NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the three and six months ended May 31, 2017 and 2016

(currency and share amounts in thousands, except per share amounts)

(unaudited)

NOTE 1—ORGANIZATION AND BASIS OF PRESENTATION:

SYNNEX Corporation (together with its subsidiaries, herein referred to as “SYNNEX” or the “Company”) is a business process services company headquartered in Fremont, California and has operations in North and South America, Asia-Pacific and Europe.

The Company has two reportable segments: Technology Solutions and Concentrix. The Technology Solutions segment distributes a broad range of information technology systems and products and also provides systems design and integration solutions. The Concentrix segment offers a portfolio of strategic solutions and end-to-end global business outsourcing services focused on customer engagement strategy, process optimization, technology innovation, front and back-office automation and business transformation to clients in ten identified industry verticals.

The accompanying interim unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements as of May 31, 2017 and for the three and six months ended May 31, 2017 and 2016 have been prepared by the Company in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”). The amounts as of November 30, 2016 have been derived from the Company’s annual audited financial statements. Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (“GAAP”) in the United States have been condensed or omitted in accordance with such rules and regulations. In the opinion of management, the accompanying unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements reflect all adjustments, consisting only of normal recurring adjustments, necessary to state fairly the financial position of the Company and its results of operations and cash flows as of and for the periods presented. These financial statements should be read in conjunction with the annual audited financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended November 30, 2016.

Interim results of operations are not necessarily indicative of financial results for a full year, and the Company makes no representations related thereto.

NOTE 2—SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

For a discussion of the Company's significant accounting policies, please see the discussion in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended November 30, 2016. During the six months ended May 31, 2017, the Company adopted certain new accounting pronouncements which are discussed below.

Concentration of credit risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to significant concentration of credit risk consist principally of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable and derivative instruments.

The Company’s cash and cash equivalents and derivative instruments are transacted and maintained with financial institutions with high credit standing, and the compositions and maturities of which are regularly monitored by management. Through May 31, 2017, the Company had not experienced any credit losses on such deposits and derivative instruments.

Accounts receivable include amounts due from customers and original equipment manufacturer (“OEM”) vendors primarily in the technology industry. The Company performs ongoing credit evaluations of its customers’ financial condition and limits the amount of credit extended when deemed necessary, but generally requires no collateral. The Company also maintains allowances for potential credit losses. In estimating the required allowances, the Company takes into consideration the overall quality and aging of the receivable portfolio, the existence of a limited amount of credit insurance and specifically identified customer and vendor risks. Through May 31, 2017, such losses have been within management’s expectations.

One customer accounted for 21% and 19% of the Company's total revenue during the three and six months ended May 31, 2017, respectively. During the three and six months ended May 31, 2016, the same customer accounted for 11% and 10% of the Company's total revenue, respectively. Products purchased from the Company's largest OEM supplier, HP Inc. accounted for approximately 13% and 14% of total revenue during the three and six months ended May 31, 2017, respectively, and approximately 17% and 18% of total revenue during the three and six months ended May 31, 2016, respectively.

SYNEX CORPORATION

For the three and six months ended May 31, 2017 and 2016

(currency and share amounts in thousands, except per share amounts)

(unaudited)

As of May 31, 2017, one customer comprised 20% of the total accounts receivable balance. As of November 30, 2016, no customer comprised 10% or more of the total accounts receivable balance.

Inventories

Inventories as of November 30, 2016 were stated at the lower of cost or market. Commencing December 1, 2016, inventories are stated at the lower of cost or net realizable value. Cost is computed based on the weighted-average method. Inventories are comprised of finished goods and work-in-process. Finished goods include products purchased for resale, system components purchased for both resale and for use in the Company's systems design and integration business, and completed systems. Work-in-process inventories are not material to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

Reclassifications

Certain reclassifications have been made to prior period amounts in the Consolidated Balance Sheets, the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows and the notes thereto to conform to current period presentation, primarily pursuant to the adoption of new accounting pronouncements. The impact of reclassifications pursuant to adoption of new guidance is provided below under "Recently adopted accounting pronouncements." Other reclassifications in the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows had no effect on cash flows from operating, investing or financing activities as previously reported.

Recently issued accounting pronouncements

In June 2016, the Financial Accounting Standard Board (the "FASB") issued a new credit loss standard that replaces the incurred loss impairment methodology in current GAAP. The new impairment model requires immediate recognition of estimated credit losses expected to occur for most financial assets and certain other instruments. It is effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2019 and interim periods within those annual periods. Early adoption for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2018 is permitted. Entities will apply the standard's provisions as a cumulative-effect adjustment to retained earnings as of the beginning of the first effective reporting period. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of the new guidance.

In March 2016, the FASB issued guidance which changes the accounting for share-based payment transactions, including the income tax consequences, classification of awards as either equity or liabilities, and classification in the Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows. The guidance is effective for interim and annual periods beginning after December 15, 2016 and early adoption is permitted. Had the Company adopted this guidance during the six months ended May 31, 2017, income tax expense would be lower by $416 and $1,827 for the three and six months ended May 31, 2017, respectively, and net income would be higher by approximately the same amounts. The tax impact is included in additional paid-in capital for the six months ended May 31, 2017. Cash used in operating activities during the six months ended May 31, 2017 would be lower by $1,827.

In February 2016, the FASB issued a new standard which revises various aspects of accounting for leases. The most significant impact to the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements relates to the recognition by a lessee of a right-of-use asset and a lease liability for virtually all of its leases other than short-term leases. The liability will be equal to the present value of lease payments. The asset will be based on the liability, subject to adjustment, such as for initial direct costs. Consistent with current guidance, the recognition, measurement, and presentation of expenses and cash flows arising from a lease by a lessee primarily will depend on its classification. For income statement purposes, operating leases will result in a straight line expense while finance leases will result in a front-loaded expense pattern. This accounting standard will be applicable to the Company at the beginning of its first quarter of fiscal year 2020 using a modified retrospective approach and early adoption is permitted. The Company expects that most of its operating lease commitments will be subject to the new standard and recognized as operating lease liabilities and right-of-use assets upon adoption and is currently evaluating the impact on its Consolidated Financial Statements upon the adoption of this new standard.

In January 2016, the FASB issued new guidance which amends various aspects of the recognition, measurement, presentation, and disclosure of financial instruments. With respect to the Company's consolidated financial statements, the most significant impact relates to the accounting for equity investments (other than those that are consolidated or accounted under the equity method) which will be measured at fair value through earnings. The new guidance is effective for annual reporting periods, and interim periods within those years beginning after December 15, 2017, with early adoption permitted only for certain provisions. The amendments should be applied by means of a cumulative-effect adjustment to the balance sheet as of the beginning of the fiscal year of adoption, with other amendments related specifically to equity securities without readily determinable fair values applied prospectively. The Company does not expect the adoption of this standard to have a material impact on its Consolidated Financial Statements.

In May 2014, the FASB issued a comprehensive new revenue recognition standard for contracts with customers that will supersede most current revenue recognition guidance, including industry-specific guidance. The core principle of this standard is that an entity should recognize revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. To achieve this core principle, the standard provides a five-step analysis of transactions to determine when and how revenue is recognized. Other major provisions include the capitalization and amortization of certain contract costs, ensuring the time value of money is considered in the transaction price, and allowing estimates of variable consideration to be recognized before contingencies are resolved in certain circumstances. This guidance also requires enhanced disclosures regarding the nature, amount, timing and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows arising from an entity's contracts with customers. In August 2015, the FASB amended this accounting standard and postponed the implementation date to fiscal years, and interim periods within those fiscal years, beginning after December 15, 2017. Early application for fiscal years, and interim periods within those years, beginning after December 15, 2016 is permitted. The standard permits the use of either the retrospective or cumulative effect transition method. This accounting standard will be applicable to the Company at the beginning of its first quarter of fiscal year 2019. The Company has established an implementation team and engaged external advisers to assess the Company's business and contracts. The Company is in the process of determining the transition method and evaluating the impact of several aspects of the standard including principal versus agent considerations, identification of performance obligations and the determination of when control of goods and services transfers to the Company's customers.

Recently adopted Accounting Pronouncements

In May 2017, the FASB issued guidance to clarify when to account for a change to the terms or conditions of a share-based payment award as a modification. Under the new guidance, modification accounting is required only if the fair value, the vesting conditions, or the classification of the award (as equity or liability) changes as a result of the change in terms or conditions. The guidance is effective prospectively for all companies for annual periods and interim periods within those annual periods, beginning on or after December 15, 2017. The Company adopted the guidance prospectively in its second quarter of fiscal year 2017. The adoption had no impact on the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements.

In January 2017, the FASB issued guidance to simplify the accounting for goodwill impairment. It removes Step 2 of the goodwill impairment test, which requires a hypothetical purchase price allocation. Goodwill impairment will now be calculated as the amount by which a reporting unit's carrying value exceeds its fair value, not exceeding the carrying amount of goodwill. In addition, income tax effects from any tax deductible goodwill shall also be considered in measuring goodwill impairment loss, if applicable. The guidance is effective for annual and interim periods beginning after December 15, 2019 and should be adopted prospectively. Early adoption is permitted for interim or annual goodwill impairment test performed with a measurement date after January 1, 2017. The Company adopted the guidance prospectively in its first quarter of fiscal year 2017. The adoption had no impact on the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements.

In November 2016, the FASB issued new guidance which requires that a statement of cash flows explain the change during the period in the total of cash, cash equivalents, and amounts generally described as restricted cash or restricted cash equivalents. Therefore, amounts generally described as restricted cash and restricted cash equivalents should be included with cash and cash equivalents when reconciling the beginning-of-period and end-of-period total amounts shown on the statement of cash flows. The Company adopted this new guidance in the first quarter of fiscal year 2017, with retrospective effect. The adoption did not have a material impact on the Company's cash flow statement for the six months ended May 31, 2017. For the six months ended May 31, 2016, cash flows from investing activities decreased by $86,538.

In October 2016, the FASB issued new guidance that requires a reporting entity to recognize the tax expense from intra-entity asset transfers of assets other than inventory in the selling entity's tax jurisdiction when the transfer occurs, even though the pre-tax effects of that transaction are eliminated in consolidation. Any deferred tax asset that arises in the buying entity's jurisdiction would also be recognized at the time of the transfer. The Company adopted this new guidance in the first quarter of fiscal year 2017 using the modified retrospective approach. The adoption did not have a material impact on the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements.

In August 2016, the FASB issued an amendment to the statement of cash flows. It addresses eight specific cash flow issues to clarify the presentation and classification of cash receipts and cash payments in the statement of cash flows where diversity in practice exists. The Company adopted this new standard in the first quarter of fiscal year 2017, with retrospective effect. The adoption did not have a material impact on the Company's cash flows from operating, investing or financing activities.

In November 2015, the FASB issued a new accounting standard that requires deferred tax liabilities and assets be classified as noncurrent on a company's balance sheet. The Company adopted this new standard in the first quarter of fiscal year 2017, with retrospective effect. Although the adoption did not materially impact the company's consolidated financial position or results of operations, it resulted in a reclassification of $44,116 of deferred tax assets from current to noncurrent and a reclassification of $448 of other accrued liabilities related to current deferred tax liabilities to noncurrent deferred tax liabilities at November 30, 2016. In addition, the Company recorded an offset of $5,000 of current deferred tax assets against deferred tax liabilities, noncurrent as of November 30, 2016 in order to present a single noncurrent deferred tax balance by tax jurisdiction.

In September 2015, the FASB issued a new accounting standard that eliminates the requirement to restate prior period financial statements for measurement period adjustments. The new guidance requires that the cumulative impact of a measurement period adjustment (including the impact on prior periods) be recognized in the reporting period in which the adjustment is identified. Consistent with existing guidance, the new guidance requires an acquirer to disclose the nature and amount of measurement period adjustments. In addition, companies are required to present separately on the face of the income statement or disclose in the notes the portion of the adjustment recorded in current-period earnings by line item that would have been recorded in previous reporting periods if the adjustment to the provisional amounts had been recognized as of the acquisition date. The Company adopted this new standard in the first quarter of fiscal year 2017 prospectively. The adoption did not have a material impact on the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements.

In July 2015, the FASB issued a new accounting standard that simplifies the subsequent measurement of inventory. It replaces the lower of cost or market test with the lower of cost or net realizable value test. Net realizable value is defined as the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less reasonably predictable costs of completion, disposal, and transportation. The Company adopted this new standard in the first quarter of fiscal year 2017 prospectively. The adoption did not have a material impact on the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements.

In April 2015, the FASB issued new guidance to customers about whether a cloud computing arrangement includes a software license. If the cloud computing arrangement includes a software license, the customer should account for the software license element of the arrangement consistent with the acquisition of other software licenses. If the cloud computing arrangement does not include a software license, the customer should account for the arrangement as a service contract. The Company adopted this new standard in the first quarter of fiscal year 2017 prospectively. The adoption had no impact on the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements.

In April 2015, the FASB issued a new accounting standard that requires that debt issuance costs related to a recognized debt liability be presented in the balance sheet as a direct deduction from the carrying amount of the corresponding debt liability. In August 2015, the FASB clarified that for a line-of-credit arrangement, a company can continue to defer and present the debt issuance costs as an asset and subsequent amortization of debt issuance costs over the term of the line-of-credit arrangement, whether or not there are any outstanding borrowings on the line-of-credit arrangement. The Company adopted this new standard in the first quarter of fiscal year 2017, with retrospective effect. The adoption did not have a material impact on the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements.

NOTE 3—ACQUISITIONS:

Fiscal 2016 acquisition

In August 2016, the Company acquired 100% of the Minacs group of companies (“Minacs”), which provide integrated business process outsourcing services, for a preliminary purchase price of $435,635 paid in cash, subject to certain post-closing adjustments. During the six months ended May 31, 2017, the Company received a refund of $6,500 related to post-closing adjustments, which reduced the above-mentioned preliminary purchase price to $429,135 with a corresponding reduction to goodwill. The Company also recorded certain immaterial measurement period adjustments to the fair value of acquired net tangible assets. Acquisition-related and integration expenses were $9,798, of which $0 and $611, respectively, were incurred during the three and six months ended May 31, 2017. These charges were recorded in “Selling, general and administrative expenses.”

Pending acquisition

On June 5, 2017, the Company entered into an agreement with Datatec Limited and, one of its subsidiaries, Datatec PLC (collectively "Datatec"), to acquire Datatec's North America and Latin America distribution businesses, through the purchase of 100% of the shares of Westcon Group, Inc., a Delaware company, for a purchase price of $600,000, and a potential earnout amount of up to $200,000 if certain gross profit targets are achieved during the twelve-month period ending February 28, 2018. The Company will also purchase 10% of Datatec's EMEA (Europe, Middle East and Africa) and APAC (Asia Pacific) distribution businesses for $30,000 through the purchase of 10% of the shares of each of Westcon Emerging Markets Group (Pty) Limited, a South Africa company, and Westcon Group European Holdings, Limited, a United Kingdom company. The acquisition is related to the Technology Solutions segment and is expected to strengthen the Company's line card in the security, Unified Communications and Collaboration and networking markets, enhance the Company's North American position and expand the Company's footprint into Latin America.

The purchase consideration payable at closing consists of $100,000 payable in cash and $500,000 payable in the Company's common stock representing 4,559 shares, which is approximately 10.25% of the Company's outstanding shares, after giving effect to such issuance. The final purchase consideration could significantly differ due to movements in the Company's common stock price by the closing date. The Company has the option to pay the entire consideration in cash if the Company's 20-day average stock price at time of closing is greater than $113.78 per share. The earnout amount is payable in cash. If stock is issued as part of the purchase consideration, the Company will grant Datatec registration rights with respect thereto, and Jens Montanana, CEO of Datatec will be appointed to the Company's Board of Directors, subject to legal and regulatory compliance and Datatec's continued ownership of at least 5% of all of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock. The Company also has an option to purchase an additional 10% equity interest in both the EMEA and APAC distribution businesses within the twelve months following the closing of the acquisition, for an additional consideration of $30,000. Completion of the acquisition is subject to customary closing conditions, including Datatec shareholder approval, the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, and other similar antitrust laws in jurisdictions outside the United States, approval of the South African Reserve Bank in accordance with the Exchange Control Regulations, and other regulatory approvals.

NOTE 4—SHARE-BASED COMPENSATION:

The Company recognizes share-based compensation expense for all share-based awards made to employees and directors, including employee stock options, restricted stock awards, restricted stock units, performance-based restricted stock units and employee stock purchases, based on estimated fair values.

The following table summarizes the number of share-based awards granted under the Company's 2013 Stock Incentive Plan, as amended, during the three and six months ended May 31, 2017 and 2016, and the grant-date fair value of those awards:

The Company recorded substantially all of its share-based compensation expense in "Selling, general and administrative expenses" in the Consolidated Statements of Operations.

NOTE 6—INVESTMENTS:

	As of May 31, 2017			November 30, 2016
	Adjusted Cost Basis	Unrealized Gains	Carrying Value	Adjusted Cost Basis	Unrealized Gains	Carrying Value
Short-term investments:
Held-to-maturity investments	$5,287	$ —	$ 5,287	$5,109	$ —	$ 5,109
Long-term investments in other assets:
Available-for-sale securities	$975	$ 1,480	$ 2,455	$928	$ 955	$ 1,883

Cost-method investments	3,851	—	3,851	3,884	—	3,884

Short-term held-to-maturity investments primarily consist of term deposits with maturities from the date of purchase greater than three months and less than one year. These term deposits are held until the maturity date and are not traded. Long-term available-for-sale securities primarily consist of investments in other companies' equity securities. Long-term held-to-maturity investments consist of foreign government bonds of $1,242 purchased pursuant to local regulations, maturing in fiscal year 2023, and term deposits with maturities less than one year. These term deposits are renewed due to certain restrictions under the terms of an acquisition arrangement. Long-term cost-method investments consist of investments in equity securities of private entities.

Available-for-sale securities are recorded at fair value in each reporting period and therefore the carrying value of these securities equals their fair value. For cost-method investments, the Company records an impairment charge when the decline in fair value is determined to be other-than-temporary. The fair value of cost-method investments is based on an internal valuation of the investees. The fair value of foreign government bonds is $1,197 as of May 31, 2017.

Cash flows from purchases, sales, and maturities of available-for-sale and held-to-maturity securities are classified as cash flows from investing activities and reported gross on a combined basis as these principally represent cash flows from held-to-maturity securities.

NOTE 7—DERIVATIVE INSTRUMENTS:

In the ordinary course of business, the Company is exposed to foreign currency risk, interest rate risk, equity risk and credit risk. The Company's transactions in most of its foreign operations are primarily denominated in local currency. The Company enters into transactions, and owns monetary assets and liabilities, that are denominated in currencies other than the legal entity's functional currency. The Company may enter into forward contracts, option contracts, swaps, or other derivative instruments to offset a portion of the risk on expected future cash flows, on net investments in certain foreign subsidiaries and on certain existing assets and liabilities. However, the Company may choose not to hedge certain exposures for a variety of reasons including, but not limited to, accounting considerations and the prohibitive economic cost of hedging particular exposures. There can be no assurance the hedges will offset more than a portion of the financial impact resulting from movements in foreign currency exchange or interest rates.

All derivatives are recognized on the balance sheet at their fair value. Changes in the fair value of a derivative are recorded in the Consolidated Statements of Operations as "Other income (expense), net" or as a component of "Accumulated other comprehensive income (loss)" in the Consolidated Balance Sheets, as discussed below.

As part of its risk management strategy, the Company uses short-term forward contracts to offset the foreign exchange risk on assets and liabilities denominated in currencies other than the functional currency of the respective entities. These forward-exchange contracts are not designated as hedging instruments. The forward exchange contracts are recorded at fair value in each reporting period and any gains or losses, resulting from the changes in fair value, are recorded in earnings in the period of change.

In May 2015, the Company entered into interest rate swaps with an aggregate notional amount of $400,000 to economically convert a portion of its variable-rate debt to fixed-rate debt. The effective portions of cash flow hedges are recorded in "Accumulated other comprehensive income (loss)" until the hedged item is recognized in earnings. Deferred gains and losses associated with cash flow hedges of interest expense are recognized in "Other income (expense), net" in the same period as the related expense is recognized. The ineffective portions and amounts excluded from the effectiveness testing of cash flow hedges are recognized in "Other income (expense), net."

Derivative instruments designated as cash flow hedges must be de-designated as hedges when it is probable the forecasted hedged transaction will not occur in the initially identified time period or within a subsequent two-month time period. Deferred gains and losses in "Accumulated other comprehensive income (loss)" associated with such derivative instruments are reclassified immediately into "Other income (expense), net." Any subsequent changes in fair value of such derivative instruments are reflected in "Other income (expense), net" unless they are re-designated as hedges of other transactions.

Generally, the Company does not use derivative instruments to cover equity risk and credit risk. The Company's policy is not to allow the use of derivatives for trading or speculative purposes. The fair values of the Company's derivative instruments are also disclosed in Note 8.

The following table summarizes the fair value of the Company's derivative instruments as of May 31, 2017 and November 30, 2016:

Balance Sheet Line Item	Fair Value as of
	May 31, 2017	November 30, 2016
Derivative instruments not designated as hedging instruments
Foreign exchange forward contracts
Other current assets	$ 774	$ 1,700
Other accrued liabilities	1,168	979
Derivative instruments designated as cash flow hedges
Interest rate swaps
Other accrued liabilities	$ 1,842	$ 706
Other long-term liabilities	4,498	6,542

The notional amounts of the foreign exchange forward contracts that were outstanding as of May 31, 2017 and November 30, 2016 were $198,527 and $275,163, respectively. The notional amounts represent the gross amounts of foreign currency, including the Canadian Dollar, British Pound, Mexican Peso, Brazilian Real, Indian Rupee, Australian Dollar, Euro, and Japanese Yen, that will be bought or sold at maturity. The contracts mature in six months or less. In relation to its forward contracts not designated as hedging instruments, the Company recorded losses of $2 and $2,199, respectively, during the three and six months ended May 31, 2017, and losses of $6,292 and $4,458, respectively, during the three and six months ended May 31, 2016, in "Other income (expense), net." The gains and losses on the Company's foreign currency forward contracts are largely offset by the change in the fair value of the underlying hedged assets or liabilities.

During the three and six months ended May 31, 2017, the Company recorded losses before tax of $1,009 and gains before tax of $908, respectively, and gains before tax of $2,027 and losses before tax of $6,263, respectively, for the three and six months ended May 31, 2016 in "Other comprehensive income (loss)" related to changes in the fair value of its derivative instruments designated as cash flow hedging instruments. During the three and six months ended May 31, 2017 and 2016, there was no hedge ineffectiveness related to these derivative instruments. During the three and six months ended May 31, 2017 and 2016, there were no gains or losses recognized in earnings associated with an underlying exposure that did not, or was not expected to, occur; nor are there any anticipated in the normal course of business within the next twelve months.

In the Consolidated Balance Sheets, the Company does not offset derivative assets against liabilities in master netting arrangements. If derivative exposures covered by a qualifying master netting agreement had been netted in the Consolidated

Statement of Financial Position, the total derivative asset and liability positions would have been reduced by $693 each as of May 31, 2017 and $1,364 each as of November 30, 2016.

Credit exposure for derivative financial instruments is limited to the amounts, if any, by which the counterparties' obligations under the contracts exceed our obligations to the counterparties. We manage the potential risk of credit losses through careful evaluation of counterparty credit standing and selection of counterparties from a limited group of financial institutions.

NOTE 8—FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS:

The Company's fair value measurements are classified and disclosed in one of the following three categories:

Level 1: Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets that are accessible at the measurement date for identical, unrestricted assets or liabilities;

Level 2: Quoted prices in markets that are not active, or inputs which are observable, either directly or indirectly, for substantially the full term of the asset or liability;

Level 3: Prices or valuation techniques that require inputs that are both significant to the fair value measurement and unobservable (i.e., supported by little or no market activity).

The following table summarizes the valuation of the Company's investments and financial instruments that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis:

	As of May 31, 2017				As of November 30, 2016
	Total	Fair value measurement category			Total	Fair value measurement category
		Level 1	Level 2	Level 3		Level 1	Level 2	Level 3
Assets:
Cash equivalents	$96,500	$96,500	$—	$—	—$43,043	$43,043	$—	$—
Available-for-sale securities	2,455	2,455	—	—	1,883	1,883	—	—
Forward foreign currency exchange contracts	774	—	774	—	1,700	—	1,700	—
Liabilities:
Forward foreign currency exchange contracts	$1,168	$—	$1,168	$—	—$979	$—	$979	$—
Interest rate swaps	6,340	—	6,340	—	7,248	—	7,248	—

The Company's cash equivalents consist primarily of highly liquid investments in money market funds and term deposits with maturity periods of three months or less. The carrying values of cash equivalents approximate fair value since they are near their maturity. Investments in available-for-sale securities consist of equity securities and are recorded at fair value based on quoted market prices. The fair values of forward exchange contracts are measured based on the foreign currency spot and forward rates quoted by the banks or foreign currency dealers. Fair values of interest rate swaps are measured using standard valuation models using inputs that are readily available in public markets, or can be derived from observable market transactions, including the London Interbank Offered Rate ("LIBOR") spot and forward rates. The effect of nonperformance risk on the fair value of derivative instruments was not material as of May 31, 2017 and November 30, 2016.

The carrying values of held-to-maturity securities with maturities less than one year, accounts receivable, accounts payable and short-term debt approximate fair value due to their short maturities and interest rates which are variable in nature. The fair value of long-term held-to-maturity investments in foreign government bonds is based on quoted market prices. The carrying value of the Company's term loans approximate their fair value since they bear interest rates that are similar to existing market rates.

During the six months ended May 31, 2017, there were no transfers between the fair value measurement category levels.

NOTE 9—ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE ARRANGEMENTS:

The Company has an uncommitted supply-chain financing program with a global financial institution under which trade accounts receivable of a certain customer and its affiliates may be acquired, without recourse, by the financial institution. Available capacity under this program is dependent on the level of our trade accounts receivable with this customer and the financial institution's willingness to purchase such receivables. As of May 31, 2017 and November 30, 2016, accounts receivable sold to and held by the financial institution under this program were $43,474 and $8,988, respectively. Discount fees related to the sale of trade accounts receivable under this facility are included in "Interest expense and finance charges, net" in the Consolidated Statement of Operations. During the three and six months ended May 31, 2017 and 2016, discount fees were not material to the Company's results of operations. SYNnex Infotec, the Company's Japanese Technology Solutions subsidiary, has arrangements with various banks and financial institutions for the sale and financing of approved accounts receivable and notes receivable. The amounts outstanding under these arrangements that were sold, but not collected, as of May 31, 2017 and November 30, 2016 were $4,032 and $3,564, respectively.

The Company also has other financing agreements in North America with various financial institutions ("Flooring Companies") to allow certain customers of the Company to finance their purchases directly with the Flooring Companies. Under these agreements, the Flooring Companies pay to the Company the selling price of products sold to various customers, less a discount, within approximately 15 to 30 days from the date of sale. The Company is contingently liable to repurchase inventory sold under flooring agreements in the event of any default by its customers under the agreement and such inventory being repossessed by the Flooring Companies. Please see Note 16 for further information.

The following table summarizes the net sales financed through the flooring agreements and the flooring fees incurred:

	May 31, 2017	May 31, 2016	May 31, 2017	May 31, 2016

Flooring fees ⁽¹⁾	2,058	2,062	3,761	3,709

(1) Flooring fees are included within "Interest expense and finance charges, net."

As of May 31, 2017 and November 30, 2016, accounts receivable subject to flooring agreements were $45,678 and $65,099, respectively.

The Company has an accounts receivable securitization program to provide additional capital for its operations (the "US AR Arrangement"). The US AR Arrangement expires on November 1, 2019. Under the terms of the US AR Arrangement, the Company's subsidiary that is the borrower under this facility can borrow up to a maximum of $600,000 based upon eligible trade accounts receivable denominated in United States dollars. The US AR Arrangement includes an accordion feature to allow requests for an increase in the lenders' commitment by an additional $120,000. The effective borrowing cost under the US AR Arrangement is a blended rate that includes prevailing dealer commercial paper rates and the daily London Interbank Offered Rate ("LIBOR"), plus a program fee of 0.75% per annum based on the used portion of the commitment, and a facility fee of 0.35% per annum payable on the adjusted commitment of the lenders. Any borrowings under the US AR Arrangement are recorded as debt on the Company's Consolidated Balance Sheets.

The program includes an accordion feature to allow a request to increase the lender's commitment by an additional CAD25,000, or $18,519. Any borrowings under this arrangement are recorded as debt on the Company's Consolidated Balance Sheets. The effective borrowing cost is based on the weighted average of the Canadian Dollar Offered Rate plus a margin of 2.00% per annum and the prevailing lender commercial paper rates. In addition, SYNEX Canada is obligated to pay a program fee of 0.75% per annum based on the used portion of the commitment. It will pay a fee of 0.40% per annum for any unused portion of the commitment below CAD25,000 and an additional 0.55% per annum if the unused portion exceeds CAD25,000. NOTE 16—COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES:

The Company leases certain of its facilities under operating lease agreements, which expire in various periods through 2027. Future minimum contractually required cash payment obligations under non-cancellable lease agreements as of May 31, 2017 were as follows:

Fiscal Years Ending November 30,

2017 (remaining six months)	$43,277
2018	81,090
2019	70,695
2020	57,923
2021	37,534
Thereafter	73,002
Total minimum lease payments	$363,521

During the three and six months ended May 31, 2017, rent expense was $28,741 and $56,733, respectively. During the three and six months ended May 31, 2016, rent expense was $25,186 and $50,603, respectively. Sublease income was immaterial for each of the periods presented and is immaterial for the amounts entitled to be received in future periods under non-cancellable sublease arrangements.

The Company was contingently liable as of May 31, 2017 under agreements to repurchase repossessed inventory acquired by flooring companies as a result of default on floor plan financing arrangements by the Company's customers. These arrangements are described in Note 9 and do not have expiration dates. As the Company does not have access to information regarding the amount of inventory purchased from the Company still on hand with the customer at any point in time, the Company's repurchase obligations relating to inventory cannot be reasonably estimated. Losses, if any, would be the difference between the repossession cost and the resale value of the inventory. There have been no repurchases through May 31, 2017 under these agreements and the Company is not aware of any pending customer defaults or repossession obligations. The Company believes that, based on historical experience, the likelihood of a material loss pursuant to these inventory repurchase obligations is remote.

From time to time, the Company receives notices from third parties, including customers and suppliers, seeking indemnification, payment of money or other actions in connection with claims made against them. Also, from time to time, the Company has been involved in various bankruptcy preference actions where the Company was a supplier to the companies now in bankruptcy. In addition, the Company is subject to various other claims, both asserted and unasserted, that arise in the ordinary course of business. The Company is currently not involved in any material proceedings.

In December 2009, the Company sold China Civilink (Cayman), which operated in China as HiChina Web Solutions, to Alibaba.com Limited. In conjunction with this sale, the Company has recorded a contingent indemnification liability of $4,122.

Guarantees

The Company, as the ultimate parent, guaranteed the obligations of SYNnex Investment Holdings Corporation up to $35,035 in connection with the sale of China Civilink (Cayman), which operated in China as HiChina Web Solutions, to Alibaba.com Limited. The guarantee expires in fiscal year 2018.

The Company does not believe that the above commitments and contingencies will have a material adverse effect on the Company's results of operations, financial position or cash flows.

Overview

We are a Fortune 500 corporation and a leading business process services company, providing a comprehensive range of distribution, logistics and integration services for the technology industry and providing outsourced services focused on customer engagement strategy to a broad range of enterprises. We provide our products and services through two reportable business segments: Technology Solutions and Concentrix. Our Technology Solutions segment distributes peripherals, IT systems including data center server and storage solutions, system components, software, networking/communications/security equipment, consumer electronics, or CE, and complementary products. Within our Technology Solutions segment, we also provide systems design and integration solutions. Our Concentrix segment offers a portfolio of strategic solutions and end-to-end business services focused on customer engagement strategy, process optimization, technology innovation, front and back-office automation and business transformation to clients in ten identified industry verticals.

In our Technology Solutions segment, we distribute more than 30,000 technology products (as measured by active SKUs) from more than 300 IT, CE and original equipment manufacturers, or OEM suppliers to more than 20,000 resellers, system integrators, and retailers throughout the United States, Canada and Japan. We purchase peripherals,

IT systems, system components, software, networking/communications/security equipment, CE and complementary products from our suppliers and sell them to our reseller and retail customers. We perform a similar function for our distribution of licensed software products. Our reseller customers include value-added resellers, or VARs, corporate resellers, government resellers, system integrators, direct marketers, and national and regional retailers. We combine our core strengths in distribution with demand generation, supply chain management and design and integration solutions to help our customers achieve greater efficiencies in time to market, cost minimization, real-time linkages in the supply chain and after-market product support. We also provide comprehensive IT solutions in key vertical markets such as government and healthcare and we provide specialized service offerings that increase efficiencies in the areas of print management, renewals, networking, logistics services and supply chain management. Additionally, we provide our customers with systems design and integration solutions for data center servers, and networking solutions built specific to our customers' workloads and data center environments.

Our Technology Solutions business is characterized by low gross profit as a percentage of revenue, or gross margin, and low income from operations as a percentage of revenue, or operating margin. The market for IT and CE products is generally characterized by declining unit prices and short product life cycles. We set our sales price based on the market supply and demand characteristics for each particular product or bundle of products we distribute and services we provide.

In our Concentrix segment, we provide a comprehensive range of strategic services and solutions to enhance our clients' customer life cycles to acquire, support and renew customer relationships, to automate and optimize processes, to maximize the value of every customer interaction and to improve business outcomes. Our portfolio of services includes end-to-end process outsourcing to customers in various industry vertical markets delivered through omni-channels that include both voice and non-voice mediums and in more than 40 languages. Our portfolio of solutions and services support our clients and their customers globally. In fiscal year 2016, we acquired the Minacs group of companies ("Minacs"), which provide greater scale and expanded our services in key industries such as automotive and service offerings such as marketing optimization.

From a geographic perspective, approximately 73% and 72% of our total revenue was from the United States for the three and six months ended May 31, 2017, respectively, and approximately 73% for both the three and six months ended May 31, 2016. The revenue attributable to countries is based on geographical locations from where products are delivered or from where customer service contracts are managed. Approximately 41% of our net property and equipment was located in the United States as of both May 31, 2017 and November 30, 2016, respectively. As of May 31, 2017, we had approximately 108,000 full-time and temporary employees worldwide.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

During the six months ended May 31, 2017, we adopted certain new accounting pronouncements. For more information on all of our critical accounting policies, please see the discussion in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for fiscal year ended November 30, 2016 and Note 2 to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

Acquisitions

We continually seek to augment organic growth in both our business segments with strategic acquisitions of businesses and assets that complement and expand our existing capabilities. We also divest businesses that we deem no longer strategic to our ongoing operations. In our Technology Solutions business we seek to acquire new OEM relationships, enhance our supply chain and integration capabilities, geographic coverage, and the services we provide to our OEM suppliers and customers. In our Concentrix segment we seek to further enhance our capabilities and domain expertise in our key verticals, and further expand into higher value service offerings. We are also strategically focused on further increasing our scale to support our customers.

Pending acquisition

On June 5, 2017, we entered into an agreement with Datatec Limited and Datatec PLC (collectively "Datatec"), to acquire Datatec's North America and Latin America distribution businesses, or the Westcon-Comstor Americas business, for a purchase price of $600.0 million, and a potential earnout amount of up to $200.0 million if certain gross profit targets are achieved by the Westcon-Comstor Americas business during the twelve-month period ending February 28, 2018. We will also purchase 10% of Datatec's EMEA (Europe, Middle East and Africa) and APAC (Asia Pacific) distribution businesses for $30.0 million through the purchase of 10% of the shares of each of Westcon Emerging Markets Group (Pty) Limited, a South Africa company, and Westcon Group European Holdings, Limited, a United Kingdom company. The acquisition is related to our Technology Solutions segment and is expected to strengthen our line card in the security, Unified Communications and Collaboration and networking markets, enhance our North American position and expand our footprint into Latin America.

The purchase consideration payable at closing consists of $100.0 million payable in cash and $500.0 million payable in our common stock representing 4.6 million shares, which is approximately 10.25% of our outstanding shares, after giving effect to such issuance. The final purchase consideration could significantly differ due to movements in our common stock price by the closing date. We have the option to pay the entire consideration in cash if our 20-day average stock price at time of closing is greater than $113.78 per share. The earnout amount is payable in cash. If stock is issued as part of the purchase consideration, we will grant Datatec registration rights with respect thereto, and Jens Montanana, CEO of Datatec will be appointed to our Board of Directors, subject to legal and regulatory compliance and Datatec's continued ownership of at least 5% of all of the outstanding shares of our common stock. We also have an option to purchase an additional 10% equity interest in both the EMEA and APAC distribution businesses within the twelve months following the closing of the acquisition, for an additional consideration of $30.0 million. Completion of the acquisition is subject to customary closing conditions, including Datatec shareholder approval, the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, and other similar antitrust laws in jurisdictions outside the United States, approval of the South African Reserve Bank in accordance with the Exchange Control Regulations, and other regulatory approvals.

Fiscal year 2016 acquisition

During fiscal year 2016, we acquired Minacs for a preliminary purchase price of $435.6 million paid in cash, subject to certain post-closing working capital adjustments. During the six months ended May 31, 2017, we received a refund of $6.5 million related to post-closing adjustments, which reduced the above-mentioned preliminary purchase price to $429.1 million with a corresponding reduction to goodwill.

Certain non-GAAP financial information

In addition to disclosing financial results that are determined in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States ("GAAP"), we also disclose certain non-GAAP financial information, including: Revenue in constant currency, which is revenue adjusted for the translation effect of foreign currencies so that certain financial results can be viewed without the impact of fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates, thereby facilitating period-to-period comparisons of our business performance. Revenue in constant currency is calculated by translating the revenue for the three and six months ended May 31, 2017, in local currency using their comparable prior period currency conversion rate. Generally, when the dollar either strengthens or weakens against other currencies, the growth at constant currency rates or adjusting for currency will be higher or lower than growth reported at actual exchange rates.

- Non-GAAP operating income, which is operating income as adjusted to exclude acquisition-related and integration expenses, restructuring costs and amortization of intangible assets.

Non-GAAP diluted earnings per common share ("EPS"), which is diluted EPS excluding the per share, tax effected impact of (i) acquisition-related and integration expenses, (ii) restructuring costs, and (iii) amortization of intangible assets.

We believe that providing this additional information is useful to the reader to better assess and understand our operating performance, especially when comparing results with previous periods and for planning and forecasting in future periods, primarily because management typically monitors the business adjusted for these items in addition to GAAP results. Management also uses these non-GAAP measures to establish operational goals and, in some cases, for measuring performance for compensation purposes. However, analysis of results on a non-GAAP basis should be used as a complement to, and in conjunction with, data presented in accordance with GAAP. Additionally, because these non-GAAP measures are not calculated in accordance with GAAP, they may not necessarily be comparable to similarly titled measures employed by other companies.

Our revenues include sales of products and services. In our Technology Solutions segment, we distribute a comprehensive range of products for the technology industry. The prices of our products are highly dependent on the volumes purchased within a product category. The products we sell from one period to the next are often not comparable because of rapid changes in product models and features. We also design and integrate data center servers. The revenue generated in our Concentrix segment relates to business services focused on process optimization, customer engagement strategy and back office automation. Inter-segment elimination represents services and transactions generated between our reportable segments that are eliminated on consolidation. Substantially all of the inter-segment revenue represents services provided by the Concentrix segment to the Technology Solutions segment. Revenue in our Technology Solutions segment increased during the three and six months ended May 31, 2017 compared to the prior year periods, primarily due to strong demand for our systems design and integration solutions and higher sales of commercial products. This increase was partially offset by decreases in other product lines. Revenue in our Technology Solutions segment during the three months ended May 31, 2017 was unfavorably impacted by foreign currency translation, primarily from the weakening of the Canadian Dollar. During the six months ended May 31, 2017, revenue benefited from foreign currency translation, primarily from the strengthening of the Canadian Dollar and Japanese Yen. On a constant currency basis, revenue in our Technology Solutions segment increased 14.0% and 11.4%, respectively, during the three and six months ended May 31, 2017. Revenue in our Concentrix segment increased during the three and six months ended May 31, 2017, compared to the prior year periods, primarily due to the Minacs acquisition which became effective on August 1, 2016 and improvement in our automotive vertical. This increase was partially offset by unfavorable foreign currency translation, primarily from the weakening of the British Pound. On a constant currency basis, revenue in our Concentrix segment increased 44.6% and 42.0%, respectively, during the three and six months ended May 31, 2017.

Our gross margin is affected by a variety of factors, including competition, average selling prices, mix of products and services we sell, our customers, product costs along with rebate and discount programs from our suppliers, reserves or settlement adjustments, freight costs, charges for inventory losses, acquisitions and divestitures of business units and fluctuations in revenue. Concentrix margins, which are generally higher than those in our Technology Solutions segment, can be impacted by resource locations, customer mix and pricing, additional lead time for programs to be fully scalable, and transition and initial set-up costs.

Our gross margin increased during the three and six months ended May 31, 2017, compared to the prior year periods, as the Concentrix segment represented a higher proportion of our total gross profit.

Gross profit in our Technology Solutions segment increased during the three and six months ended May 31, 2017, compared to the prior year periods, due to higher sales of our system design and integration solutions and commercial products. Gross margin in our Technology Solutions segment during the three and six months ended May 31, 2017 was comparable to the prior year periods.

Gross profit in our Concentrix segment increased during both the three and six months ended May 31, 2017, compared to the prior year periods, primarily due to the Minacs acquisition and strength in our automotive vertical. In addition, gross profit during the six months ended May 31, 2017 was higher as the prior year period included a loss of $7.3 million on a contract which we exited toward the end of fiscal year 2016. Gross margin in the Concentrix segment decreased during the three and six months ended May 31, 2017, compared to the prior year periods, primarily due to the mix of customers. This decrease in margin during the six months ended May 31, 2017 was partially offset by the favorable impact of the contract mentioned above.

Our selling, general and administrative expenses consist primarily of personnel costs such as salaries, commissions, bonuses, share-based compensation and temporary personnel costs. Selling, general and administrative expenses also include cost of warehouses, delivery centers and other non-integration facilities, utility expenses, legal and professional fees, depreciation on certain of our capital equipment, bad debt expense, amortization of our non-technology related intangible assets, and marketing expenses, offset in part by reimbursements from our OEM suppliers.

During the three and six months ended May 31, 2017, selling, general and administrative expenses in our Technology Solutions segment were comparable to the prior year periods. The percentage of revenue in our Technology Solutions segment during the three and six months ended May 31, 2017 decreased, compared to the prior year periods, as we experienced economies of scale due to our efficient system, infrastructure and effective cost management.

The increase in selling, general and administrative expenses in our Concentrix segment during the three and six months ended May 31, 2017, compared to the prior year periods, was primarily due to the Minacs acquisition. This increase was offset by the favorable impact of certain restructuring activities in the prior year. We incurred $4.0 million of restructuring costs during the three and six months ended May 31, 2016. Amortization of intangible assets increased $4.3 million and $9.1 million, respectively, during the three and six months ended May 31, 2017, primarily due to the Minacs acquisition. We had no acquisition-related and integration expenses during the three months ended May 31, 2017 and incurred $0.6 million during the six months ended May 31, 2017, compared to $0.6 million and $1.6 million during the three and six months ended May 31, 2016, respectively.

Operating income and margin in our Technology Solutions segment increased during the three and six months ended May 31, 2017, compared to the prior year periods, primarily due to higher sales and resultant profit from our system design and integration solutions and commercial products, and effective management of our operating expenses.

Operating income and margin in our Concentrix segment increased during the three and six months ended May 31, 2017 compared to the prior year periods primarily due to higher gross profit as described earlier, the favorable impact of certain restructuring activities in the prior year, scale, and controls over resource management and discretionary costs.

Amounts recorded in interest expense and finance charges, net, consist primarily of interest expense paid on our lines of credit and term loans, fees associated with third party accounts receivable flooring arrangements and the sale or pledge of accounts receivable through our securitization facility, offset by income earned on our cash investments.

Our interest expense and finance charges, net, during the three and six months ended May 31, 2017 increased compared to the prior year periods, primarily due to higher interest expense as a result of additional borrowings to fund the Minacs acquisition and to support growth in our Technology Solutions segment, and the impact of step-up interest rate swaps related to our term loan in the United States. In connection with our term loan in the United States, we entered into step-up interest rate swaps, which effectively converted a portion of the floating rate term loan to a fixed interest rate, which is higher than the prevailing floating rate. The fixed rate on the swaps steps up to a higher rate in June each year.

The decrease in other income (expense), net, during the three months ended May 31, 2017 compared to the prior year period was primarily due to higher foreign currency exchange losses.

The decrease in other income (expense), net, during the six months ended May 31, 2017 compared to the prior year period was primarily due to a $4.1 million benefit received from a class-action legal settlement related to liquid crystal display large screen products in our Canadian Technology Solutions business during the six months ended May 31, 2016.

Provision for Income Taxes

Income taxes consist of our current and deferred tax expense resulting from our income earned in domestic and foreign jurisdictions.

Our effective tax rate for the three and six months ended May 31, 2017 was 36.9% and 35.5%, respectively, compared to 36.4% and 36.5%, respectively, for the three and six months ended May 31, 2016. The effective tax rate for the three and six months ended May 31, 2017 changed relative to the prior year periods due to the mix of income in different tax jurisdictions and the settlement of an appeal resulting in a favorable impact during the six months ended May 31, 2017.

Cash Flows

Our Technology Solutions business is working capital intensive. Our working capital needs are primarily to finance accounts receivable and inventory. We rely heavily on term loans, accounts receivable arrangements, our securitization programs and our revolver programs for our working capital needs. We have financed our growth and cash needs to date primarily through cash generated from operations and financing activities. As a general rule, when sales volumes are increasing, our net investment in working capital dollars typically increases, which generally results in decreased cash flow generated from operating activities. Conversely, when sales volume decreases, our net investment in working capital dollars typically decreases, which generally results in increases in cash flows generated from operating activities. Our cash conversion cycle was 53 days and 41 days as of May 31, 2017 and May 31, 2016, respectively. We calculate cash conversion cycle as days of the last fiscal quarter's sales outstanding in accounts receivable plus days of supply on hand in inventory, less days of the last fiscal quarter's purchases outstanding in accounts payable. The increase, compared to the prior year period, was primarily a result of higher inventories to support growth of our systems design and integration solutions line of business. These inventories typically have longer cash conversion cycles.

To increase our market share and better serve our customers, we may further expand our operations through investments or acquisitions. We expect that such expansion would require an initial investment in working capital, personnel, facilities and operations. These investments or acquisitions would likely be funded primarily by our existing cash and cash equivalents, additional borrowings, or the issuance of securities.

Net cash used in operating activities was $145.6 million during the six months ended May 31, 2017, primarily due to an increase in inventories of $368.2 million. This cash outflow was partially offset by net income of $134.9 million and adjustments for non-cash items of $77.5 million. The increase in inventories was primarily due to strong demand for our systems design and integration solutions. The adjustments for non-cash items consist primarily of amortization, depreciation and stock-based compensation expense.

Net cash provided by operating activities was $283.9 million during the six months ended May 31, 2016, primarily due to net income of $91.0 million, adjustments for non-cash items of $48.9 million and a decrease in accounts receivable of $262.6 million. These cash inflows were partially offset by a decrease in accounts payable of $61.0 million and an increase in inventories of $39.0 million. The decrease in accounts receivable and accounts payable was primarily due to lower revenue in our Technology Solutions segment during the three months ended May 31, 2016 compared to the seasonally higher three months ended November 30, 2015. The adjustments for non-cash items consist primarily of amortization, depreciation, deferred income taxes and stock-based compensation expense.

Net cash used in investing activities during the six months ended May 31, 2017 was $40.1 million, primarily due to capital expenditures of $45.3 million substantially related to our Concentrix segment. This cash outflow was partially offset by $6.5 million of refund of excess consideration received related to the Minacs acquisition as a result of post-closing adjustments.

Net cash used in investing activities during the six months ended May 31, 2016 was $67.3 million, primarily due to capital expenditures of $67.5 million incurred substantially to support growth in our Concentrix segment.

Net cash provided by financing activities during the six months ended May 31, 2017 was $101.6 million, consisting primarily of $122.8 million of net proceeds from our borrowing arrangements to fund our working capital requirements. This cash inflow was partially offset by $19.9 million of dividend payments.

Net cash used in financing activities during the six months ended May 31, 2016 was $47.7 million, consisting primarily of $36.2 million net repayments of our borrowing arrangements and revolving lines of credit and $15.9 million of dividend payments.

Capital Resources

Our cash and cash equivalents totaled $305.6 million and $380.7 million as of May 31, 2017 and November 30, 2016, respectively. Of our total cash and cash equivalents, the cash held by our foreign subsidiaries was $199.1 million and $200.0 million as of May 31, 2017 and November 30, 2016, respectively. Repatriation of the cash held by our foreign subsidiaries would be subject to United States federal income taxes. Also, repatriation of some foreign balances is restricted by local laws. However, we have historically fully utilized and reinvested all foreign cash to fund our foreign operations and expansion. If in the future our intentions change and we repatriate the cash back to the United States, we will report in our consolidated financial statements the impact of the applicable taxes depending upon the planned timing and manner of such repatriation. Presently, we believe we have sufficient resources, cash flow and liquidity within the United States to fund current and expected future working capital, investment and other general corporate funding requirements.

Table of Contents

We believe that our available cash and cash equivalents balances, the cash flows expected to be generated from operations, our existing and planned sources of liquidity and our ability to issue equity in connection with our pending acquisition will be sufficient to satisfy our current and planned working capital and investment needs, including the acquisition of the Westcon-Comstor Americas business, for the next twelve months in all geographies. We also believe that our longer-term working capital, planned capital expenditures, anticipated stock repurchases, dividend payments and other general corporate funding requirements will be satisfied through cash flows from operations and, to the extent necessary, from our borrowing facilities and future financial market activities.

Historically, we have renewed our accounts receivable securitization program and our U.S. credit facility agreement on, or prior to, their respective expiration dates. We have no reason to believe that these arrangements will not be renewed as we continue to be in good credit standing with the participating financial institutions. We have had similar borrowing arrangements with various financial institutions throughout our years as a public company.

On-Balance Sheet Arrangements

In the United States, we have an accounts receivable securitization program, or the US AR Arrangement, to provide additional capital for our operations. The US AR Arrangement expires on November 1, 2019. One of our subsidiaries, which is the borrower under the US AR Arrangement, can borrow up to a maximum of $600.0 million based upon eligible trade accounts receivable denominated in United States dollars. The US AR Arrangement includes an accordion feature to allow requests for an increase in the lenders' commitment by an additional $120.0 million. The effective borrowing cost under the US AR Arrangement is a blended rate that includes prevailing dealer commercial paper rates and the daily London Interbank Offered Rate, or LIBOR, plus a program fee of 0.75% per annum based on the used portion of the commitment, and a facility fee of 0.35% per annum payable on the adjusted commitment of the lenders. As of May 31, 2017 and November 30, 2016, $394.9 million and $262.9 million, respectively, were outstanding under the US AR Arrangement.

Under the terms of the US AR Arrangement, we and one of our United States subsidiaries sell, on a revolving basis, our receivables (other than certain specifically excluded receivables) to a wholly-owned, bankruptcy-remote subsidiary. The borrowings are funded by pledging all of the rights, title and interest in and to the receivables acquired by our bankruptcy-remote subsidiary as security. Any borrowings under the US AR Arrangement are recorded as debt on our Consolidated Balance Sheets.

In May 2017, SYNEX Canada Limited, or SYNEX Canada, entered into an accounts receivable securitization program with a bank to transfer eligible trade accounts receivable, on an ongoing revolving basis, up to CAD65.0 million, or $48.1 million, through May 10, 2020. The program includes an accordion feature to allow a request to increase the lender's commitment by an additional CAD25.0 million, or $18.5 million. Any borrowings under this arrangement are recorded as debt on our Consolidated Balance Sheets. The effective borrowing cost is based on the weighted average of the Canadian Dollar Offered Rate plus a margin of 2.00% per annum and the prevailing lender commercial paper rates. In addition, SYNEX Canada is obligated to pay a program fee of 0.75% per annum based on the used portion of the commitment. We will pay a fee of 0.40% per annum for any unused portion of the commitment below CAD25.0 million and an additional 0.55% per annum if the unused portion exceeds CAD25.0 million. As of May 31, 2017, borrowings outstanding under this arrangement were $11.1 million.

In November 2013, we entered into a senior secured credit agreement, or the U.S. Credit Agreement, which was comprised of a $275.0 million revolving credit facility and a $225.0 million term loan. In May 2015, the U.S. Credit Agreement was amended to increase the term loan to $625.0 million. We may request incremental commitments to increase the principal amount of revolving loans or term loans available under the U.S. Credit Agreement up to $350.0 million. The U.S. Credit Agreement matures in May 2020. Interest on borrowings under the U.S. Credit Agreement can be based on LIBOR or a base rate at our option. Loans borrowed under the U.S. Credit Agreement bear interest, in the case of LIBOR loans, at a per annum rate equal to the applicable LIBOR, plus a margin which may range from 1.50% to 2.25%, based on our consolidated leverage ratios, as determined in accordance with the U.S. Credit Agreement. Loans borrowed under the U.S. Credit Agreement that are not LIBOR loans, and are instead base rate loans, bear interest at a per annum rate equal to (i) the greatest of (A) the Federal Funds Rate plus a margin of 1/2 of 1.0%, (B) LIBOR plus 1.0% per annum, and (C) the rate of interest announced, from time to time, by the agent, Bank of America, N.A., as its "prime rate," plus (ii) a margin which may range from 0.50% to 1.25%, based on our consolidated leverage ratios as determined in accordance with the U.S. Credit Agreement. The unused revolving credit facility is subject to a commitment fee ranging from 0.20% to 0.35% per annum, based on our consolidated leverage ratios. The outstanding principal amount of the term loan is repayable in quarterly installments, in an amount equal to (a) for each of the first eight full calendar quarters ending after the U.S. Credit Agreement was amended in May 2015, 1.25% of the amended principal amount of the term loan, (b) for each of the next four calendar quarters ending thereafter, 1.875% of the amended principal amount of the term loan, (c) for each calendar quarter ending thereafter, 2.50% of the amended principal amount of the term loan and (d) on the May 2020 maturity date of the term loan, the outstanding principal amount of the term loan. Our obligations under the U.S. Credit Agreement are secured by substantially all of the parent company's and its United States domestic subsidiaries' assets and are guaranteed by certain of our United States domestic subsidiaries.

As of May 31, 2017 and November 30, 2016, balances outstanding under the term loan component of the U.S. Credit Agreement were $570.3 million and $585.9 million, respectively. There were no borrowings outstanding under the revolving credit facility as of either May 31, 2017 or November 30, 2016.

SYNEX Infotec has a credit agreement with a group of financial institutions for a maximum commitment of JPY14.0 billion, or $126.4 million. The credit agreement is comprised of a JPY6.0 billion, or $54.2 million, term loan and a JPY8.0 billion, or $72.2 million, short-term revolving credit facility. The interest rate for the term loan and revolving credit facility is based on the Tokyo Interbank Offered Rate plus a margin of 0.70% per annum. The unused line fee on the revolving credit facility is 0.10% per annum. This credit facility expires in November 2018. As of May 31, 2017 and November 30, 2016, the balances outstanding under the term loan component of the facility were $54.2 million and $52.4 million, respectively. Balances outstanding under the revolving credit facility were $37.9 million and $28.8 million, respectively, as of May 31, 2017 and November 30, 2016. The term loan can be repaid at any time prior to expiration date without penalty. We have guaranteed the obligations of SYNEX Infotec under this facility.

In May 2017, SYNEX Canada entered into an uncommitted revolving line of credit with a bank under which it can borrow up to CAD35,000, or $25,926. Borrowings under the facility are secured by eligible inventory and bear interest at a base rate plus a margin ranging from 0.50% to 2.25% depending on the base rate used. The base rate could be a Banker's Acceptance Rate, a Canadian Prime Rate, LIBOR or US Base Rate. As of May 31, 2017, there were no borrowings outstanding under the credit facility.

Our Indian subsidiaries have credit facilities with a financial institution to borrow up to an aggregate amount of $22.0 million. The interest rate under the credit facilities is the higher of the bank's minimum lending rate or LIBOR plus a margin of 0.9% per annum. The credit facilities can be terminated at any time by our Indian subsidiaries or the financial institution. We guarantee the obligations under these credit facilities. As of May 31, 2017, there were no borrowings outstanding under these credit facilities. As of November 30, 2016, $12.0 million was outstanding. As of May 31, 2017 and November 30, 2016, we recorded $12.7 million and $8.7 million, respectively, on our Consolidated Balance Sheets in obligations attributable to SYNEX Infotec for the sale and financing of this subsidiary's approved accounts receivable and notes receivable with recourse provisions.

We also maintain other local currency denominated lines of credit with financial institutions at certain locations outside the United States aggregating $29.9 million. Interest rates and other terms of borrowing under these lines of credit vary from country to country, depending on local market conditions. As of May 31, 2017 and November 30, 2016, $9.1 million and $8.8 million, respectively, were outstanding under these various facilities.

The maximum commitment amounts for local currency credit facilities have been translated into United States Dollars at May 31, 2017 exchange rates.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

We have financing programs in the United States and Japan under which trade accounts receivable of certain customers may be sold to financial institutions. Available capacity under these programs is dependent upon the level of our trade accounts receivable eligible to be sold into these programs and the financial institutions' willingness to purchase such receivables. At May 31, 2017 and November 30, 2016, we had a total of $47.5 million and $12.6 million, respectively, of trade accounts receivable sold to and held by the financial institutions under these programs.

Covenant Compliance

Our credit facilities have a number of covenants and restrictions that, among other things, require us to maintain specified financial ratios and satisfy certain financial condition tests. They also limit our ability to incur additional debt, make intercompany loans, pay dividends and make other types of distributions, make certain acquisitions, repurchase our stock, create liens, cancel debt owed to us, enter into agreements with affiliates, modify the nature of our business, enter into sale-leaseback transactions, make certain investments, enter into new real estate leases, transfer and sell assets, cancel or terminate any material contracts and merge or consolidate. As of May 31, 2017, we were in compliance with all material covenants for the above arrangements.

Contractual Obligations

Our contractual obligations consist of future payments due under our loans, capital leases and operating lease arrangements. As of May 31, 2017, there have been no material changes from our disclosure in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended November 30, 2016. For more information on our future minimum rental obligations under noncancellable lease agreements as of May 31, 2017, see Note 16 to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

Guarantees

We, as the ultimate parent, guaranteed the obligations of SYNnex Investment Holdings Corporation up to $35.0 million in connection with the sale of China Civilink (Cayman), which operated in China as HiChina Web Solutions, to Alibaba.com Limited. The guarantee expires in fiscal year 2018.

We are contingently liable under agreements, without expiration dates, to repurchase repossessed inventory acquired by flooring companies as a result of default on floor plan financing arrangements by our customers. There have been no repurchases through May 31, 2017 under these agreements and we are not aware of any pending customer defaults or repossession obligations. As we do not have access to information regarding the amount of inventory purchased from us still on hand with the customer at any point in time, our repurchase obligations relating to inventory cannot be reasonably estimated. For more information on our third-party revolving short-term financing arrangements, see Note 9 to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

ITEM 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk

There have been no material changes in our quantitative and qualitative disclosures about market risk during the six months ended May 31, 2017 from our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended November 30, 2016. For a discussion of the Company's exposure to market risk, reference is made to disclosures set forth in Part II, Item 7A of our above-mentioned Annual Report on Form 10-K.

ITEM 4. Controls and Procedures

(a) Evaluation of disclosure controls and procedures. We maintain "disclosure controls and procedures," as such term is defined in Rule 13a-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act"), that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by us in reports that we file or submit under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized, and reported within the time periods specified in Securities and Exchange Commission rules and forms, and that such information is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosures. In designing and evaluating our disclosure controls and procedures, management recognized that disclosure controls and procedures, no matter how well conceived and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the disclosure controls and procedures are met. Our disclosure controls and procedures have been designed to meet reasonable assurance standards. Additionally, in designing disclosure controls and procedures, our management necessarily was required to apply its judgment in evaluating the cost-benefit relationship of possible disclosure controls and procedures. The design of any disclosure controls and procedures also is based in part upon certain assumptions about the likelihood of future events, and there can be no assurance that any design will succeed in achieving its stated goals under all potential future conditions.

Based on their evaluation as of the end of the period covered by this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, our Chief Executive Officer (our principal executive officer) and Chief Financial Officer (our principal financial officer) have concluded that, as of such date, our disclosure controls and procedures were effective at the reasonable assurance level.

(b) Changes in internal control over financial reporting. There was no change in our internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rule 13a-15(f) under the Exchange Act) identified in connection with management's evaluation during our last fiscal quarter that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, our

PART II - OTHER INFORMATION

ITEM 1A. Risk Factors

You should carefully review and consider the information regarding certain factors that could materially affect our business, financial condition or future results set forth under Part I-Item 1A (Risk Factors) in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended November 30, 2016. Except as set forth below, there have been no material changes from the risk factors disclosed in our 2016 Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Risks Related to the Acquisition of the Westcon-Comstor Americas business

Failure to complete the acquisition of the Westcon-Comstor Americas business could negatively impact the stock price and the future of our business and financial results.

We expect the closing for the acquisition of the Westcon-Comstor Americas business to occur in the coming months, subject to customary closing conditions and shareholder and regulatory approvals. There is no assurance that we will receive the necessary shareholder and regulatory approvals or satisfy the other conditions for the completion of the acquisition. If the acquisition is not completed for any reason, we will be subject to risks, including the following: the current market price of our common stock may reflect a market assumption that the acquisition will occur, and a failure to complete the acquisition could result in a negative perception by the market of us generally and a resulting decline in the market price of our common stock;

we have incurred substantial transaction costs relating to the acquisition (including significant legal, accounting and financial advisory fees), and these substantial costs are payable by us whether or not the acquisition is completed; there may be substantial disruption to our business and a distraction of our management and employees from day-to-day operations because matters related to the acquisition (including integration planning) may require substantial commitments of time and resources, which could otherwise have been devoted to other opportunities that could have been beneficial;

- the diversion of management time required by the acquisition could also adversely affect our results of operations and lead to the loss of important customers; and the loss of existing key and other employees could adversely affect our operations and business results.

In addition, we would not realize any of the expected benefits of having completed the acquisition. If the acquisition is not completed, these risks may materialize and materially adversely affect our business, financial results, financial condition and stock price.

We may not be able to realize all of the anticipated benefits of the acquisition of the Westcon-Comstor Americas business if we fail to integrate this business successfully, which could reduce our profitability and adversely affect our stock price.

If our proposed acquisition of the Westcon-Comstor Americas business closes, our ability to realize the anticipated benefits of the transaction will depend, in part, on our ability to integrate this business successfully and efficiently with our business. The integration of this business in several geographic locations, including ones new to us, is a complex, costly and time-consuming process. The integration process may disrupt our business and, if implemented ineffectively, preclude realization of the full benefits expected by us. If we are not successful in this integration, our financial results could be adversely impacted. Our management will be required to dedicate significant time and effort to this integration process, which could divert their attention from other business concerns. In addition, the overall integration may result in unanticipated problems, expenses, liabilities, competitive responses, loss of customer and other relationships, a loss of key employees, and diversion of management's attention, and may cause our stock price to decline. The difficulties of combining the operations of the two businesses include, among others:

challenges associated with minimizing the diversion of management attention from ongoing business concerns;
 • coordinating geographically separate organizations which may be subject to additional complications resulting from being geographically distant from other of our operations;
 • coordinating and combining international operations, relationships, and facilities, and eliminating duplicative operations;
 • retaining key employees and maintaining employee morale, particularly in areas where we do not currently have personnel;
 • unanticipated changes in general business or market conditions that might interfere with our ability to carry out all of our integration plans;
 • unanticipated issues in integrating information, communications and other systems;
 • issues not discovered in our due diligence process; and
 • preserving important strategic and customer relationships.

In addition, even if the integration is successful, we may not realize the full potential benefits of the transaction. Such benefits may not be achieved within the anticipated time frame, or at all. As a result, we cannot assure you that this acquisition will result in the realization of the full benefits anticipated from the transaction.
