fair and reasonable so far as the interests of the Company and the Independent Shareholders are concerned.

Note: As stated in the Letter from the Board, Chalco SW Aluminum commenced its production in July 2005. In 2006, it had not yet reached its maximum annual production capacity of 350,000 tonnes as it normally takes some time for a factory to reach its full production capacity. This explains the initial transaction amounts of RMB1,050 million in 2005 and RMB3,150 million in 2006.

LETTER FROM TAIFOOK CAPITAL

We have discussed with the management of the Group the basis of determining the proposed annual caps of the Xinan Transactions and understand that the following factors have been taken into consideration in determining the proposed annual caps:

- (i) For Sale Transactions A, we understand from the Directors that Xinan Aluminum and the Group entered into contracts in late 2007 and early 2008 pursuant to which the Group agreed to sell primary aluminum and aluminum alloy ingots to Xinan Aluminum in 2008. The estimated amount of Sale Transactions A for 2008 has been determined based on such contracts.

In estimating the amount of Sale Transactions A for 2009, the Company expects that the sale of primary aluminum to Xinan Aluminum Group will continue with a 20% growth assuming the business growth of Xinan Aluminum Group. We have reviewed the figures of revenue from principal operations of Xinan Aluminum Group from 2005 to 2007 and noted that the revenue from principal operations of Xinan Aluminum Group in 2006 and 2007 recorded a growth rate of more than 20% as compared to their respective previous years. Based on the aforesaid historical growth rates, we concur with the view of the Directors that the assumption of a 20% growth is reasonable.

On the other hand, the sale of aluminum alloy ingots by the Group to Xinan Aluminum Group is expected to cease for 2009 for reason that Chalco SW Aluminum will purchase more aluminum alloy ingots directly from the Group.

- (ii) For Sale Transactions B, we note that the estimated amount for 2008 is slightly higher than the historical amount in 2007. Such increase is mainly attributable to the Directors' expected increase in Chalco SW Aluminum's total production volume of aluminum alloy sheets and rolls in 2008 by approximately 13% as compared to previous year. Accordingly, although from July 2008 onwards Chalco SW Aluminum begins to sell part of its aluminum alloy sheets and rolls to the Group (instead of selling all of its aluminum alloy sheets and rolls to Xinan Aluminum prior to July 2008), the estimated amount for 2008 is higher than the historical amount in 2007.

In estimating the amount of Sale Transactions B for 2009, the Directors also assume a growth of approximately 14% in Chalco SW Aluminum's total production volume of aluminum alloy sheets and rolls and fabrication scraps in 2009 as compared to 2008. However, as the Directors expect that Chalco SW Aluminum will further increase its sales to the Group and third parties and reduce its sales to Xinan Aluminum Group, the estimated amount of Sale Transactions B for 2009 is lower than that for 2008.

As mentioned above, in estimating the amount of Sale Transactions B for 2008 and 2009, the Directors have assumed an annual growth in Chalco SW Aluminum's total production volume of aluminum alloy sheets or rolls and fabrication scraps by approximately 13% to 14%.

We understand from the Directors that the revenue from principal operations and production volume of Chalco SW Aluminum in 2007 recorded a growth rate of over 30% as compared with 2006. As advised by the Directors, such high growth rate in 2007 over 2006 is mainly attributable to the fact that Chalco SW Aluminum commenced its production in the second half of 2005 and therefore in 2006, the factory had not reached its full production capacity and it takes some time for the factory to operate smoothly. Accordingly, the Directors expect that the production volume growth rate in 2008 and 2009 will be lower than that of 2007. Based on the above, we concur with the view of the Directors that the assumption of a 13% to 14% growth is reasonable.

- 28 -

LETTER FROM TAIFOOK CAPITAL

- (iii) For Purchase Transactions C, we note that the estimated amount for 2008 is lower than the historical amount in 2007. We understand from the Directors that the Company and Chalco SW Aluminum entered into contracts in July 2008 pursuant to which Chalco SW Aluminum agreed to purchase a certain amount of aluminum alloy ingots from the Company's branches from July to December 2008. Accordingly, despite the expected increase in demand for aluminum alloy ingots by Chalco SW Aluminum as a result of expected growth in its total production volume, the Directors expect that the amount of aluminum alloy ingots purchased by Chalco SW Aluminum from Xinan Aluminum Group in 2008 will be lower than that in 2007 (given that Chalco SW Aluminum purchased all aluminum alloy ingots from Xinan Aluminum in 2007). This results in the decrease in the estimated amount of Purchase Transactions C in 2008.

In estimating the amount of Purchase Transactions C for 2009, the Directors also assume that Chalco SW Aluminum's total demand for aluminum alloy ingots in 2009 will be higher than 2008 due to the expected increase in its total production volume. However, as the Directors expect that Chalco SW Aluminum will further increase its purchase of aluminum alloy ingots from the Group and reduce its purchase of aluminum alloy ingots from Xinan Aluminum Group, the estimated amount of Purchase Transactions C for 2009 is lower than that for 2008.

- (iv)

For Purchase Transactions D, we understand from the Directors that the estimated amount for 2008 has been determined based on the contracts entered into between Xinan Aluminum and Chalco International Trading in early 2008 for the purchase of aluminum fabrication products by Chalco International Trading from Xinan Aluminum during the year 2008. The estimated amount of Purchase Transactions D in 2009 is approximately RMB622 million, representing an increase of approximately 20% over the estimated amount of Purchase Transactions D of approximately RMB518 million in 2008 as the Directors expects that the amount of such transactions will increase in 2009. We note from the Letter from the Board that the historical amounts of Purchase Transactions D have significantly increased from nil in 2005 to approximately RMB500 million in 2006 and to approximately RMB1,000 million in 2007. Having considered the substantial growth in the historical amounts of Purchase Transactions D in 2006 and 2007 (as compared with their respective previous years), we consider that the percentage increase in the estimated amount of Purchase Transactions D of approximately 20% in 2009 over 2008 is reasonable.

- (v) As advised by the Directors, in arriving at the proposed annual caps of each of the above transactions, a buffer of approximately 11% to approximately 15% has been included to provide for the possible increase of the transaction amounts as a result of, among others, price fluctuations and transaction quantity. We understand from the Directors that the prices of aluminum alloy ingots, aluminum alloy sheets and rolls and fabrication scraps, and aluminum fabrication products are linked to the prices of primary aluminum. Based on information extracted from Bloomberg, we noted that the front futures closing prices of aluminum ingots quoted on the Shanghai Futures Exchange during the period from 1 September 2007 to 31 August 2008 ranged from RMB17,400 to RMB21,130 per tonne. The highest price

represents an increase of approximately 21% over the lowest price during the period. In addition, as mentioned above, following July 2008, Chalco SW Aluminum will gradually sell its products to third parties and/or to the Group for onward sale to the Group's customers and purchase aluminum alloy ingots from the Group instead of conducting all of its sales and purchases through Xinan Aluminum. In the event that such reorganisation is not carried out smoothly, the amount of sales to and purchases from the Group and/or third parties (as the case may be) by Chalco SW Aluminum may be affected. Based on the aforesaid, we concur with the view of the Directors that the buffer is reasonable.

We have reviewed information including, among others, (i) a copy of the contracts entered into (a) between Xinan Aluminum and the Group, (b) between the Company and Chalco SW Aluminum, and (c) between Xinan Aluminum and Chalco International Trading as mentioned in paragraphs (i), (iii) and (iv) above; (ii) the figures of revenue from principal operations of Xinan Aluminum Group from 2005 to 2007 and the production volume figures of Chalco SW Aluminum in 2006 and 2007 as provided by the Company; and (iii) the figures of revenue from principal operations of Chalco SW Aluminum in 2006 and 2007 as extracted from its audited accounts.

As advised by the Directors, in arriving at the annual caps, the Directors have not taken into consideration the impact of the current financial crisis, as the crisis has arisen only after the Directors have embarked on formulating the annual caps. However, based on the view of the Directors that it is difficult, if not impossible, for them to assess the extent of the impact of the financial crisis at this stage and having considered the bases adopted by the Company and factors considered by the Directors in estimating the proposed annual caps of the Xinan Transactions as mentioned above, we consider that the proposed annual caps of the Xinan Transactions for the year ending 31 December 2008 and 2009 are fair and reasonable.

(III) RECOMMENDATION

Having considered the principal factors and reasons referred to the above and based on the view of the Directors that it is difficult, if not impossible, to assess the extent of the impact of the financial crisis as mentioned above, we consider that the entering into of the Xinan Agreement is in the interests of the Company and the Independent Shareholders as a whole and in the ordinary and usual course of business of the Group, and the terms thereof are on normal commercial terms and are fair and reasonable so far as the interests of the Company and the Independent Shareholders are concerned, and that the proposed revised annual caps of the Chinalco Transactions and the proposed annual caps of the Xinan Transactions for the two years ending 31 December 2009 are fair and reasonable so far as the interests of the Company and the Independent Shareholders are concerned. Accordingly, we advise the Independent Board Committee to recommend the Independent Shareholders to vote in favour of the ordinary resolutions to be proposed at the EGM to approve the Xinan Transactions and the proposed revised annual caps of the Chinalco Transactions and the proposed annual caps of the Xinan Transactions for the two years ending 31 December 2009.

Yours faithfully,
For and on behalf of Taifook Capital Limited
