Information Statement/Prospectus

Information Statement for North Star Financial Corporation

Prospectus of Marshall & Ilsley Corporation

Dear North Star Financial Corporation Stockholder:

Through this information statement/prospectus, North Star Financial Corporation (North Star) is seeking your written consent as a North Star stockholder to the Agreement and Plan of Merger and Reorganization that North Star entered into with Marshall & Ilsley Corporation (Marshall & Ilsley), M&I Merger Corp. and M&I Merger Sub, LLC on January 12, 2007, and amendments thereto dated as of February 21 and March 14, 2007, which we refer to as the merger agreement. Under the merger agreement, in a two-step merger transaction, M&I Merger Corp. will merge with North Star and, immediately afterwards, North Star will merge with M&I Merger Sub, LLC. M&I Merger Sub, LLC will be the ultimate surviving entity and wholly owned subsidiary of Marshall & Ilsley. M&I Merger Sub, LLC will be renamed North Star Financial, LLC.

The aggregate purchase price for the merger is $21 million, which will be paid to North Star stockholders in shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock. At the effective time of the merger, Marshall & Ilsley will issue and deliver to Continental Stock Transfer & Trust Company (the Exchange Agent) a number of its shares equal to the result of $21 million divided by the average closing price per share of Marshall & Ilsley common stock on the New York Stock Exchange for the thirty calendar days immediately before the effective time (the Marshall & Ilsley Exchange Shares). Each North Star stockholder will be entitled to exchange his or her shares of outstanding common stock for the number of shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock equal to the product of the number of shares held by such stockholder and a fraction, the numerator of which is the Marshall & Ilsley Exchange Shares and the denominator of which is the number of shares of North Star common stock outstanding immediately before the effective time. For examples of how the value of the per share consideration may change, see Summary Illustrative Calculation of Per Share Consideration on page 12.

The total number of Marshall & Ilsley Exchange Shares that Marshall & Ilsley will issue in the merger will be equal to the aggregate purchase price of $21 million divided by the average closing price per share of Marshall & Ilsley common stock on the New York Stock Exchange for the thirty calendar days immediately before the effective time. If the merger had been effective on March 13, 2007, Marshall & Ilsley would have issued a total of 437,682 Marshall & Ilsley Exchange Shares.

The consent of the holders of a majority of shares of North Star common stock entitled to vote is required to approve and adopt the merger agreement. The merger is also subject to certain other conditions, including regulatory approval. The board of directors of North Star unanimously approved the merger agreement on January 23, 2007.

We urge you to read this information statement/prospectus carefully because it contains a detailed description of the merger and related matters. In particular, for a description of certain significant considerations in connection with the merger and related matters described in this document, see Risk Factors beginning on page 13.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THIS DOCUMENT AND THE MERGER

Q. What is the purpose of this document?

- A. This document serves as both an information statement of North Star Financial Corporation (North Star) and a prospectus of Marshall & Ilsley Corporation (Marshall & Ilsley). As an information statement, this document is being provided to you by North Star because the board of directors of North Star is seeking your consent on the proposed merger and reorganization by and among North Star, Marshall & Ilsley, M&I Merger Corp. and M&I Merger Sub, LLC. When we use the term merger agreement in this document, we are referring to the agreement and plan of merger and reorganization, a copy of which is included in this document as Appendix A. The merger agreement was amended on February 21, 2007 and March 14, 2007 to clarify the calculation of the merger consideration, to identify the Exchange Agent and to amend certain other provisions, and those amendments are included in Exhibit A.

As a prospectus, this document is being provided to you by Marshall & Ilsley because Marshall & Ilsley is offering you shares of its common stock in exchange for your shares of North Star common stock in the merger.

Q. What do I need to do now?

- A. After reviewing this document, submit your consent by promptly executing and returning it to North Star Financial Corporation, 500 West Madison, Suite 3150, Chicago, Illinois, 60661.

Q. Can I change my mind and revoke my consent after I have submitted an executed consent?

- A. Each written consent submitted to us will be effective and irrevocable as of 5:00 p.m. (Central Daylight Time) on April 16, 2007. If you submit your written consent to North Star and subsequently wish to revoke your consent before such time, please call Michael Gerdes of North Star, at (312) 559-9761 and notify him of your decision.

Q. Do North Star stockholders have to take any further action to approve the merger?

- A. Yes however, most of the required actions have been taken already. Although North Star stockholder approval of the merger is required under the merger agreement, Marshall & Ilsley has entered into an agreement with certain stockholders, directors and executive officers of North Star, who in aggregate hold approximately 60 percent of the outstanding North Star common stock. Under the agreement, they have agreed, among other things, to vote all shares beneficially owned by them in favor of the merger agreement and the merger at any meeting of stockholders or in connection with any written consent. Accordingly, approval of the merger agreement by North Star stockholders is expected to follow from fulfillment of these agreements, and no other votes would be necessary to adopt the merger agreement and to approve the merger.

Q. Should I send in my stock certificates now?

- A. No please do not send in your certificates at this time. Later, we will send you written instructions for exchanging your North Star common stock certificates.

Q. Who can answer my questions about the merger?

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

A. If you have more questions about the merger, please contact Michael Gerdes of North Star, at (312) 559-9761.

Merger Consideration

If the merger and reorganization is completed, the aggregate purchase price of $21 million will be paid to North Star stockholders in shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock. Each share of North Star Series A preferred stock will be converted into six shares of North Star common stock. Each share of North Star Series B preferred stock will receive the liquidation preference to which it is entitled, which will be paid in cash.

At the effective time of the merger, Marshall & Ilsley will issue a number of shares equal to the result of $21 million divided by the average closing price per share of Marshall & Ilsley common stock on the New York Stock Exchange for the thirty calendar days immediately before the effective time (the Marshall & Ilsley Exchange Shares). Each North Star stockholder will be entitled to exchange his or her shares of outstanding common stock for the number of shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock equal to the product of the number of shares held by such stockholder and a fraction, the numerator of which is the Marshall & Ilsley Exchange Shares and the denominator of which is the number of shares of North Star common stock outstanding immediately before the effective time.

No Fractional Shares Will be Issued

Marshall & Ilsley will not issue any fractional shares in the merger. You will receive cash instead of any fractional share of Marshall & Ilsley common stock owed to you, after taking into account all fractional shares of North Star common stock you deliver.

Material Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

The exchange of shares of North Star common stock for shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock is expected to be tax free to you for federal income tax purposes, but you will owe taxes on all or a portion of the cash you receive instead of fractional shares or if you dissent from the merger and receive cash for the fair value of your shares under the Delaware Corporate Law. If you were to dissent and receive a cash payment in exchange for your North Star common stock, you would be taxed on the difference between the cash received and your basis. The expected material federal income tax consequences of the merger and reorganization are described in greater detail beginning on page 30.

Tax matters are very complicated, and the tax consequences of the merger to you will depend on the facts of your own situation. We urge you to consult your tax advisor for a full understanding of the tax consequences to you of the merger.

Reasons for the Merger

The North Star board believes that in the rapidly changing environment of the wealth management services industry, merging with Marshall & Ilsley is consistent with North Star's long-term goal of enhancing stockholder value.

Marshall & Ilsley believes that the merger with North Star presents Marshall & Ilsley with an attractive opportunity to expand its wealth management services in the Chicago metropolitan market. In addition, Marshall & Ilsley expects that the merger will provide growth opportunities, and will be less than one percent dilutive to Marshall & Ilsley's earnings per share in the first year after the effective time, approximately neutral to earnings per share in the second year, and accretive to Marshall & Ilsley earnings per share afterwards.

You can find a more detailed discussion of the background to the merger agreement and North Star's and Marshall & Ilsley's reasons for the merger in this document under "The Merger and Reorganization Background of the Merger" beginning on page 22, "Reasons for the Merger and North Star Board Recommendation" beginning on page 29, and "Marshall & Ilsley's Reasons for the Merger" on page 29.

Recommendation to North Star Stockholders

The North Star board of directors believes that the merger agreement and the transactions described in that agreement, including the mergers, are advisable to, fair to and in the best interests of North Star and its stockholders and unanimously recommends that you consent to the adoption of the merger agreement and the transactions described in that agreement, including the mergers.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger

Certain of the executive officers and members of the board of directors of North Star have interests in the merger that are in addition to their interests as stockholders of North Star. Among other things, a North Star executive officer will be entitled to payments under his existing employment agreement, including payments pursuant to change in control provisions, and certain other North Star executive officers will enter into employment relationships with Marshall & Ilsley. See "The Merger and Reorganization Interests of Certain Persons" beginning on page 26.

Consents Required

The merger agreement and the merger must be approved by the consent of a majority of the common and common equivalent shares of North Star stock outstanding and entitled to consent at the close of business on February 15, 2007. As of that date, there were 7,254,324 common and common equivalent shares of North Star stock outstanding. North Star must receive consents by 5:00 p.m. (Central Daylight Time), on April 16, 2007.

As of February 15, 2007, North Star's directors, executive officers and their affiliates held in the aggregate approximately 1,889,000 of the common and common equivalent shares of North Star stock, representing approximately 26 percent of the total number of outstanding common and common equivalent shares of North Star stock.

Marshall & Ilsley has entered into an agreement with certain stockholders, directors and executive officers of North Star, who in the aggregate hold approximately 60 percent of the outstanding North Star common stock, pursuant to which they have agreed, among other things, to vote all shares beneficially owned by them (to the extent such individuals have the right to direct the voting of such shares) in favor of the merger agreement and the merger. Accordingly, approval of the merger agreement by North Star stockholders is assured if the terms of this agreement are fulfilled.

The merger agreement also authorizes the North Star board of directors to exercise its discretion as to whether to proceed with the merger in the event North Star has the right to terminate the merger agreement. The North Star board can make this determination without notice to, or the solicitation of consents from, North Star's stockholders.

Action by Marshall & Ilsley Shareholders Not Required

Approval of the merger and the merger agreement by Marshall & Ilsley's shareholders is not required. Accordingly, Marshall & Ilsley has not called a special meeting of its shareholders.

Regulatory Approvals

We cannot complete the merger unless we obtain approval of, or provide notice to, regulatory authorities, including, but not limited to, the Division of Banking of the Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation. North Star has filed all of the required applications and notices with this regulatory authority. Marshall & Ilsley is not required to obtain regulatory approvals before completing the merger. However, it must file a notice with the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System after completing the merger.

As of the date of this document, we do not have all the necessary regulatory approvals. We cannot be certain of when or if we will obtain them. However, we do not know of any reason why we would not obtain the required approvals in a timely manner.

Appraisal Rights Available

North Star stockholders who properly dissent from the merger and exercise appraisal rights are entitled to receive the fair value of their shares of North Star common stock in cash. To exercise your appraisal rights, you must follow the procedures described in Appendix C, including the following:

not consenting to the merger and the merger agreement; and delivering to North Star a written notice of your intention to demand the fair value of your North Star shares.

These are the key procedures, but other procedures must be followed. You may lose your appraisal rights if you fail to comply with other required procedures contained in Appendix C.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

Marshall & Ilsley and North Star may terminate the merger agreement if they mutually agree to do so. Either Marshall & Ilsley or North Star may terminate the merger agreement unilaterally if any one of several conditions exists. See Terms of the Merger Agreement beginning on page 36.

Table of ContentsShare Information and Market Prices for Marshall & Ilsley and North Star Common Stock

Marshall & Ilsley common stock is traded on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol MI. Although shares of North Star common stock are pink sheet traded, the trading volume is very low. North Star common stock also trades from time to time in privately negotiated transactions between interested buyers and sellers. Management of North Star may not be aware of all transactions that occur.

The following table lists the closing price of Marshall & Ilsley common stock, the trading price of North Star common stock known by its management, and the equivalent value of a share of North Star common stock giving effect to the merger on:

January 11, 2007, the last trading day before we announced the merger; and

March 13, 2007, the last practical day to obtain share price information before the date of this information statement/prospectus.

	Marshall & Ilsley		Equivalent Per Share Value of North Star	Fraction of Share of a Marshall & Ilsley Common Stock
	Common Stock	North Star Common Stock	Common Stock
January 11, 2007	$ 48.13	N/A	$ 2.9170	0.0606
March 13, 2007	$ 46.38	N/A	$ 2.9170	0.0629

The equivalent per share value of North Star common stock and the fraction of a share of Marshall & Ilsley common stock on each of these two days are based on a formula agreed to in the merger agreement. Based on the formula, the aggregate purchase price of $21 million is divided by the average closing price per share of Marshall & Ilsley common stock on the New York Stock Exchange during the thirty calendar days before and including the calendar day immediately before the merger to yield the number of shares available for exchange. The average closing price of Marshall & Ilsley common stock on the New York Stock Exchange for the thirty calendar days before and including January 11, 2007 was $48.04, yielding 437,136 Marshall & Ilsley Exchange Shares, and on March 13, 2007 was $47.98, yielding 437,682 Marshall & Ilsley Exchange Shares. Each North Star stockholder will be entitled to exchange his or her shares of outstanding North Star common stock for the number of shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock equal to the product of the number of shares held by such stockholder and a fraction, the numerator of which is the Marshall & Ilsley Exchange Shares and the denominator of which is the number of shares of North Star common stock outstanding immediately before the effective time. For purposes of the example, we have assumed that the 7,199,209 shares of North Star common stock outstanding on the date of the merger agreement (including shares issuable on conversion of North Star's Series A preferred stock) were outstanding on each of the two days.

The market price of Marshall & Ilsley common stock may change at any time. Consequently, the total dollar value of the per share consideration you will be entitled to receive as a result of the merger may be significantly higher or lower than its current value or its value at the consent date.

The timing and amount of future dividends, if any, paid by Marshall & Ilsley and North Star are subject to determination by the applicable board of directors in their discretion and will depend upon earnings, cash requirements and the financial condition of the respective companies and their subsidiaries, applicable government regulations and other factors deemed relevant by the applicable company's board of directors. Various state and federal laws limit the ability of subsidiary banks to pay dividends to Marshall & Ilsley. Under the merger agreement, North Star has agreed not to declare or pay any dividends with respect to outstanding shares of its common stock. See "Terms of the Merger Agreement" "Conduct of Business Pending the Merger" on page 38.

Comparison of Unaudited Per Share Data

The following table shows information about Marshall & Ilsley's and North Star's net income per share, cash dividends per share and book value per share and similar information after giving effect to the merger. This information is referred to below as "pro forma" information. In presenting the pro forma information, Marshall & Ilsley and North Star assumed that they had been merged as of the beginning of the earliest period presented. The pro forma information gives effect to the merger under the purchase method of accounting in accordance with currently existing accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

Marshall & Ilsley assumed that the per share consideration per North Star share would be equal to 0.0606 of a Marshall & Ilsley share to calculate the pro forma shares outstanding used in computing the pro forma combined and equivalent pro forma combined per share data.

Marshall & Ilsley expects that it will incur merger and integration charges as a result of combining our companies. The pro forma information is helpful in illustrating the financial characteristics of the combined company under one set of assumptions. However, it does not reflect these merger and integration costs and, accordingly, does not attempt to predict or suggest future results. Also, it does not necessarily reflect what the historical results of the combined company would have been had the companies been combined for the periods presented.

You should read the information in the following table together with the historical financial information that Marshall & Ilsley has included in their prior filings with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission. This material has been incorporated into this document by reference to those filings. See "Where You Can Find More Information" on page 67.

- (1) The fraction of a share of Marshall & Ilsley common stock is based on a formula agreed to in the merger agreement. The formula is based on the aggregate purchase price of $21 million divided by the average closing price per share of Marshall & Ilsley common stock on the New York Stock exchange during the thirty calendar days before and including the calendar day immediately before the merger. In this example, the aggregate purchase price of $21 million was divided by each illustrative market price of Marshall & Ilsley common stock to yield the number of shares Marshall & Ilsley common stock to be issued for the exchange of shares of North Star common stock. The Marshall & Ilsley Exchange Shares were then divided by 7,199,209 shares, the number of shares North Star common stock outstanding on January 11, 2007 (assuming conversion of North Star's Series A preferred stock) to yield the fraction of a share of Marshall & Ilsley common stock per share of North Star common stock. This fraction was multiplied by the illustrative market price of Marshall & Ilsley common stock to yield the per share consideration.
- (2) Represents the closing price of Marshall & Ilsley common stock on the New York Stock Exchange on January 11, 2007, the calendar day immediately preceding the announcement of the merger.

RISK FACTORS

In making your determination as to how to vote on the merger agreement and the merger, you should consider the following factors:

Risks Relating to the Merger

Because the market price of Marshall & Ilsley common stock may fluctuate, you cannot be sure of the number of shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock that you will receive.

At the effective time of the merger, Marshall & Ilsley will issue a number of shares equal to the result of $21 million divided by the average closing price per share of Marshall & Ilsley common stock on the New York Stock Exchange for the thirty calendar days immediately before the effective time. Each North Star stockholder will be entitled to exchange his or her shares of outstanding common stock for the number of shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock equal to the product of the number of shares held by such stockholder and a fraction, the numerator of which is the Marshall & Ilsley Exchange Shares and the denominator of which is the number of shares of North Star common stock outstanding immediately before the effective time. The market price for Marshall & Ilsley common stock at the effective time of the merger may vary from the price of Marshall & Ilsley common stock on the date the execution of the merger agreement was announced, on the date on which this document was mailed to North Star stockholders, and on the date that you submit your consent. Accordingly, at the time you submit your consent, you will not necessarily know or be able to calculate the number of shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock you would receive upon completion of the merger. Please refer to the table on page 12 for examples of how fluctuations in the market price of Marshall & Ilsley common stock would affect the number of shares that you will receive. Any number of factors could cause the market price of Marshall & Ilsley common stock to change, including changes in general market and economic conditions, changes in Marshall & Ilsley's business, operations and prospects and changes in the regulatory environment. Many of these factors are beyond Marshall & Ilsley's control.

Post-Merger Risks

The market price of the shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock may be affected by factors different from those affecting the shares of North Star common stock.

Upon completion of the merger, holders of the North Star common stock will become holders of Marshall & Ilsley common stock. Some of Marshall & Ilsley's current businesses and markets differ from those of North Star and, accordingly, the results of operations of Marshall & Ilsley after the merger may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the results of operations of North Star. For a discussion of the businesses of Marshall & Ilsley and North Star and of certain factors to consider in connection with those businesses, see Marshall & Ilsley Corporation Description of Business, North Star Financial Corporation Description of Business and the documents incorporated by reference into this document and referred to under Where You Can Find More Information on page 67.

Marshall & Ilsley's earnings are significantly affected by general business and economic conditions, including credit risk and interest rate risk.

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

Marshall & Ilsley's business and earnings are sensitive to general business and economic conditions in the United States and, in particular, the states where it has significant operations, including Wisconsin, Arizona, Minnesota, Missouri, Oklahoma, Kansas, Nevada and Florida. These conditions include short-term and long-term interest rates, inflation, monetary supply, fluctuations in both debt and equity capital markets, the strength of the U.S. and local economies and consumer spending, borrowing and saving habits, all of which are beyond Marshall & Ilsley's control. For example, an economic downturn, increase in unemployment or higher interest rates could decrease the demand for loans and other products and services and/or result in a deterioration in credit quality and/or loan performance and collectability. Non-payment of loans, if it occurs, could have an adverse effect on Marshall & Ilsley's financial condition and results of operations and cash flows. Higher interest rates also could increase Marshall & Ilsley's cost to borrow funds and increase the rate Marshall & Ilsley pays on deposits. In addition, an overall economic slowdown could negatively affect the purchasing and decision-making activities of the financial institution customers of Metavante.

Terrorism, acts of war or international conflicts could negatively affect Marshall & Ilsley's business and financial condition.

Acts or threats of war or terrorism, international conflicts, including ongoing military operations in Iraq and Afghanistan, and the actions taken by the U.S. and other governments in response to such events could negatively affect general business and economic conditions in the U.S. If terrorist activity, acts of war or other international hostilities cause an overall economic decline, Marshall & Ilsley's financial condition and operating results could be materially adversely affected. The potential for future terrorist attacks, the national and international responses to terrorist attacks or perceived threats to national security and other actual or potential conflicts or acts of war, including conflict in the Middle East, have created many economic and political uncertainties that could seriously harm Marshall & Ilsley's business and results of operations in ways that cannot presently be predicted.

Marshall & Ilsley's earnings also are significantly affected by the fiscal and monetary policies of the federal government and its agencies, which could affect repayment of loans and thereby materially adversely affect Marshall & Ilsley.

The policies of the Federal Reserve Board affect Marshall & Ilsley significantly. The Federal Reserve Board regulates the supply of money and credit in the United States. Its policies directly and indirectly influence the rate of interest earned on loans and paid on borrowings and interest-bearing deposits and can also affect the value of financial instruments Marshall & Ilsley holds. Those policies determine to a significant extent Marshall & Ilsley's cost of funds for lending and investing. Changes in those policies are beyond Marshall & Ilsley's control and are difficult to predict. Federal Reserve Board policies can affect Marshall & Ilsley's borrowers, potentially increasing the risk that they may fail to repay their loans. For example, a tightening of the money supply by the Federal Reserve Board could reduce the demand for a borrower's products and services. This could adversely affect the borrower's earnings and ability to repay its loan, which could materially adversely affect Marshall & Ilsley.

The banking and financial services industry is highly competitive, which could adversely affect Marshall & Ilsley's financial condition and results of operations.

Marshall & Ilsley operates in a highly competitive environment for the products and services it offers and in the markets it serves. The competition among financial services providers to attract and retain customers is intense. Customer loyalty can be easily influenced by a competitor's new products, especially offerings that provide cost savings to the customer. Some of Marshall & Ilsley's competitors may be better able to provide a wider range of products and services over a greater geographic area.

Marshall & Ilsley believes the banking and financial services industry will become even more competitive as a result of legislative, regulatory and technological changes and the continued consolidation of the industry. Technology has lowered barriers to entry and made it possible for non-banks to offer products and services traditionally provided by banks, such as automatic funds transfer and automatic payment systems. Also, investment banks and insurance companies are competing in more banking businesses such as syndicated lending and consumer banking. Many of Marshall & Ilsley's competitors are subject to fewer regulatory constraints and have lower cost structures. Marshall & Ilsley expects the consolidation of the banking and financial services industry to result in larger, better-capitalized companies offering a wide array of financial services and products.

Federal and state agency regulation could increase Marshall & Ilsley's cost structures or have other negative effects on Marshall & Ilsley.

Marshall & Ilsley, its subsidiary banks and many of its non-bank subsidiaries, including Metavante, are heavily regulated at the federal and state levels. This regulation is designed primarily to protect consumers, depositors and the banking system as a whole, not shareholders. Congress and state legislatures and federal and state regulatory agencies continually review banking laws, regulations and policies for possible changes. Changes to statutes, regulations or regulatory policies, including changes in interpretation or implementation of statutes, regulations or policies, could affect Marshall & Ilsley in substantial and unpredictable ways including limiting the types of financial services and products Marshall & Ilsley may offer, increasing the ability of non-banks to offer competing financial services and products and/or increasing Marshall & Ilsley's cost structures. Also, Marshall & Ilsley's failure to comply with laws, regulations or policies could result in sanctions by regulatory agencies and damage to its reputation.

Marshall & Ilsley is subject to examinations and challenges by tax authorities, which, if not resolved in Marshall & Ilsley's favor, could adversely affect Marshall & Ilsley's financial condition and results of operations.

In the normal course of business, Marshall & Ilsley and its affiliates are routinely subject to examinations and challenges from federal and state tax authorities regarding the amount of taxes due in connection with investments Marshall & Ilsley has made and the businesses in which it has engaged. Recently, federal and state taxing authorities have become increasingly aggressive in challenging tax positions taken by financial institutions. These tax positions may relate to tax compliance, sales and use, franchise, gross receipts, payroll, property and income tax issues, including tax base, apportionment and tax credit planning. The challenges made by tax authorities may result in adjustments to the timing or amount of taxable income or deductions or the allocation of income among tax jurisdictions. If any such challenges are made and are not resolved in Marshall & Ilsley's favor, they could have an adverse effect on Marshall & Ilsley's financial condition and results of operations.

Consumers may decide not to use banks to complete their financial transactions, which could result in a loss of income to Marshall & Ilsley.

Technology and other changes are allowing parties to complete financial transactions that historically have involved banks at one or both ends of the transaction. For example, consumers can now pay bills and transfer funds directly without banks. The process of eliminating banks as intermediaries, known as disintermediation, could result in the loss of fee income, as well as the loss of customer deposits and income generated from those deposits.

Maintaining or increasing Marshall & Ilsley's market share depends on market acceptance and regulatory approval of new products and services and other factors, and Marshall & Ilsley's failure to achieve such acceptance and approval could harm its market share.

Marshall & Ilsley's success depends, in part, on its ability to adapt its products and services to evolving industry standards and to control expenses. There is increasing pressure on financial services companies to provide products and services at lower prices. This can reduce Marshall & Ilsley's net interest margin and revenues from its fee-based products and services. In addition, Marshall & Ilsley's success depends in part on its ability to generate significant levels of new business in its existing markets and in identifying and penetrating markets. Growth rates for card-based payment transactions and other product markets may not continue at recent levels. Further, the widespread adoption of new technologies, including Internet-based services, could require Marshall & Ilsley to make substantial expenditures to modify or adapt its existing products and services or render its existing products obsolete. Marshall & Ilsley may not successfully introduce new products and services, achieve market acceptance of its products and services, develop and maintain loyal customers and/or break into targeted markets.

Marshall & Ilsley relies on dividends from its subsidiaries for most of its revenue, and the banking subsidiaries hold a significant portion of their assets indirectly.

Marshall & Ilsley is a separate and distinct legal entity from its subsidiaries. Marshall & Ilsley receives substantially all of its revenue from dividends from its subsidiaries. These dividends are the principal source of funds to pay dividends on Marshall & Ilsley's common stock and interest on Marshall & Ilsley's debt. The payment of dividends by a subsidiary is subject to federal law restrictions as well as, in the case of any subsidiary, to the laws of the subsidiary's state of incorporation. Also, a parent company's right to participate in a distribution of assets upon a subsidiary's liquidation or reorganization is subject to the prior claims of the subsidiary's creditors. In addition, Marshall & Ilsley's bank and savings association subsidiaries hold a significant portion of their mortgage loan and investment portfolios indirectly through their ownership interests in direct and indirect subsidiaries.

Marshall & Ilsley depends on the accuracy and completeness of information about customers and counterparties and inaccurate or incomplete information could negatively affect Marshall & Ilsley's financial condition and results of operation.

In deciding whether to extend credit or enter into other transactions with customers and counterparties, Marshall & Ilsley may rely on information provided to it by customers and counterparties, including financial statements and other financial information. Marshall & Ilsley may also rely on representations of customers and counterparties as to the accuracy and completeness of that information and, with respect to financial statements, on reports of independent auditors. For example, in deciding whether to extend credit to a business, Marshall & Ilsley may assume that the customer's audited financial statements conform with generally accepted accounting principles and present fairly, in all material respects, the financial condition, results of operations and cash flows of the customer. Marshall & Ilsley may also rely on the audit report covering those financial statements. Marshall & Ilsley's financial condition and results of operations could be negatively affected to the extent Marshall & Ilsley relies on financial statements that do not comply with generally accepted accounting principles or that are materially misleading.

Marshall & Ilsley's accounting policies and methods are the basis of how it reports its financial condition and results of operations, and they may require management to make estimates about matters that are inherently uncertain.

Marshall & Ilsley's accounting policies and methods are fundamental to how it records and reports its financial condition and results of operations. Marshall & Ilsley's management must exercise judgment in selecting and applying many of these accounting policies and methods in order to ensure that they comply with generally accepted accounting principles and reflect management's judgment as to the most appropriate manner in which to record and report Marshall & Ilsley's financial condition and results of operations. In some cases, management must select the accounting policy or method to apply from two or more alternatives, any of which might be reasonable under the circumstances yet might result in Marshall & Ilsley's reporting materially different amounts than would have been reported under a different alternative.

Marshall & Ilsley has identified four accounting policies as being critical to the presentation of its financial condition and results of operations because they require management to make particularly subjective and/or complex judgments about matters that are inherently uncertain and because of the likelihood that materially different amounts would be reported under different conditions or using different assumptions. These critical accounting policies relate to: (1) the allowance for loan and lease losses; (2) capitalized software and conversion costs; (3) financial asset sales and securitizations; and (4) income taxes. Because of the inherent uncertainty of estimates about these matters, no assurance can be given that the application of alternative policies or methods might not result in Marshall & Ilsley reporting materially different amounts.

Changes in accounting standards could adversely affect Marshall & Ilsley's reported financial results.

The bodies that set accounting standards for public companies, including the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB), the Securities and Exchange Commission and others, periodically change or revise existing interpretations of the accounting and reporting standards that govern the way that Marshall & Ilsley reports its financial condition and results of operations. These changes can be difficult to predict and can materially impact Marshall & Ilsley's reported financial results. In some cases, Marshall & Ilsley could be required to apply a new or revised accounting standard, or a revised interpretation of an accounting standard, retroactively, which could have a negative impact on reported results or result in the restatement of Marshall & Ilsley's financial statements for prior periods.

Marshall & Ilsley has an active acquisition program, which involves risks related to integration of acquired companies or businesses and the potential for the dilution of the value of Marshall & Ilsley stock.

Marshall & Ilsley regularly explores opportunities to acquire banking institutions, financial technology providers and other financial services providers. Marshall & Ilsley cannot predict the number, size or timing of future acquisitions. Marshall & Ilsley typically does not publicly comment on a possible acquisition or business combination until it has signed a definitive agreement for the transaction. Once Marshall & Ilsley has signed a definitive agreement, transactions of this type are generally subject to regulatory approvals and other customary conditions. There can be no assurance Marshall & Ilsley will receive such regulatory approvals without unexpected delays or conditions or that such conditions will be timely met to Marshall & Ilsley's satisfaction, or at all.

Difficulty in integrating an acquired company or business may cause Marshall & Ilsley not to realize expected revenue increases, cost savings, increases in geographic or product presence, and/or other projected benefits from the acquisition. Specifically, the integration process could result in higher than expected deposit attrition (run-off), loss of customers and key employees, the disruption of Marshall & Ilsley's business or the business of the acquired company, or otherwise adversely affect Marshall & Ilsley's ability to maintain existing relationships with clients, employees and suppliers or to enter into new business relationships. Marshall & Ilsley may not be able to successfully leverage the combined product offerings to the combined customer base. These factors could contribute to Marshall & Ilsley not achieving the anticipated benefits of the acquisition within the desired time frames, if at all.

Future acquisitions could require Marshall & Ilsley to issue stock, to use substantial cash or liquid assets or to incur debt. In such cases, the value of Marshall & Ilsley's stock could be diluted and Marshall & Ilsley could become more susceptible to economic downturns and competitive pressures.

Marshall & Ilsley has in the past and may in the future explore alternatives to separate Metavante from Marshall & Ilsley.

Marshall & Ilsley regularly reviews whether separating the banking and related businesses from the Metavante business would improve the future prospects of those businesses and, ultimately, the value returned to shareholders. Such separation, should it occur, could take a variety of forms and could result in a corporate structure significantly different from that which currently exists. Marshall & Ilsley typically would not comment on any such transaction until definitive agreements had been signed or the transaction had been otherwise approved in final form. There can be no assurance that any such transaction will or will not occur.

Marshall & Ilsley is dependent on senior management, and the loss of service of any of Marshall & Ilsley's senior executive officers could cause Marshall & Ilsley's business to suffer.

Marshall & Ilsley's continued success depends to a significant extent upon the continued services of its senior management. The loss of services of any of Marshall & Ilsley's senior executive officers could cause its business to suffer. In addition, Marshall & Ilsley's success depends in part upon senior management's ability to implement its business strategy.

Marshall & Ilsley's stock price can be volatile.

Marshall & Ilsley's stock price can fluctuate widely in response to a variety of factors including:

actual or anticipated variations in Marshall & Ilsley's quarterly results;

new technology or services by Marshall & Ilsley's competitors;

unanticipated losses or gains due to unexpected events, including losses or gains on securities held for investment purposes;

significant acquisitions or business combinations, strategic partnerships, joint ventures or capital commitments by or involving Marshall & Ilsley or its competitors;

changes in accounting policies or practices;

failure to integrate Marshall & Ilsley's acquisitions or realize anticipated benefits from its acquisitions; or changes in government regulations.

General market fluctuations, industry factors and general economic and political conditions, such as economic slowdowns or recessions, interest rate changes, credit loss trends or currency fluctuations, also could cause its stock price to decrease regardless of its operating results.

Marshall & Ilsley may be a defendant in a variety of litigation and other actions, which may have a material adverse effect on its business, operating results and financial condition.

Marshall & Ilsley and its subsidiaries may be involved from time to time in a variety of litigation arising out of its business. Marshall & Ilsley's insurance may not cover all claims that may be asserted against it, and any claims asserted against Marshall & Ilsley, regardless of merit or eventual outcome, may harm its reputation. Should the ultimate judgments or settlements in any litigation exceed Marshall & Ilsley's insurance coverage, they could have a material adverse effect on its business, operating results and financial condition and cash flows. In addition, Marshall & Ilsley may not be able to obtain appropriate types or levels of insurance in the future, nor may Marshall & Ilsley be able to obtain adequate replacement policies with acceptable terms, if at all.

Unauthorized disclosure of sensitive or confidential client or customer information, whether through a breach of Marshall & Ilsley's computer systems or otherwise, could severely harm its business.

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

As part of Marshall & Ilsley's financial and data processing products and services, it collects, processes and retains sensitive and confidential client and customer information on behalf of itself and other third parties, such as Metavante's customers. Despite the security measures Marshall & Ilsley has in place, its facilities and systems, and those of its third party service providers, may be vulnerable to security breaches, acts of vandalism, computer viruses, misplaced or lost data, programming and/or human errors, or other similar events. Any security breach involving the misappropriation, loss or other unauthorized disclosure of confidential customer information, whether by Marshall & Ilsley or by its vendors, could severely damage its reputation, expose it to the risks of litigation and liability, disrupt its operations and harm its business.

Damage to the data centers on which Metavante relies could harm Metavante's business.

Metavante's data centers are an integral part of its business. Damage to Metavante's data centers due to acts of terrorism, fire, power loss, telecommunications failure and other disasters could have a material adverse effect on Metavante's business, operating results and financial condition. In addition, because Metavante relies on the integrity of the data it processes, if this data is incorrect or somehow tainted, client relations and confidence in Metavante's services could be impaired, which would harm Metavante's business.

Network operational difficulties or security problems could damage Metavante's reputation and business.

Metavante depends on the reliable operation of network connections from its clients and its clients' end users to its systems. Any operational problems or outages in these systems would cause Metavante to be unable to process transactions for its clients and its clients' end users, resulting in decreased revenues. In addition, any system delays, failures or loss of data, whatever the cause, could reduce client satisfaction with Metavante's products and services and harm Metavante's financial results.

Metavante also depends on the security of its systems. Metavante's networks may be vulnerable to unauthorized access, computer viruses and other disruptive problems. Metavante transmits confidential financial information in providing its services. In addition, under agreements with certain customers, Metavante will be financially liable if consumer data is compromised while in Metavante's possession, regardless of the safeguards Metavante may have instituted. A material security problem affecting Metavante could damage its reputation, deter financial services providers from purchasing its products, deter their customers from using its products or result in liability to Metavante. Any material security problem affecting Metavante's competitors could affect the marketplace's perception of Internet banking and electronic commerce service in general and have the same effects.

Lack of system integrity or credit quality related to Metavante funds settlement could result in a financial loss.

Metavante settles funds on behalf of financial institutions, other businesses and consumers and receives funds from clients, card issuers, payment networks and consumers on a daily basis for a variety of transaction types. Transactions facilitated by Metavante include debit card, credit card and electronic bill payment transactions, supporting consumers, financial institutions and other businesses. These payment activities rely upon the technology infrastructure that facilitates the verification of activity with counterparties and the facilitation of the payment. If the continuity of operations or integrity of processing were compromised this could result in a financial loss to Metavante due to a failure in payment facilitation. In addition, Metavante may issue credit to consumers, financial institutions or other businesses as part of the funds settlement. A default on this credit by a counterparty could result in a financial loss to Metavante.

Metavante may not be able to protect its intellectual property, and Metavante may be subject to infringement claims.

Metavante relies on a combination of contractual rights and copyright, trademark, patent and trade secret laws to establish and protect its proprietary technology. Despite Metavante's efforts to protect its intellectual property, third parties may infringe or misappropriate Metavante's intellectual property or may develop software or technology competitive to Metavante's. Metavante's competitors may independently develop similar technology, duplicate its products or services or design around Metavante's intellectual property rights. Metavante may have to litigate to enforce and protect its intellectual property rights, trade secrets and know-how or to determine their scope, validity or enforceability, which is expensive and could cause a diversion of resources and may not prove successful. The loss of intellectual property protection or the inability to secure or enforce intellectual property protection could harm Metavante's business and ability to compete.

Metavante also may be subject to costly litigation in the event its products or technology infringe upon another party's proprietary rights. Third parties may have, or may eventually be issued, patents that would be infringed by Metavante's products or technology. Any of these third parties could make a claim of infringement against Metavante with respect to its products or technology. Metavante may also be subject to claims by third parties for breach of copyright, trademark or license usage rights. Any such claims and any resulting litigation could subject Metavante to significant liability for damages. An adverse determination in any litigation of this type could require Metavante to design around a third party's patent or to license alternative technology from another party. In addition, litigation is time consuming and expensive to defend and could result in the diversion of the time and attention of Metavante's management and employees. Any claims from third parties may also result in limitations on Metavante's ability to use the intellectual property subject to these claims.

Changes in the network pricing and transaction routing strategies of NYCE, a subsidiary of Metavante, could adversely affect NYCE's revenue and Metavante's results of operations.

The transaction volume and the corresponding revenues of NYCE, a subsidiary of Metavante, are driven in large measure by NYCE's execution of long-term strategies for network pricing (including interchange and network fees) and transaction routing. As the debit and electronic payments marketplace continues to shift and mature, it may be necessary for NYCE to pursue alternate pricing and/or transaction routing strategies. Any significant changes to NYCE's current pricing and/or transaction routing strategies would likely be implemented over a transitional phase. Such changes could result in reductions of participant card base, reductions in merchant acceptance, and the potential for transaction misrouting during the transitional phase, any of which would adversely affect NYCE's revenue and Metavante's results of operations.

Metavante's business could suffer if it fails to attract and retain key technical people.

Metavante's success depends in large part upon Metavante's ability to attract and retain highly skilled technical, management and sales and marketing personnel. Because the development of Metavante's products and services requires knowledge of computer hardware, operating system software, system management software and application software, key technical personnel must be proficient in a number of disciplines. Competition for the best people, in particular individuals with technology experience, is intense. Metavante may not be able to hire or retain key people.

CONSENTS REQUIRED FROM NORTH STAR STOCKHOLDERS

This document and the accompanying consent are being furnished to you in connection with the solicitation of consents to the merger agreement by the board of directors of North Star. This document and consent are first being sent to you on or about March 20, 2007. Each written consent submitted to North Star at its principal executive offices located at 500 West Madison, Suite 3150, Chicago, Illinois 60661 will be effective and irrevocable as of 5:00 p.m. (Central Daylight Time) on April 16, 2007.

Purpose of the Consent Solicitation

The board of directors of North Star is seeking your written consent as a North Star stockholder to the merger agreement and merger. When we use the term merger agreement in this document, we are referring to the Agreement and Plan of Merger and Reorganization that North Star entered into with Marshall & Ilsley, M&I Merger Corp and M&I Merger Sub, LLC on January 12, 2007 and the amendments thereto dated February 21, 2007 and March 14, 2007. A copy of the merger agreement is contained in Appendix A.

Record Date

Only holders of North Star shares at the close of business on February 15, 2007 are entitled to receive notice of and to submit a consent to the merger agreement. As of that date, there were 7,254,324 common and common equivalent shares of North Star stock outstanding held by approximately 225 record holders.

Required Consents

The consent of the holders of a majority of shares of North Star common stock entitled to vote is required to approve the merger agreement and merger. You are entitled to submit one consent for each share of North Star common stock you held on the record date.

Marshall & Ilsley has entered into an agreement with certain stockholders, directors and executive officers of North Star, who in aggregate hold approximately 60 percent of the outstanding North Star common stock, pursuant to which they have agreed, among other things, to vote all shares beneficially owned by them (to the extent such individuals have the right to direct the voting of such shares) in favor of the merger agreement and the merger. Accordingly, approval of the merger agreement by North Star stockholders is expected to follow from fulfillment of these agreements alone.

North Star's board of directors believes that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are advisable to, fair to and in the best interests of North Star and its stockholders and unanimously approved the merger agreement and merger on January 23, 2007. North Star's board unanimously recommends that North Star stockholders consent to the adoption and approval of the merger agreement, including the merger.

Consents

If your shares are held in an account at a brokerage firm or bank, you must instruct it on whether to consent to the merger agreement. Your broker or bank will submit a consent only if you follow the instructions provided to you by your broker or bank.

Each written consent submitted to North Star at its principal executive offices located at 500 West Madison, Suite 3150, Chicago, Illinois 60661 will be effective and irrevocable as of 5:00 p.m. (Central Daylight Time) on April 16, 2007. If you submit your written consent to North Star and subsequently wish to revoke your consent before such time, please call Michael Gerdes of North Star at (312) 559-9761 and notify him of your decision.

Table of Contents

Do NOT send in your North Star stock certificates with your consent. As soon as practicable, but not more than five business days after completion of the merger, the exchange agent will mail to you transmittal forms with instructions for exchanging your North Star stock certificates for the merger consideration.

Solicitation of Consents

North Star will pay all costs of soliciting consents, except that Marshall & Ilsley will share equally in the expense of printing and filing this document and all SEC, NYSE and other regulatory filing fees in connection with this information statement/prospectus. North Star will reimburse brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for reasonable expenses, if any, incurred by them in sending the information statement/prospectus materials to the beneficial owners of North Star common stock. In addition to solicitations by mail, directors, officers and employees of North Star may solicit consents personally or by telephone without additional compensation.

THE MERGER AND REORGANIZATION

Structure of the Mergers

Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, at the effective time of the step one merger, M&I Merger Corp. will merge with and into North Star. Marshall & Ilsley will issue shares of its common stock to the stockholders of North Star in exchange for their shares of North Star common stock. As a result of the step one merger, the separate corporate existence of M&I Merger Corp. will cease and North Star will continue as the interim surviving corporation of the step one merger. Immediately thereafter, at the effective time of the step two merger, North Star will merge with and into M&I Merger Sub, LLC. As a result of the step two merger, M&I Merger Sub, LLC will be the ultimate surviving entity and a wholly owned subsidiary of Marshall & Ilsley. M&I Merger Sub, LLC will be renamed North Star Financial, LLC. North Star stockholders who do not exercise their appraisal rights under Delaware law in accordance with the procedures described below under the heading entitled Appraisal Rights and in Appendix C will become Marshall & Ilsley shareholders, with their rights governed by Wisconsin law and Marshall & Ilsley's restated articles of incorporation and by-laws.

Background of the Merger

From time to time, before being approached by Marshall & Ilsley, North Star had received indications of interest from executive officers of other financial institutions regarding possible business combinations. However, because North Star's business strategy has been to remain focused on personal trust and related business lines, these indications of interest had never advanced beyond initial discussions.

On March 23, 2006, John R. Griffith, North Star's president and chief executive officer, received a phone call from Daniel L. Kaminski, chief financial officer of Marshall & Ilsley's Wealth Management Division, who had learned of North Star through a business associate in mid-March. Mr. Kaminski indicated during the course of their discussion that Marshall & Ilsley was interested in determining North Star's possible interest in a business combination, noting that North Star was one of several Chicago-based candidates Marshall & Ilsley had identified to permit expansion of its product offerings of personal trust services and money management in the Chicago metropolitan area. Mr. Griffith indicated that North Star's management had not put the company up for sale, but was willing to explore Marshall & Ilsley's interest in a transaction. The two gentlemen agreed to meet in person.

About two weeks later, on April 7, 2006, Mr. Kaminski and Mr. Griffith met in Lake Forest, Illinois, and were joined by Kenneth C. Krei, senior vice president of Marshall & Ilsley and president and chief executive officer of Marshall & Ilsley's Wealth Management Division. The discussion began with an overview of Marshall & Ilsley's business and organization and eventually turned to inquiries about North Star and its business. Mr. Griffith generally described North Star's service offerings, including its substantial tax-free exchange and ESOP service lines. These two business units were of particular interest to Mr. Krei and Mr. Kaminski, as they observed the potential ties between North Star's services and Marshall & Ilsley's regional real estate activities and nationwide lending business. The participants in this meeting agreed to continue their discussions. Mr. Griffith reported his discussions to the North Star board of directors at its April 25, 2006 meeting.

On May 3, 2006, Mr. Krei, Mr. Kaminski and Mr. Griffith met with other senior Marshall & Ilsley executives to explore in more detail the potentially complimentary nature of North Star's service units and Marshall & Ilsley's business and services. They also discussed the key personnel and business philosophies of both organizations. Following this meeting, Marshall & Ilsley and North Star senior executives continued their discussions in phone calls exploring a possible business combination between the two companies. During these calls, Marshall & Ilsley personnel expressed their opinion to Mr. Griffith that such a combination could be beneficial not only to Marshall & Ilsley by giving it a Chicago presence and expanded service offerings, but that it could enhance the growth of North Star's business as well. Marshall & Ilsley executives asked for and received summary financial information regarding North Star in order to continue their evaluation of a possible transaction.

The North Star board of directors, at its meeting on June 27, 2006, authorized Mr. Griffith to contact Stout Risius Ross (SRR), an investment banking firm, regarding the discussions with Marshall & Ilsley. The objective of retaining SRR was to obtain an analysis of North Star's future options, including their opinion as to the value of North Star's common stock under alternative scenarios, which could be used in assessing an offer from Marshall & Ilsley if one were made. North Star executives met with representatives of SRR shortly after the June 27 board of directors meeting to outline the project and provide SRR with financial information about North Star. SRR submitted its report containing findings and conclusions to North Star executives at a meeting on July 12, 2006. This report was distributed to the North Star board of directors on July 14, 2006 for discussion at its upcoming meeting.

On July 18, 2006, the North Star board of directors met to consider, among other things, the discussions with Marshall & Ilsley. The North Star board authorized and directed Mr. Griffith and other North Star officers to pursue the exchange of business information between the two companies under the protection of a mutual non-disclosure agreement. The board further directed these officers to specify for Marshall & Ilsley certain minimum North Star requirements for consideration of a sale of the company, including price terms, exclusivity terms and due diligence arrangements. In late July 2006, senior executive officers of North Star prepared a memorandum to Mr. Kaminski consistent with the board's directions and outlining the basic terms that the senior North Star officers felt needed to be satisfied in order to present an offer to the North Star board of directors. Mr. Griffith delivered this letter on July 25, 2006.

A non-disclosure agreement was signed on or around August 2, 2006. At that point, each company began to pursue a due diligence investigation on the other. North Star, whose key business information (unlike Marshall & Ilsley's business information) is not periodically and publicly reported, provided Marshall & Ilsley with detailed audited financial statements, copies of important agreements and other business information.

The due diligence process continued into the following months, and included a key meeting that took place in Chicago on September 6, 2006 among Mr. Kaminski, other senior Marshall & Ilsley executives, Mr. Griffith and Michael I. Gerdes, North Star's chief financial officer. The purpose of the meeting was to provide Marshall & Ilsley executives with more sensitive, detailed data on North Star's business lines. This meeting also encompassed separate discussions between Marshall & Ilsley executives and certain North Star executives to gain additional information about North Star's business operations. Later that month, on September 22, 2006, Mr. Krei, on behalf of Marshall & Ilsley, submitted to North Star a preliminary letter of interest indicating the desire for a merger of the companies and an initial range for the offer (the upper end of which was consistent with the terms set forth in Mr. Griffith's letter of July 25).

Over the next month, senior executives from both companies met to explore further details of the discussed business combination and aspects of business integration, including review, assessment and determination of key employee reporting relationships and employee compensation matters. During this period, North Star also provided Marshall & Ilsley with additional, detailed information about the company. The key meetings occurred on October 20, October 24, October 26 and October 30.

On November 16, 2006, Marshall & Ilsley's attorneys delivered an initial draft of the definitive agreement to North Star. Between that day and January 12, 2007, Marshall & Ilsley and North Star and their representatives and advisors negotiated the terms of the definitive agreement. On November 27, 2006, Mr. Kaminski and Mr. Krei contacted Mr. Griffith with their $21 million offer for the acquisition of North Star. The next day, at a regular meeting of the North Star board of directors, Mr. Griffith reported the offer. At that point, the parties agreed to work towards a mutually acceptable definitive merger agreement.

Mr. Kaminski and Mr. Krei advised Marshall & Ilsley's senior management and its board of directors of the ongoing discussions with North Star, as well as other acquisition candidates, beginning in June 2006 and provided periodic update reports thereafter regarding the status of negotiations. All of the material terms of the merger agreement, including the form and amount of consideration, were approved by Marshall & Ilsley's senior management pursuant to authority granted by its board of directors. Mr. Kaminski and Mr. Krei communicated Marshall & Ilsley's $21 million offer to Mr. Griffith orally on November 27, 2006, after receiving approval to negotiate, execute and deliver the merger agreement. Mr. Krei delivered Marshall & Ilsley's written offer on November 29, 2006.

In December, 2006, North Star management delivered a draft of the definitive merger agreement to its board of directors. At a special meeting of the North Star board held on December 20, 2006, the directors considered the proposed agreement. Representatives from North Star's legal counsel, Levenfeld Pearlstein, LLC, reviewed with the board the terms of the proposed definitive agreement. After the conclusion of this review and additional discussion, the North Star board of directors unanimously approved the merger and authorized its officers to further negotiate and execute the merger agreement on behalf of North Star, subject to certain conditions. These conditions included board review and approval of the final definitive agreement, completion of due diligence on Marshall & Ilsley, obtaining a fairness opinion for the North Star ESOP, and certain other conditions.

Representatives from both companies continued negotiations on the definitive agreement until it was finalized and signed on January 12, 2007, and after the closing of the stock market on that day, the companies issued a joint press release announcing the execution of the definitive agreement.

At a meeting of the North Star board of directors held on January 23, 2007, Levenfeld Pearlstein reviewed with the board certain changes to the terms of the definitive agreement, and the board ratified these changes. The board also reviewed due diligence reports regarding Marshall & Ilsley, including analyst reports and reports of ratings agencies. The North Star board then approved the final definitive agreement, including the merger, and recommended the approval of the definitive agreement, including the merger, by the shareholders of North Star.

Merger Consideration

If the merger and reorganization is completed, the aggregate purchase price of $21 million will be paid to North Star stockholders in shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock. Each share of North Star Series A preferred stock will be converted into six shares of North Star common stock. Each share of North Star Series B preferred stock will receive the liquidation preference to which it is entitled, which will be paid in cash. At the effective time of the merger, Marshall & Ilsley will issue a number of shares equal to the result of $21 million divided by the average closing price per share of Marshall & Ilsley common stock on the New York Stock Exchange for the thirty calendar days immediately before the effective time. Each North Star stockholder will be entitled to exchange his or her shares of outstanding common stock for the number of shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock equal to the product of the number of shares held by such stockholder and a fraction, the numerator of which is the Marshall & Ilsley Exchange Shares and the denominator of which is the number of shares of North Star common stock outstanding immediately before the effective time.

The total number of shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock that you will receive will depend on the average closing price of Marshall & Ilsley common stock for the thirty calendar days prior to the effective time of the merger. For the thirty calendar days ending on and including the calendar day of March 13, 2007, the average closing price would have been $47.98 per share of Marshall & Ilsley common stock. If the effective time of the merger had been March 14, 2007, the number of shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock that a North Star stockholder would have received on March 14, 2007 would have been 0.0608 shares for each of North Star common stock.

Each share of Marshall & Ilsley common stock issued and outstanding prior to the merger will remain issued and outstanding and will not be converted or exchanged in the merger.

No Fractional Shares

Only whole shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock will be issued in connection with the merger. In lieu of fractional shares, each holder of North Star common stock otherwise entitled to a fractional share of Marshall & Ilsley common stock (after taking into account all fractional share interests of North Star common stock delivered by such holder) will be paid an amount of cash equal to the product obtained by multiplying such fractional share interest to which such holder would otherwise be entitled by the merger consideration. No stockholder will be entitled to interest, dividends, voting rights or other rights with respect to any fractional share.

Completion of the Mergers

Unless North Star and Marshall & Ilsley agree otherwise, the completion of the mergers will be as promptly as practicable after the closing upon filing of articles of merger and any other required documents with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware and the Department of Financial Institutions of the State of Wisconsin. Closing will be held at a time and date mutually agreed by Marshall & Ilsley and North Star or, in the absence of such agreement, no later than two business days following the satisfaction or waiver of all conditions to completion of the merger in the merger agreement. North Star and Marshall & Ilsley each will have the right, but not the obligation, to terminate the merger agreement if completion of the mergers does not occur on or before May 31, 2007, unless the failure of the merger to occur by such date is due to the failure of the party seeking such termination to comply with its obligations under the merger agreement.

Exchange of Certificates

Marshall & Ilsley will deposit, or cause to be deposited, as of the effective time, with the Exchange Agent certificates representing the Marshall & Ilsley Exchange Shares to be issued pursuant to the merger in exchange for outstanding shares of North Star common stock. The Exchange Agent will act as the exchange agent for the benefit of the holders of certificates of North Star common stock.

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

After the effective time of the merger, you will cease to have any rights as a holder of North Star common stock, and your sole right will be your right to receive the merger consideration, including cash in lieu of fractional shares, if any, into which your shares of North Star common stock will have been converted by virtue of the merger, or to exercise your appraisal rights if you have not withdrawn or lost such rights.

As soon as practicable after the effective time of the merger, the Exchange Agent will send to you a letter of transmittal and instructions for use in submitting to the Exchange Agent certificates formerly representing shares of your North Star common stock to be exchanged for certificates representing the merger consideration. You will not be entitled to receive any dividends or other distributions which may be payable to holders of record of Marshall & Ilsley common stock following the effective time of the merger until you have surrendered and exchanged your North Star common stock certificates. Any dividends with a record date after the effective time of the merger payable on Marshall & Ilsley common stock after the effective time of the merger will be paid to the Exchange Agent and, upon receipt of the North Star common stock certificates, the Exchange Agent will forward to you the following as applicable:

certificates representing your shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock which you are entitled to receive in exchange for your shares of North Star common stock;

dividends declared on your shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock with a record date after the effective time of the merger, without interest; and cash for any fractional share, without interest.

Please DO NOT return your North Star stock certificates with the enclosed consent. You should not submit your North Star stock certificates until you have received written instructions from the Exchange Agent to do so.

At the effective time of the merger, the stock transfer books of North Star will be closed and no transfer of North Star common stock will thereafter be made on North Star's stock transfer books. If a certificate formerly representing North Star common stock is presented to North Star or Marshall & Ilsley, it will be forwarded to the Exchange Agent for cancellation and exchange for the merger consideration.

Termination of North Star's Employee Stock Ownership Plan and Stock Appreciation Rights Plan

The merger agreement provides that the North Star Trust Company Stock Ownership Plan, or the ESOP, will be terminated as part of the merger and reorganization. Promptly following the closing, the Trustee of the ESOP will file an application with the IRS for a favorable determination letter with respect to the continued tax-qualification of the ESOP after its amendment and termination. The Trustee of the ESOP will be responsible for administering the trust fund until the IRS approval has been obtained and all funds in the trust are distributed to ESOP participants.

The merger agreement also provides that, no later than the effective time, North Star will terminate its stock appreciation rights plan and will pay to the participants therein the amounts they are entitled to receive under the terms of the plan assuming a fair market value for each share of North Star common stock equal to the amount of consideration to be received in the merger for a share of North Star common stock. All payments in connection with the termination shall be made in cash, and shall only be made to the extent a participant would be vested under the plan immediately after the effective time.

Interests of Certain Persons

Certain members of North Star's executive management and board of directors may be deemed to have interests in the merger that are in addition to their interests as stockholders of North Star. North Star's board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the merger agreement.

Existing Employment Agreements. North Star has entered into employment agreements with six of its executive officers, each of whom we call a covered employee, including John R. Griffith, chairman of the board, president and chief executive officer, Michael I. Gerdes, senior vice president and chief financial officer, Robert M. Skowronski, senior vice president of North Star Trust Company, Kenneth A. Zubeck, senior vice president of North Star Trust Company, Martin S. Edwards, president of North Star Deferred Exchange Corp., and John G. Hommel, president of the ESOP and the fiduciary services division of North Star Trust Company. North Star Trust Company and North Star Deferred Exchange Corp. are subsidiaries of North Star. Each of these employment agreements include change in control provisions pursuant to which the covered employee may be entitled to receive certain severance benefits, as described below, in the event of a change in control of North Star and/or termination of employment. The merger will constitute a change in control under each of the employment agreements. The employment agreements contain no provisions for the reduction or gross up of change in control benefits in the event that any such benefits constitute excess parachute payments subject to a 20% excise tax imposed on the employee and the loss of deductibility by North Star, its affiliates or successors.

All six of the employment agreements include change in control provisions, meaning that, upon the occurrence of a change in control, the covered employee will be entitled to terminate his employment within one year of the change in control and receive from North Star or its successor an amount equal to (i) his base salary through the remainder of the month in which termination occurs and for the 12 succeeding calendar months (or the remaining term of the agreement in Mr. Edwards's case), (ii) commissions earned through the end of the month in which termination occurs, plus additional payments over the 12 succeeding calendar months (or in lump sum, at the option of North Star) totaling the amount of commissions earned during the previous 12 months, in the case of Messrs. Edwards and Hommel, (iii) a lump sum payment of any performance bonus for any prior year already earned but not paid and for the current year prorated through the end of the month in which termination occurs (and for the succeeding 12 calendar months in the case of Messrs. Edwards, Hommel, Skowronski and Zubeck) and (iv) a lump sum payment of any discretionary bonus for a prior year already earned but not paid. Each covered employee also will receive the same medical, disability and other fringe benefits that he would have received during the term of his employment through the remainder of the month in which termination occurs and for the succeeding 12 calendar months, or, in lieu thereof, an amount equal to the cost of obtaining equivalent benefits and any other benefits or payments as may be provided by law.

The initial term of Mr. Edwards's employment agreement is five years beginning on January 1, 2005. On January 1, 2010 and every year thereafter, the term of Mr. Edwards's employment automatically extends for an additional year unless, 120 days prior to that date, Mr. Edwards or North Star provides notice to the other that the term will not be automatically renewed for an additional year. The initial term of each of the other five employment agreements was one year, and the term of each employment agreement is automatically renewable on an annual basis for an additional year in the same manner described above for Mr. Edwards (such that, unless appropriate notice of termination is given, the remaining unexpired term of each employment agreement, including Mr. Edwards's agreement, will always be at least one year). If, pursuant to the provisions described above, payments are required to be made to North Star's covered employees, assuming the triggering events for each person, as described above, occurred on April 1, 2007, the estimated amount of the payments and the value of the other benefits payable to those persons will be as follows:

Griffith	$ 225,000
Gerdes	$ 220,000
Skowronski	$ 225,000
Zubeck	$ 230,000
Edwards	$ 820,000
Hommel	$ 790,000

New Employment Arrangements. In connection with the execution of the merger agreement, Marshall & Ilsley prepared a term sheet for each of Messrs. Griffith, Skowronski, Zubeck, Edwards and Hommel, each of whom we call a continuing executive, outlining the understanding between them and Marshall & Ilsley as to certain post-merger employment arrangements and the terms of certain letter agreements to be entered into by them prior to the closing of the merger.

The continuing executives have agreed in the letter agreements to the termination of their existing employment agreements with North Star, and the forfeiture of the benefits and payments available under those agreements, and to become at will employees of Marshall & Ilsley, or one of its subsidiaries. The term sheets that the continuing executives have agreed to specify base salaries, annual target cash incentive bonuses, retirement benefits and other perquisites, stock option grants (for Messrs. Edwards and Hommel) and transition awards of restricted stock. The option grants and restricted stock awards are subject to vesting requirements based on the ongoing employment of the continuing executives with Marshall & Ilsley. As part of the consideration for entering into the letter agreements and the term sheets, the continuing executives have agreed in the letter agreements to non-compete and customer and employee non-solicitation provisions in favor of Marshall & Ilsley.

In addition, the letter agreements provide certain severance benefits to each of the continuing executives in the event Marshall & Ilsley terminates their employment without cause within three years of the effective time of the merger. These severance benefits include a percentage of the amounts payable to the continuing executives in the event of a change in control under their existing employment agreement with North Star, payment of the employer's share of premiums for health and dental insurance and, if termination occurs in the second and third years following the merger, severance payments provided under the Marshall & Ilsley severance policy. Prior to the first anniversary of the effective time of the merger, a continuing executive terminated without cause will receive 100% of the amount that would have been payable under his existing North Star employment agreement and medical and dental insurance premiums for up to two years but will not receive any severance payments under Marshall & Ilsley's severance policy. If the termination occurs between the first and second and the second and third anniversaries of the effective time of the merger, the executive will receive severance payments under Marshall & Ilsley's severance policy and 50% of the amount payable under his North Star employment agreement and medical and dental insurance premiums for up to one year or 25% of the amount payable under his North Star employment agreement and medical and dental insurance premiums for up to six months, as the case may be. If the merger does not occur, the letter agreements between Marshall & Ilsley and the continuing executives will be void and of no further effect.

Stock Appreciation Rights Plan; Employee Stock Ownership Plan. All North Star employees participate in its Employee Stock Ownership Plan (ESOP) and its Stock Appreciation Rights (SAR) plan, subject to certain, limited plan requirements. When the ESOP and the SAR plan are terminated, as provided in the merger agreement, all plan participants will vest in the benefits they had previously been awarded under the plans.

The SAR plan is administered by the North Star board of directors, which has the authority to grant and condition rights under the plan. The grant price of awards are fixed by the board, but cannot be less than the fair market value of North Star common stock (as determined by the board) on the grant date. Upon exercise of the right, a plan participant is entitled to receive a payment equal to the product of (i) the excess of the fair market value of a share of common stock on the date of exercise over the grant price multiplied by (ii) the number of shares of common stock to which the right is exercised. The proceeds of exercise are fully taxable to the participant as compensation income. The SAR plan provides that these proceeds are payable in the form of North Star common stock, but this provision is being modified in connection with the merger to permit payment in cash. North Star's covered employees will receive the following estimated cash amounts upon the distribution of the SAR plan benefits:

Griffith	$ 144,000
Gerdes	$ 124,000
Skowronski	$ 111,000
Zubeck	$ 111,000
Edwards	$ 127,000
Hommel	$ 126,000

With respect to the ESOP, plan participants will receive a distribution in the form of Marshall & Ilsley common stock. These shares are eligible for rollover into another qualified plan, such as an IRA. North Star's covered employees will receive the following estimated number of shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock upon the distribution of the ESOP:

Griffith	7,257
Gerdes	906
Skowronski	2,746
Zubeck	2,823
Edwards	9,855
Hommel	6,274

Other Interests. After the merger, Marshall & Ilsley will succeed to North Star's pre-merger obligations with respect to indemnification or exculpation in favor of the directors, officers, employees and agents of North Star and its subsidiaries as provided in North Star's certificate of incorporation and by-laws. Messrs. Griffith and Edwards, among others, have entered into the shareholder voting agreement described below. Accordingly, they have agreed, with limited exceptions, to vote all of their North Star shares in favor of the merger agreement, the merger and all other matters required for the accomplishment of the merger. As of February 15, 2007, the officers and directors of North Star collectively owned 1,889,000 shares of North Star's common stock (26% of North Star's outstanding shares).

Reasons for the Merger and North Star Board Recommendation

North Star's board believes that the merger with Marshall & Ilsley is consistent with North Star's goal of enhancing stockholder value. In addition, the North Star board believes that the customers and communities served by North Star will benefit from the merger. In reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement, North Star's board of directors consulted with its management and its legal and financial advisors, and considered a variety of factors, including the following:

that the value of the merger consideration proposed to be paid to North Star's stockholders represented a significant premium to North Star stockholders over the value they would likely receive for their shares in the inactive North Star trading market;

that the value of the merger consideration proposed to be paid to North Star's stockholders represented an attractive premium over the value that North Star expected to achieve as an independent entity in the short- to medium-term;

that the merger consideration would be paid to North Star stockholders in common stock of Marshall & Ilsley, which would provide an opportunity to participate in any possible future earnings of the combined company;

the fact that Marshall & Ilsley common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange, providing continuing stockholders with increased access to a public market for their shares;

the benefit to North Star's customers resulting from the greater depth of trust, exchange and banking services that would become available over a broader geographic area, as well as the opportunity for future operating efficiencies as a result of a combination of North Star with Marshall & Ilsley as compared to an institution without a similar market presence; and

North Star's belief that a combination of North Star with a strong, complementary institution such as Marshall & Ilsley would better position the combined company to face increased competition in the trust and exchange services market in the Chicago area.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by North Star is not intended to be exhaustive. In reaching its determination to enter into the merger agreement, North Star did not assign any relative or specific weights to the factors listed above.

The North Star board of directors believes that the merger agreement and the merger are advisable, fair to and in the best interests of North Star and its stockholders and unanimously recommends that you deliver your consent FOR approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the merger.

Marshall & Ilsley's Reasons for the Merger

In reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement, the board of directors and executive management of Marshall & Ilsley considered a variety of factors, including the following:

The merger will allow Marshall & Ilsley to increase its market share in wealth management services in the demographically attractive Chicago metropolitan market and expand its offering of trust and exchange services;

Table of Contents

Marshall & Ilsley's belief that the merger will provide an opportunity for Marshall & Ilsley to improve North Star's operating performance and product mix, and to expand North Star's product offering;

Marshall & Ilsley's familiarity with and review of North Star's business, operations, management, markets, competitors, financial condition, earnings and prospects;

North Star's financial strength, concentration and product offerings in an attractive metropolitan area;

Marshall & Ilsley's belief that after the merger the combined company will be able to continue to generate high revenue growth rates;

The merger will allow Marshall & Ilsley to continue its strategy of geographically diversifying its revenues and earnings; and

The merger is intended to qualify as a transaction of a type that is tax-free for federal income tax purposes to Marshall & Ilsley.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by Marshall & Ilsley is not intended to be exhaustive. In reaching its determination to enter into the merger agreement, Marshall & Ilsley did not assign any relative or specific weights to the foregoing factors.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences

Subject to the assumptions and limitations discussed below and as set forth in the opinion of Godfrey & Kahn, S.C., counsel to Marshall & Ilsley, the following discussion sets forth the material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger to North Star stockholders who are U.S. Holders (as defined below) of North Star common stock. This discussion is based on the Code and the related Treasury regulations, administrative interpretations and court decisions in effect as of the date of this information statement/prospectus, all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. Any change could affect the accuracy of the statements and the conclusions discussed below and the tax consequences of the merger. This discussion does not address all issues that may be applicable to holders who acquired shares of North Star common stock pursuant to the exercise of options or otherwise as compensation. Furthermore, this discussion does not address any state, local or foreign tax considerations. We urge you to consult your own tax advisor as to the specific tax consequences of the merger, including the applicable federal, state, local and foreign tax consequences to you of the merger.

As used herein, a "U.S. Holder" means a holder of shares of North Star common stock who holds those shares as capital assets within the meaning of the Code (generally, for investment purposes) and is for U.S. federal income tax purposes (1) a citizen or resident of the United States, (2) a corporation or other entity taxable as a corporation organized under the laws of the United States or any political subdivision thereof (including the states and the District of Columbia), (3) a trust if a court within the United States is able to exercise primary jurisdiction over its administration and one or more U.S. persons have authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust, or the trust has made a valid election under the applicable U.S. Treasury regulations to be treated as a U.S. person, or (4) an estate that is subject to U.S. federal income tax regardless of its source. As used herein, a "Non-U.S. Holder" means any holder of North Star common stock who is not a U.S. Holder.

The Merger. Pursuant to the merger, each stockholder will exchange all of the shares of North Star common stock actually owned by him or her for Marshall & Ilsley common stock (with the exception of stockholders who dissent and with the exception of fractional shares, which will be exchanged for cash). No gain or loss will be recognized by a North Star stockholder for federal income tax purposes on such exchange, except for fractional share payments. The tax basis in the North Star common stock will become the tax basis in the Marshall & Ilsley common stock, and the holding period of the Marshall & Ilsley common stock will include the holding period of the North Star common stock exchanged.

If a North Star stockholder were to assert appraisal rights and receive a cash payment in exchange for his or her shares of North Star common stock, the stockholder would recognize gain equal to the excess of the cash proceeds received over the adjusted tax basis of the shares. Any recognized gain will generally be long-term capital gain if the stockholder's holding period with respect to the stock is more than one year. If, however, the cash received has the effect of the distribution of a dividend, the gain would be treated as a dividend to the extent of the stockholder's ratable share of North Star's accumulated earnings and profits. The maximum federal income tax rates on long-term capital gains from the sale of investment assets and on certain dividend payments are generally the same.

The foregoing discussion is intended only as a summary of the material federal income tax consequences of the merger. This discussion applies only to North Star stockholders that are U.S. Holders that hold their shares of North Star common stock, and will hold the shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock received in exchange for their shares of North Star common stock, as capital assets within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code. This discussion does not address all federal income tax consequences of the merger that may be relevant to particular Non-U.S. Holders and holders that are subject to special tax rules. Some examples of holders that are subject to special tax rules are:

dealers in securities;

financial institutions;

insurance companies;

holders of shares of North Star common stock as part of a position in a straddle or as part of a hedging or conversion transaction;

holders who have a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar;

holders who are foreign persons;

holders who own their shares indirectly through partnerships, trusts or other entities that may be subject to special treatment; and holders who acquired their shares of North Star common stock through stock option or stock purchase programs or otherwise as compensation.

No information is provided in this document with respect to the tax consequences, if any, of the merger under applicable state, local, foreign and other tax laws.

Cash in Lieu of Fractional Shares. A holder of North Star common stock who receives cash in lieu of a fractional share of Marshall & Ilsley common stock generally will be treated as having received such fractional share in the merger and then as having received cash in redemption of such fractional share. Gain or loss generally will be recognized based on the difference between the amount of cash received in lieu of the fractional share and the portion of the holder's aggregate tax basis in the shares of North Star common stock surrendered which is allocable to the fractional share. Such gain or loss generally will be long-term capital gain or loss if the holding period for such shares of North Star common stock is more than one year at the effective time of the merger.

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

Backup Withholding. Non-corporate holders of North Star common stock may be subject to backup withholding on cash payments received. Backup withholding will not apply, however, to a stockholder who furnishes a correct taxpayer identification number and certifies, under penalties of perjury, that it is not subject to backup withholding on a Form W-9, and otherwise complies with applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules, or is a corporation or otherwise exempt from backup withholding and, when required, demonstrates this fact.

A stockholder who fails to provide the correct taxpayer identification number on a Form W-9 may be subject to penalties imposed by the IRS. Marshall & Ilsley will provide a Form W-9 to each North Star stockholder after the effective time of the merger. Any amount withheld under these rules will be creditable against the stockholder's federal income tax liability.

Reporting Requirements. Each North Star stockholder will be required to attach a statement to its tax return for the taxable year in which the merger is completed that contains the information set forth in Section 1.368-3(b) of the U.S. Treasury regulations. The statement must include the stockholder's tax basis in the North Star common stock surrendered and a description of the Marshall & Ilsley common stock and any cash received in the merger.

Closing Condition Tax Opinion. Consummation of the merger is conditioned upon the receipt of closing tax opinion from Godfrey & Kahn, S.C., that, for federal income tax purposes, the merger will constitute a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. In addition, Godfrey & Kahn, S.C. will opine that Marshall & Ilsley, M&I Merger Corp., M&I Merger Sub, LLC and North Star will each be a party to that reorganization.

The closing tax opinion will be based on factors, assumptions and representations set forth in the closing tax opinion, including representations contained in certificates of officers of North Star and Marshall & Ilsley. All of the factors, assumptions and representations must be true and accurate in all respects as of the effective date of the registration statement and must continue to be true and accurate in all respects as of the effective time of the merger. If any of those factors, assumptions and representations are inaccurate, incomplete or untrue or any of the covenants are breached, the conclusions contained in the opinions stated herein could be affected. An opinion of counsel represents only such counsel's best legal judgment on the matters addressed in the opinion, and has no binding effect on the IRS or any court, and no assurance can be given that contrary positions may not be taken by the IRS or a court considering the issues. Neither North Star nor Marshall & Ilsley has requested or will request a ruling from the IRS with regard to any of the federal income tax consequences of the merger.

This discussion does not address tax consequences that may vary with, or are contingent on, individual circumstances. Moreover, it does not address any non-income tax or foreign, state or local tax consequences of the merger. Accordingly, we urge you to consult your own tax advisor as to the specific tax consequences to you of the merger, including the application of federal, state, local, foreign and other tax laws.

Regulatory Approvals

The merger is subject to approval by the Federal Reserve Board under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended. Marshall & Ilsley is not required to obtain regulatory approval from the Federal Reserve Board before completing the merger. However, it must file a notice with the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System describing the activities conducted by North Star.

Approvals or notices are required from or to the Division of Banking of the Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation, as well as the New York Stock Exchange and other self-regulatory organizations and may be required from or to certain other regulatory agencies. Marshall & Ilsley submitted an application to the Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation on February 13, 2007 for approval of the merger.

The merger cannot proceed in the absence of the requisite regulatory approvals. We do not know if or when all of these regulatory approvals will be obtained. Also, these approvals may contain a condition, restriction or requirement that causes these approvals to fail to satisfy the conditions for the merger.

Accounting Treatment

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

Marshall & Ilsley will account for the merger for accounting and financial reporting purposes as a purchase, as that term is used under GAAP. Under purchase accounting, the assets and liabilities of North Star as of the effective time will be recorded at their fair values and added to those of Marshall & Ilsley. Any excess of the value of Marshall & Ilsley common stock issued and cash paid for North Star common stock over the fair value of North Star's tangible and identifiable intangible net assets will be recorded as goodwill. Financial statements of Marshall & Ilsley issued after the effective time of the merger will reflect these values and will not be restated retroactively to reflect the historical financial position or results of operations of North Star.

Goodwill and certain intangible assets are not amortized. Instead, these assets are reviewed for impairment annually with any related losses recognized in earnings when incurred.

Resales of Marshall & Ilsley Common Stock

The shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock to be issued in the merger will be freely transferable under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. However, this will not be the case for shares issued to any stockholder who may be deemed to be an affiliate of North Star for purposes of Rule 145 under the Securities Act as of the date of the special meeting. Affiliates generally include directors, certain executive officers, and beneficial owners of ten percent or more of any class of capital stock. These affiliates may not sell their shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock acquired in the merger except pursuant to an effective registration statement under the securities laws or an applicable exemption from the registration requirements of the securities laws.

This information statement/prospectus does not cover resales of Marshall & Ilsley common stock received by any person who may be deemed to be an affiliate of North Star. North Star has agreed in the merger agreement to use its reasonable efforts to cause each person who may be deemed to be an affiliate of North Star to execute and deliver to Marshall & Ilsley an affiliate agreement. As provided for in these agreements, North Star's affiliates will agree not to offer to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of any of the shares of Marshall & Ilsley common stock distributed to them pursuant to the merger except in compliance with Rule 145, or in a transaction that is otherwise exempt from the registration requirements of, or in an offering which is registered under, the Securities Act. Marshall & Ilsley may place restrictive legends on certificates representing Marshall & Ilsley common stock issued to all persons who are deemed to be affiliates of North Star under Rule 145.

Appraisal Rights

Under Section 262 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the Delaware Corporate Law), any holder of North Star common stock who does not wish to accept the merger consideration may dissent from the step one merger and elect to exercise appraisal rights. A stockholder who exercises appraisal rights may ask the Delaware Court of Chancery to determine the fair value of his or her shares (exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the step one merger), and receive payment of fair value in cash, together with a fair rate of interest, if any, provided that the stockholder complies with the provisions of Section 262 of the Delaware Corporate Law.

The following discussion is a summary of the law pertaining to appraisal rights under the Delaware Corporate Law. The full text of Section 262 of the Delaware Corporate Law is attached to this information statement/prospectus as Appendix C. All references in Section 262 of the Delaware Corporate Law to a stockholder and in this summary to a stockholder are to the record holder of the shares of North Star common stock who asserts appraisal rights.

Section 262(d)(2) of the Delaware Corporate Law requires that, if a merger was approved by stockholder consent under Section 228 of the Delaware Corporate Law, as opposed to a stockholder vote at a meeting, stockholders entitled to appraisal rights will be notified either before the effective time of the merger or within 10 days thereafter of the approval of the merger, and that appraisal rights are available for any or all shares of stock held by such stockholder. A copy of Section 262 of the Delaware Corporate Law must be included with such notice. As approval of the merger agreement by North Star stockholders is being obtained by consent, this information statement/prospectus constitutes North Star's notice to its stockholders of the availability of appraisal rights in connection with the merger in compliance with the requirements of Section 262 of the Delaware Corporate Law. The applicable statutory provisions are attached to this information statement/prospectus as Appendix C. This summary of appraisal rights is not a complete summary of the law pertaining to appraisal rights under the Delaware Corporate Law and is qualified in its entirety by the text of Section 262 of the Delaware Corporate Law attached as Appendix C. Any holder of North Star common stock who wishes to exercise appraisal rights or who wishes to preserve the right to do so should review the following discussion and Appendix C carefully. Failure to comply with the procedures of Section 262 of the Delaware Corporate Law, in a timely and proper manner, will result in the loss of appraisal rights. If you lose your appraisal rights, you will be entitled to receive the merger consideration described in the merger agreement.

Stockholders wishing to exercise the right to dissent from the step one merger and seek an appraisal of their shares must do all of the following:

The stockholder must deliver to North Star a written demand for appraisal of his/her shares within 20 days after the date of mailing of this notice. Failing to consent to the merger itself does not constitute a demand for appraisal under Section 262(d)(2) of the Delaware Corporate Law.

The stockholder must not have consented to the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. A written consent to the merger will constitute a waiver of such stockholder's appraisal rights in respect of the shares so voted and will nullify any written demands for appraisal.

The stockholder must continuously hold the shares from the date of making the demand through the effective time of the step one merger. A stockholder will lose appraisal rights if the stockholder transfers the shares before the effective time of the step one merger.

The stockholder must file a petition in the Delaware Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the fair value of the shares within 120 days after the effective time of the step one merger. The surviving company is under no obligation, and has no intention, to file any such petition.

Only a holder of record of shares of North Star common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the step one merger may assert appraisal rights for the shares of stock registered in that holder's name. A demand for appraisal must be executed by or on behalf of the stockholder of record, fully and correctly, as the stockholder's name appears on the stock certificates. The demand must reasonably inform North Star of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends to demand appraisal of his or her common stock. Stockholders who hold their shares in brokerage accounts or other nominee forms, and who wish to exercise appraisal rights, should consult with their brokers to determine the appropriate procedures for the nominee holder to make a demand for appraisal of those shares. A person having a beneficial interest in shares held of record in the name of another person, such as a broker or nominee, must act promptly to cause the record holder to follow properly and in a timely manner the steps necessary to perfect appraisal rights.

A stockholder who elects to exercise appraisal rights under Section 262 of the Delaware Corporate Law should mail or deliver a written demand to North Star Financial Corporation, 500 West Madison, Suite 3150, Chicago, Illinois 60661.

A second notice regarding the effective date of the merger will be sent either (i) by Marshall & Ilsley or North Star before the effective date of the merger notifying North Star stockholders entitled to appraisal rights of the effective date of the merger or (ii) by North Star to all such holders on or within 10 days of the effective date of the merger. However, if such second notice is sent more than 20 days following the sending of the first notice, such second notice will only be sent to each stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights and who has demanded appraisal of such holder's shares in accordance with Section 262 of the Delaware Corporate Law.

Within 120 days after the effective time of the step one merger, but not later, either the surviving company or any dissenting stockholder who has complied with the requirements of Section 262 of the Delaware Corporate Law may file a petition in the Delaware Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the value of the shares of North Star common stock held by all dissenting stockholders. The surviving company is under no obligation, and has no intention, to file any such petition. Stockholders who desire to have their shares appraised should initiate any petitions necessary for the perfection of their appraisal rights within the time periods and in the manner prescribed in Section 262 of the Delaware Corporate Law.

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

Within 120 days after the effective time of the step one merger, any stockholder who has complied with the provisions of Section 262 of the Delaware Corporate Law to that point in time may receive from the surviving company, upon written request, a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger agreement and with respect to which North Star has received demands for appraisal, and the aggregate number of holders of those shares. The surviving company must mail this statement to the stockholder within 10 days of receipt of the request.

Table of Contents

If any party files a petition for appraisal in a timely manner, the Delaware Court of Chancery will determine which stockholders are entitled to appraisal rights and may require the stockholders demanding appraisal who hold certificated shares to submit their stock certificates to the court for notation of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings and any stockholder who fails to comply with such direction may be dismissed from such proceedings. If the stockholder fails to comply with the court's direction, the court may dismiss the proceeding as to such stockholder. The Delaware Court of Chancery will thereafter determine the fair value of the shares of North Star common stock held by dissenting stockholders, exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the step one merger, but together with a fair rate of interest, if any, to be paid on the amount determined to be fair value.

In determining the fair value, the Delaware Court of Chancery will take into account all relevant factors. The Delaware Supreme Court has stated that proof of value by any techniques or methods that are generally considered acceptable in the financial community and otherwise admissible in court should be considered in the appraisal proceedings. In addition, Delaware courts have decided that the statutory appraisal remedy, in cases of unfair dealing, may or may not be a dissenter's exclusive remedy. The Delaware Court of Chancery may determine the fair value to be more than, less than or equal to the consideration that the dissenting stockholder would otherwise receive under the merger agreement. If no party files a petition for appraisal in a timely manner, then stockholders will lose the right to an appraisal, and will instead receive the merger consideration described in the merger agreement.

The Delaware Court of Chancery will determine the costs of the appraisal proceeding and will allocate those costs to the parties as the Delaware Court of Chancery determines to be equitable under the circumstances. Upon application of a stockholder, the Delaware Court of Chancery may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including reasonable attorneys fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all shares entitled to appraisal.

Stockholders should be aware that the fair value of their shares as determined under Section 262 of the Delaware Corporate Law could be greater than, the same as, or less than the merger consideration. A fairness opinion of an investment banking firm does not in any manner address fair value under Section 262 of the Delaware Corporate Law.

Any stockholder who has duly demanded an appraisal in compliance with Section 262 of the Delaware Corporate Law may not, after the effective time of the step one merger, vote the shares subject to the demand for any purpose or receive any dividends or other distributions on those shares (except dividends or other distributions payable to holders of record of shares as of a record date prior to the effective time of the step one merger).

Any stockholder may withdraw a demand for appraisal and accept the merger consideration by delivering to the surviving company a written withdrawal of the demand for appraisal, except that (1) any attempt to withdraw made more than 60 days after the effective time of the step one merger will require written approval of the surviving company, and (2) no appraisal proceeding in the Delaware Court of Chancery will be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the Delaware Court of Chancery, and may be conditioned on such terms as the Delaware Court of Chancery deems just. If the stockholder fails to perfect, successfully withdraws or loses the appraisal right, the stockholder's shares will be converted into the right to receive the merger consideration.

Failure to follow the steps required by Section 262 of the Delaware Corporate Law for perfecting appraisal rights may result in the loss of appraisal rights in which event you will be entitled to receive the consideration with respect to your dissenting shares in accordance with the merger agreement. In view of the complexity of the provisions of Section 262 of the Delaware Corporate Law, if you are a North Star stockholder and are considering exercising your appraisal rights under the Delaware Corporate Law, you should consult your own legal advisor.

TERMS OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following is a summary of various provisions of the merger agreement. When we use the term merger agreement in this document, we are referring collectively to the agreement and plan of merger and reorganization and amendments thereto, copies of which are included in this document as Appendix A. The merger agreement is incorporated by reference into this document. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the merger agreement. You are encouraged to read the merger agreement carefully and in its entirety because it, and not this summary, is the legal document that governs the merger.

The text of the merger agreement has been included to provide you with information regarding its terms. The terms of the merger agreement (such as the representations and warranties) are intended to govern the contractual rights and relationships, and allocate risks, between the parties in relation to the merger. The merger agreement contains representations and warranties that Marshall & Ilsley and North Star made to each other. These representations and warranties were made as of specific dates, and the assertions embodied in those representations and warranties are qualified by information in confidential disclosure schedules that Marshall & Ilsley and North Star have exchanged in connection with the signing of the merger agreement. NORTH STAR FINANCIAL CORPORATION

Description of Business

North Star Financial Corporation was incorporated in Delaware on March 29, 2001, and was organized to become a holding company for the principal operating units of the North Star business, each of which became housed in a separate subsidiary of North Star through a reorganization that was completed on or around July 1, 2001. These subsidiaries were North Star Trust Company, which holds the personal trust services unit, and North Star Deferred Exchange Corp., the real estate services unit. A third unit, North Star Investment Advisors, LLC, was also brought under the holding company structure at this time, but was later dissolved because of ongoing losses.

Together, the North Star companies provide a variety of wealth management services, including personal, land and other trusts; Internal Revenue Code Section 1031 tax deferred exchanges for real and personal property; and Employee Stock Ownership Plan (ESOP) services, including consultative services relating to the transfer of small-business stock ownership. As of January 12, 2007, North Star and its subsidiaries had $1.6 billion in assets under administration.

North Star Trust Company operates as a private, independent trust company under Illinois law. It provides trust and estate administration services and benefit plan administration services.

North Star Deferred Exchange Corp. executes Section 1031 tax deferred exchanges, reverse tax deferred exchanges and build-to-suit exchanges as a qualified intermediary or as an exchange accommodation title holder. Deferred Exchange Corp. wholly owns North Star Realty Services, LLC and North Star Realty Investors, Inc. North Star Realty Services acts as the parking or warehousing intermediary for property involved in Section 1031 reverse tax deferred exchanges or build-to-suit exchanges. North Star Realty Investors is a licensed real estate broker in Illinois and receives commissions for the referral of Section 1031 clients to new real estate investments.

North Star's revenues primarily come from fees for administering trusts and estates, benefit plans, and deferred exchanges. North Star's principal expenses are general administrative and operating expenses.

North Star's operations are influenced primarily by general economic conditions and by related monetary and fiscal policies of financial institution regulatory agencies. Its costs of funds are influenced by interest rates on competing investments and general market rates of interest.

North Star's business lines face competition from a variety of sources. Many large national, regional and local banks offer personal and land trust services similar to those offered by North Star. The real estate services unit faces competition from a number of companies that specialize in facilitating tax-free exchange transactions, some of which are part of much larger financial institutions with greater resources than North Star has. Recently, the real estate services unit has also faced pricing pressure from a large number of smaller firms entering this market. The ESOP and fiduciary services unit faces competition from other trust companies and independent practitioners offering similar services.

North Star's management believes that the company has developed business strategies for each of its business lines that effectively deal with the realities in the markets in which such business lines operate. These strategies include aggressive pricing, development by North Star's professionals of a national reputation for expertise and providing services to demographic segments of the market that are not being effectively served by North Star's competition.

COMPARATIVE RIGHTS OF SHAREHOLDERS

The rights of North Star stockholders are currently governed by the Delaware General Corporation Law (the Delaware Corporate Law), North Star's amended and restated certificate of incorporation and North Star's bylaws. At the effective time of the merger, North Star stockholders will become Marshall & Ilsley shareholders and their rights will be determined by the Wisconsin Business Corporation Law (the Wisconsin Corporate Law), Marshall & Ilsley's restated articles of incorporation and Marshall & Ilsley's by-laws. The following is a summary of the material differences between the rights of North Star stockholders and the rights of Marshall & Ilsley shareholders. It is not a complete statement of the provisions affecting and the differences between the rights of North Star's stockholders and those of Marshall & Ilsley's shareholders. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Delaware Corporate Law, Wisconsin Corporate Law, North Star's amended and restated certificate of incorporation and bylaws, and Marshall & Ilsley's restated articles of incorporation and by-laws.

Size of Board of Directors

North Star

Under the Delaware Corporate Law, the board of directors of a Delaware corporation must consist of one or more natural persons, with the number fixed by, or in the manner provided in, the certificate of incorporation or bylaws. North Star's bylaws provide for the board of directors to consist of not less than two and not more than nine directors. There are currently 6 directors on North Star's board.

Marshall & Ilsley

Marshall & Ilsley's articles of incorporation provide that the number of directors constituting the board of directors shall be fixed by a majority vote of the board of directors, but shall not be less than three. By resolution of Marshall & Ilsley's board of directors, there are currently 18 members on Marshall & Ilsley's board.

Cumulative Voting

Cumulative voting entitles each holder of shares of stock to cast an aggregate number of votes equal to the number of voting shares held, multiplied by the number of directors to be elected. Each holder of shares of stock may cast all of his or her votes for one nominee or distribute them among two or more nominees. The candidates, up to the number of directors to be elected, receiving the highest number of votes are elected.

North Star

Under the Delaware Corporate Law, cumulative voting in the election of directors is not mandatory, and for cumulative voting to be effective it must be expressly provided for in the certificate of incorporation. North Star's certificate of incorporation does not provide for cumulative voting.

Marshall & Ilsley

Under the Wisconsin Corporate Law, shareholders do not have the right to cumulate their votes for directors, unless the articles of incorporation provide for cumulative voting. Marshall & Ilsley's articles of incorporation do not provide for cumulative voting.

Class of Directors

North Star

Under the Delaware Corporate Law, pursuant to a Delaware corporation's certificate of incorporation, an initial bylaw or a bylaw adopted by the stockholders, a classified board of directors with staggered terms can be created. A maximum of three classes of directors is allowed with expiring terms in one-year intervals. There is no statutory requirement as to the number of directors in each class or that the number in each class be equal. North Star does not have a classified board of directors.

Marshall & Ilsley

The Wisconsin Corporate Law provides that directors of a Wisconsin corporation may be divided into two or three classes if provided by the articles of incorporation. Marshall & Ilsley's board of directors is divided into three classes and each director serves for a three-year term or until his or her successor is elected and qualified.

Marshall & Ilsley's board of directors has adopted resolutions, subject to approval of a proposal by Marshall & Ilsley's shareholders at its 2007 Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held on April 24, 2007, to amend Marshall & Ilsley's articles of incorporation to eliminate classification of the board. If the proposed amendment is approved by Marshall & Ilsley's shareholders, following a transition period, all directors standing for election would be elected for one-year terms. If the proposed amendment is not approved by the shareholders, Marshall & Ilsley's board will retain its current classified structure.

Qualifications of Directors

North Star

Under the Delaware Corporate Law, a director is not required to be a resident of Delaware or a stockholder of the corporation, and other qualifications of directors may be prescribed in the certificate of incorporation or bylaws. North Star's certificate of incorporation and bylaws do not provide for qualifications of directors.

Marshall & Ilsley

Under the Wisconsin Corporate Law, a director is not required to be a resident of the state of Wisconsin or a shareholder of the corporation. Marshall & Ilsley's by-laws provide that Marshall & Ilsley directors do not need to be residents of Wisconsin or Marshall & Ilsley shareholders, but that no person is eligible for election to the board after the age of 72, unless this limitation is waived by the board.

In connection with the proposed amendment to Marshall & Ilsley's articles of incorporation to eliminate classification of Marshall & Ilsley's board, Marshall & Ilsley's board adopted, subject to the approval of the proposed amendment by its shareholders at its 2007 Annual Meeting, a waiver of the age limitation on directors such that directors in office on the date of the 2007 Annual Meeting will continue to be eligible to be elected a director for any year in which such directors would have been eligible to serve had the board remained classified.

Filling Vacancies on the Board

North Star

Under the Delaware Corporate Law, unless the certificate of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, the board of directors may fill any vacancy on the board of directors, including newly created directorships resulting from an increase in the number of directors. North Star's bylaws provide that vacancies may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office though less than a quorum, and each director so chosen shall hold office until his successor is qualified and elected or until his earlier death, resignation or removal.

Marshall & Ilsley

The Wisconsin Corporate Law provides that unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, if a vacancy occurs on the board of directors it may be filled by any of the following: (i) the shareholders; (ii) the board of directors; or (iii) if the directors remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the board, the directors, by an affirmative vote of the majority of all directors remaining in office. If the vacant office was held by a director elected by a voting group of shareholders, only the holders of shares of that voting group are entitled to vote to fill the vacancy if it is filled by shareholders. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs, but the new director may not take office until that vacancy occurs. Marshall & Ilsley's by-laws provide that any vacancy in the board for whatever reason, may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors though less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director, for the remaining term of directors of the class to which he has been elected and until his successor shall be elected and shall qualify.

Table of Contents

In connection with the proposed amendment to Marshall & Ilsley's articles of incorporation to eliminate classification of Marshall & Ilsley's board, Marshall & Ilsley's board adopted, subject to the approval of the proposed amendment by its shareholders at its 2007 Annual Meeting, an amendment to Marshall & Ilsley's by-laws to provide that any director elected to fill a vacancy on the board, including a vacancy created by an increase in the number of directors, will hold office until the next Annual Meeting of Shareholders and until his or her successor is elected.

Removal of Directors

North Star

The Delaware Corporate Law provides that directors may be removed, with or without cause, by the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote on their election. North Star's bylaws provide that any director, or the entire board of directors, may be removed from office at any time, with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of all the outstanding shares of capital stock of North Star, voting together as a single class.

Marshall & Ilsley

The Wisconsin Corporate Law provides that shareholders of a corporation may remove a director with or without cause, unless the corporation's articles of incorporation or by-laws provide that a director may only be removed for cause. Marshall & Ilsley's articles of incorporation provide that a director may only be removed for cause and by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the outstanding shares entitled to vote at a meeting of shareholders called for such purpose. Cause means solely malfeasance arising from the performance of a director's duties which has a material adverse effect on Marshall & Ilsley's business.

Nomination of Directors for Election

North Star

Under the Delaware Corporate Law, a company may place reasonable notice, time and place restrictions on stockholder nominations of directors. No procedure is set forth in North Star's certificate of incorporation or bylaws for the nomination of directors for election.

Marshall & Ilsley

Marshall & Ilsley's by-laws provide that if a shareholder wishes to nominate a person for election as a director, then the shareholder must give timely notice of the nomination to Marshall & Ilsley. In order to be timely, a notice must be received by Marshall & Ilsley not less than 90 days before the anniversary date of the annual meeting of shareholders in the immediately preceding year. Notices given by shareholders must be in writing and contain information regarding the nominee to the board of directors, the shareholder bringing the nomination and other information specified in Marshall & Ilsley's by-laws.

Election of Directors

North Star

North Star's bylaws provide that directors are elected at the annual meeting of stockholders. The by-laws also provide that at all meetings of stockholders, when a quorum is present or represented at any meeting, the vote of the holders of a majority of the stock having voting power present in person or represented by proxy shall decide any question brought before such meeting unless specified by law or the certificate of incorporation.

Marshall & Ilsley

Marshall & Ilsley's by-laws provide that directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast by the shares entitled to vote in the election at a meeting at which a quorum is present. In accordance with Marshall & Ilsley's Corporate Governance Guidelines, any nominee for director in an uncontested election who receives a greater number of votes withheld from his or her election than votes for such election is required to promptly tender his or her resignation offer to the Chairman of the Board. Marshall & Ilsley's Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will promptly consider the tendered resignation offer and recommend to the Board whether to accept or reject it. The Board will act on the committee's recommendation no later than 90 days following the tender of the director's resignation offer, and will disclose its decision (providing a full explanation of the process by which the decision was reached and, if applicable, the reasons for rejecting the tendered resignation offer) within four business days following such decision.

Anti-Takeover Provisions

North Star

Business combination subchapter. The Delaware Corporate Law generally prohibits a Delaware corporation from engaging in any business combination with any interested stockholder for a period of three years following the time that the stockholder became an interested stockholder unless:

before that time, the board of directors of the corporation approved either the business combination or the transaction which resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder;

upon completion of the transaction which resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder, the interested stockholder owned at least 85% of the voting stock of the corporation outstanding at the time the transaction commenced, excluding for purposes of determining the voting stock outstanding (but not the outstanding voting stock owned by the interested stockholder) those shares owned by persons who are

The Wisconsin Corporate Law protects domestic corporations from hostile takeovers and abusive takeover tactics by preventing a person from engaging in specified transactions with the corporation or from taking specific actions after that person has acquired a significant portion of the corporation's shares. These protections fall into three categories:

the business combination statute, which regulates specified types of transactions with interested shareholders;

the fair price statute, which regulates the price at which large shareholders may acquire the remaining shares of the corporation; and the control share statute, which regulates the voting power of shares held by specified large shareholders.

directors and also officers and by employee stock plans in which employee participants do not have the right to determine confidentially whether shares held subject to the plan will be tendered in a tender or exchange offer; or at or after that time, the business combination is approved by the board of directors and authorized at an annual or special meeting of stockholders, and not by written consent, by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the outstanding voting stock that is not owned by the interested stockholder.

The Delaware Corporate Law generally defines business combination as:

any merger or consolidation of the corporation with the interested stockholder;

any sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer or other disposition of 10% or more of the assets of the corporation involving the interested stockholder;

subject to specified exceptions, any transaction that results in the issuance or transfer by the corporation of any stock of the corporation to the interested stockholder;

any transaction involving the corporation that increases the proportionate share of the stock of any class or series of the corporation owned by the interested stockholder; or any receipt by the interested stockholder of the benefit of any loans, advances, guarantees, pledges or other financial benefits provided by or through the corporation.

Generally, the Delaware Corporate Law defines an interested stockholder as any entity or person owning 15% or more of the outstanding voting stock of the corporation or any entity or person affiliated with or controlling or controlled by that entity or person.

The following section summarizes each of these statutes.

Business combination statute. The Wisconsin Corporate Law prohibits business combinations between some Wisconsin corporations, including Marshall & Ilsley, and a person who is an interested shareholder. This prohibition lasts for three years after the date on which that person became an interested shareholder. Business combinations include mergers, share exchanges, sales of assets, liquidations, dissolutions, and specified types of stock transactions and stock issuances. An interested shareholder is a person who owns at least 10 percent of the voting power of the corporation's outstanding shares or who is an affiliate or associate of the corporation and owned at least 10 percent of the voting power of the corporation's then outstanding shares at any time within the prior three-year period. The prohibition on business combinations does not apply if the corporation's board of directors approves either the business combination or the share acquisition that caused the person to be designated as an interested shareholder. The board of directors' approval must be given before the date on which a person becomes an interested shareholder. The prohibition on business combinations continues after the initial three-year period unless:

the corporation's board of directors approved the share acquisition that caused the interested shareholder to be designated as an interested shareholder;

a majority of the corporation's shareholders, excluding the interested shareholder, approve the business combination;

the interested shareholder pays a fair price, as defined in the Wisconsin Corporate Law, for the shares it acquires in the business combination; or the business combination is specifically excluded from the prohibition on business combinations by the Wisconsin Corporate Law.

The business combination statutes do not apply to the merger, because the merger is not a business combination with an interested shareholder within the meaning of the business combination statute.

Fair price subchapter. The Delaware Corporate Law does not have a fair price statute.

Control share acquisition subchapter. The Delaware Corporate Law does not have a control share acquisition statute.

Table of Contents

Fair price statute. The Wisconsin Corporate Law requires that business combinations between some Wisconsin corporations, including Marshall & Ilsley, and a person designated as a significant shareholder must be approved by 80 percent of all of the corporation's shareholders and two-thirds of all of the corporation's shareholders other than the significant shareholder. This requirement does not apply if the corporation's shareholders receive a fair price, as defined in the statute, for their shares from the significant shareholder in the business combination. A significant shareholder is a person who owns, directly or indirectly, 10 percent or more of the voting power of the corporation's outstanding shares or who is an affiliate of the corporation and owned, directly or indirectly, at least 10 percent of the voting power of the corporation's then outstanding shares at any time within the prior two-year period.

The fair price statute does not apply to the merger, because the merger is not a business combination with a significant shareholder within the meaning of the fair price statute.

Control share statute. Under the Wisconsin Corporate Law, unless otherwise provided in a resident corporation's securities or upon exercise of options or warrants, then the voting power of the shares held by that person in excess of 20 percent of the voting power in the election of directors is reduced to 10 percent of the voting power the excess shares would otherwise have had. The full voting power of the excess shares may be restored by a vote of a majority of the corporation's shares. The person seeking restoration of full voting power may vote on this resolution.

In addition to any other approvals required by law and by the articles of incorporation and by-laws, Marshall & Ilsley's articles of incorporation require that business combinations between Marshall & Ilsley and an interested shareholder be approved by:

the holders of 80 percent of Marshall & Ilsley's shares entitled to vote in the election of directors; or the holders of two-thirds of Marshall & Ilsley's shares, other than the interested shareholder.

This requirement does not apply if a business combination with an interested shareholder is approved by a majority of disinterested directors or the shareholders receive a fair price, as defined in the articles of incorporation, for their shares and certain other conditions are satisfied. Business combinations under Marshall & Ilsley's articles of incorporation generally include: mergers; consolidations; any sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer or other disposition of $25,000,000 or more in assets; the issuance or transfer of $25,000,000 or more in securities; liquidations, dissolutions, and reclassifications, recapitalizations and other transactions that have the effect of increasing the proportionate ownership interest of an interested shareholder. An interested shareholder is a person who owns at least 10 percent of Marshall & Ilsley's shares or who is an affiliate or associate of Marshall & Ilsley and owned at least 10 percent of Marshall & Ilsley's shares at any time within the prior two-year period. A disinterested director means a director who is not affiliated with the interested shareholder and who was either a director before the person became an interested shareholder or was elected or recommended for election by a majority of disinterested directors.

Attendance and Voting. The Wisconsin Corporate Law provides that shareholders entitled to vote at a meeting may attend and vote at the meeting in person or by proxy. The Wisconsin Corporate Law provides that unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, each outstanding share, regardless of class, is entitled to one vote on each matter voted on at a shareholder's meeting. A shareholder may appoint a proxy in writing or by transmitting or authorizing the transmission of an electronic transmission of the appointment including over the internet or by telephone, fax or telegram. Each share of Marshall & Ilsley common stock is entitled to one vote. Marshall & Ilsley's articles of incorporation entitle the board of directors to fix the terms of voting rights for each holder of preferred stock. Marshall & Ilsley's by-laws provide that a shareholder may appoint a proxy to vote or otherwise act for the shareholder (i) by signing an appointment form by any reasonable means, including by facsimile signature, (ii) by transmitting, or authorizing the transmission of, an electronic transmission of appointment, or (iii) by any other means permitted by the Wisconsin Corporate Law.

North Star

Unless prohibited by the certificate of incorporation, the Delaware Corporate Law provides that stockholders may take action by written consent in lieu of a stockholders' meeting if signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would have been required to approve such action. North Star's bylaws provide that any action required to be taken at a meeting of stockholders, or any other action which may be taken at a meeting of stockholders, may be taken without a meeting if a consent or consents in writing is signed by a majority of stockholders entitled to vote with respect to the matter.

Marshall & Ilsley

Under the Wisconsin Corporate Law, action required or permitted to be taken at a stockholders' meeting may be taken without a meeting: (i) without action by the board of directors, by all stockholders entitled to vote on the action; or (ii) if the articles of incorporation so provide, by stockholders who would be entitled to vote at a meeting those shares with voting power to cast not less than the minimum number or, in the case of voting by voting groups, numbers of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take the action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote were present and voted. Marshall & Ilsley's articles of incorporation do not provide for shareholder action without a meeting except by unanimous consent.

Shareholder Vote Required for Mergers

North Star

The Delaware Corporate Law generally requires that a merger or consolidation or sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of a corporation's property and assets be approved by the directors and by a majority of the outstanding stock entitled to vote thereon. Under the Delaware Corporate Law, a surviving corporation need not obtain stockholder approval for a merger if:

Each share of the surviving corporation's stock outstanding prior to the merger remains outstanding in identical form after the merger;

The merger agreement does not amend the certificate of incorporation of the surviving corporation; or

Either no shares of common stock of the surviving corporation are to be issued or delivered in the merger, or, if common stock will be issued or delivered, it will not increase the number of shares of common stock outstanding prior to the merger by more than 20%.

Under North Star's bylaws, when a quorum exists at any meeting, the vote of the holders of a majority of stock having voting power present in person or represented by proxy shall decide any question brought

Marshall & Ilsley

The Wisconsin Corporate Law provides that a merger to which a Wisconsin corporation is a party must be approved by the directors and by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote on the merger and the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of each class or series entitled to vote separately on the merger, if any. Approval of a plan of merger by the shareholders of the surviving corporation is not required if:

the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation will not differ, except for limited changes;

the number of shares and the rights and preferences of the shares held by the surviving corporation's shareholders prior to the merger will not change immediately after the merger; and the number of voting shares of stock of the surviving corporation outstanding immediately after the merger plus the number of voting shares issuable as a result of the merger will not exceed by more than 20 percent the total number of voting shares before such meeting, unless the question is one upon which, by express provision of law or of the certificate of incorporation, a different vote is required.

of stock of the surviving corporation outstanding immediately before the merger.

Approval of this merger would, therefore, require the consent by the holders, in aggregate, of at least 3,599,605 common equivalent shares of North Star stock as of the record date.

Because each of the requirements above is met, the approval of the merger by the shareholders of Marshall & Ilsley is not required.

Dividends

North Star

Marshall & Ilsley

The Delaware Corporate Law allows the board of directors to authorize a corporation to declare and pay dividends and other distributions to its stockholders, subject to any restrictions contained in the certificate of incorporation, either out of surplus, or, if there is no surplus, out of net profits for the current or preceding fiscal year in which the dividend is declared. However, a distribution out of net profits is not permitted if a corporation's capital is less than the amount of capital represented by the issued and outstanding stock of all classes having a preference upon the distribution of assets, until the deficiency has been repaired.

Under the Wisconsin Corporate Law, distributions are paid at the discretion of the board of directors of a Wisconsin corporation. The board may authorize, and the corporation may make, distributions to its shareholders, including in connection with the repurchase of the corporation's shares, in amounts determined by the board, unless:

after the distribution the corporation would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business; or the corporation's total assets after the distribution would be less than the sum of its total liabilities, plus, unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, the amount that would be needed to satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution of shareholders whose preferential rights are superior to those receiving the distribution, if the corporation were to be dissolved at the time of distribution.

Dissenters Rights

North Star

Marshall & Ilsley

Under the Delaware Corporate Law, stockholders have appraisal rights in connection with mergers and consolidations, provided the stockholder complies with certain procedural requirements of the Delaware Corporate Law. However, this right to demand appraisal does not apply for shares of any class or series of stock, which stock at the record date fixed to determine the stockholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the meeting of stockholders to act upon the agreement of merger or consolidation, if:

Under the Wisconsin Corporate Law, a shareholder may dissent from, and obtain payment of the fair value of his or her shares in the event of specified mergers, share exchanges and transactions involving the sale of all or substantially all of the corporation's property other than in the usual and regular course of business. However, dissenters' rights generally are not available to holders of shares, such as Marshall & Ilsley shares, that are registered on a national securities exchange or quoted on the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. Automated Quotations System, unless the corporation's articles of incorporation provide otherwise. Because Marshall & Ilsley shareholders they are shares of the surviving corporation and a vote of the stockholders of such corporation was not necessary to authorize the Marshall & Ilsley's articles of incorporation and bylaws do not provide for dissenters' rights other than those rights designated by the Wisconsin Corporate Law.

the shares are held of record by more than 2,000 stockholders.

Notwithstanding the above, appraisal rights are available for the shares of any class or series of stock if the holders are required by the terms of an agreement of merger or consolidation to accept for their stock anything except:

shares of stock of the corporation surviving or resulting from the merger or consolidation;

shares of stock of any other corporation which, at the effective date of the merger or consolidation, will be listed on a national securities exchange, designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers or held of record by more than 2,000 stockholders;

cash in lieu of fractional shares of the corporations described in either of the above; or any combination of the shares of stock and cash in lieu of fractional shares described in any of the three above.

A Delaware corporation may provide in its certificate of incorporation that appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of any class or series of its stock as the result of an amendment to its certificate of incorporation, any merger or consolidation to which the corporation is a party, or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation. North Star's certificate of incorporation and bylaws do not address appraisal rights; provided, however, the stockholders of North Star have appraisal rights pursuant to Delaware Corporate Law.

Shareholder Preemptive Rights

North Star

Marshall & Ilsley

The Delaware Corporate Law provides that no stockholder shall have any preemptive rights to purchase additional securities of the corporation

Under the Wisconsin Corporate Law, subject to specified limitations, holders of shares of a class authorized before 1991 have acquire a corporation's unissued shares or other securities convertible into unissued shares, unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise. Marshall & Ilsley's articles of incorporation provide that no holder of its capital stock has or will have any preemptive rights.

Shareholder Class Voting Rights

North Star

Marshall & Ilsley

The Delaware Corporate Law provides that unless otherwise provided in a corporation's certificate of incorporation, each stockholder is entitled to one vote for each share of capital stock held by such stockholder.

Under Sections 180.1004 and 180.1103 of the Wisconsin Corporate Law, holders of a particular class of shares are entitled to vote as a separate class if the rights of that class are affected in various respects by mergers, consolidations or amendments to the articles of incorporation. Under Section 180.1003 of the Wisconsin Corporate Law, the presence or absence of dissenters' rights for a voting group affects the right of that group to vote on amendments to a corporation's articles of incorporation. If a voting group would have dissenters' rights as a result of the amendment, then a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by that voting group is required for adoption of the amendment.

Indemnification

North Star

Marshall & Ilsley

The Delaware Corporate Law classifies indemnification as either mandatory indemnification or permissive indemnification. A Delaware corporation is required to indemnify an agent against expenses actually and reasonably incurred in an action that the agent successfully defended on the merits or otherwise.

The Wisconsin Corporate Law requires a corporation to indemnify a director or officer to the extent that he or she has been successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of a proceeding for all reasonable expenses that he or she incurred in the proceeding if the director or officer was a party because he or she is or was a director or officer of the corporation. Indemnification is also required in other instances, unless liability was incurred because the director or officer breached or failed to perform a duty that he or she owes to the corporation, and the breach or failure to perform constitutes any of the following:

Under the Delaware Corporate Law, in non-derivative third-party proceedings, a corporation may indemnify any agent who is or is threatened to be made a party to the proceeding against expenses, judgments and settlements actually and reasonably incurred in connection with a civil proceeding, provided such person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and, in the case of a criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct was unlawful. Further, in actions brought on behalf of the corporation, any agent who is or is threatened to be made a party can be indemnified for expenses actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of the action if the person

a willful failure to deal fairly with the corporation or its shareholders in connection with a matter in which the director or officer has a material conflict of interest;

a violation of criminal law, unless the director or officer had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was lawful or no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful acted in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation; however, indemnification is not permitted with respect to any claims in which such person has been adjudged liable to the corporation unless the appropriate court determines such person is entitled to indemnity for expenses.

Any permissive indemnification of a present or former director, officer, employee or agent, unless ordered by a court, shall be made by the corporation upon a determination by: (i) a majority vote of the disinterested directors even though less than a quorum; (ii) a committee of disinterested directors, designated by a majority vote of such directors even though less than a quorum; (iii) independent legal counsel in a written opinion; or (iv) the stockholders. The statutory rights regarding indemnification are non-exclusive; consequently, a corporation can indemnify a litigant in circumstances not defined by the Delaware Corporate Law under any bylaw, agreement or otherwise.

North Star's bylaws provide that North Star shall indemnify a director or officer to the fullest extent permitted by law so long as such director or officer acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of North Star; and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, if such, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

a transaction from which the director or officer derived an improper personal benefit; or willful misconduct.

The Wisconsin Corporate Law allows a corporation to limit its obligation to indemnify directors and officers, but Marshall & Ilsley's articles of incorporation do not limit Marshall & Ilsley's obligation to indemnify its directors and officers. A corporation may provide directors and officers additional rights to indemnification, except for conduct described above, under any of the following: (i) the articles of incorporation or by-laws; (ii) a written agreement between the director or officer and the corporation; (iii) by a resolution adopted by the board of directors; or (iv) by a resolution that is adopted, after notice, by a majority vote of all of the corporation's voting shares then issued and outstanding.

Marshall & Ilsley's by-laws provide for indemnification of its directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted by law and set forth procedural requirements for requesting indemnification. Marshall & Ilsley's by-laws provide that an individual shall be indemnified unless it is proven by a final judicial adjudication that indemnification is prohibited. The Wisconsin Corporate Law provides that reasonable expenses incurred by a director or officer who is a party to a proceeding may be paid or reimbursed by a corporation at such time as the director or officer furnishes to the corporation a written affirmation of his or her good faith belief that he or she has not breached or failed to perform his or her duties to the corporation and a written undertaking to repay any amounts advanced if it is determined that indemnification by the corporation is not required.

Limitations on Directors' Liability

North Star

Under the Delaware Corporate Law, a Delaware corporation's certificate of incorporation may eliminate director liability for all acts except: (i) an act or omission not in good faith or that involves intentional misconduct or knowing violation of the law; (ii) a breach of the duty of loyalty; (iii) improper personal benefits; or (iv) certain unlawful distributions.

Marshall & Ilsley

Under the Wisconsin Corporate Law, a director is not liable to the corporation, its shareholders or any person asserting rights on behalf of the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages or other monetary liabilities arising from a breach of or failure to perform any duty resulting solely from his or her status as a director, unless the person asserting liability proves that the breach or failure to perform constitutes:

a willful failure to deal fairly with the corporation or its shareholders in connection with a matter in which the director has a material conflict of interest;

a violation of criminal law, unless the director had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was lawful or no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful;

a transaction from which the director derived an improper personal profit; or willful misconduct.

Under the Wisconsin Corporate Law, a director or officer, in discharging his or her duties to the corporation and determining what he or she believes is in the best interests of the corporation, may, in addition to considering the effects of any action on shareholders, consider:

the effects of the action on employees, suppliers and customers of the corporation;

the effects of the action on the communities in which the corporation operates; and any other factors that the director or officer considers pertinent.

Amendment of Certificate or Articles of Incorporation

North Star

Marshall & Ilsley

Under the Delaware Corporate Law, under the following circumstances, a class of stockholders has the right to vote separately on an amendment to a Delaware corporation's certificate of incorporation even if the certificate does not include such a right: (i) increasing or decreasing the aggregate number of authorized shares of the class (the right to a class vote under

Under the Wisconsin Corporate Law, the board of directors of a corporation may propose amendments to a corporation's articles of incorporation and may establish conditions for the submission of the amendment to the shareholders. Under most circumstances, the Wisconsin Corporate Law provides that amendments to a this circumstance may be eliminated by a provision in the certificate of incorporation); (ii) increasing or decreasing the par value of the shares of the class; or (iii) changing the powers, preferences, or special rights of the shares of the class in a way that would affect them adversely. Approval by outstanding shares entitled to vote is also required. Further, a separate series vote is not required unless a series is adversely affected by an amendment in a manner different from other shares in the same class. Under the Delaware Corporate Law, a corporation's articles of incorporation must be approved by both the board of directors of the corporation and its shareholders. However, any amendment to the articles of incorporation of a corporation organized before January 1, 1973 which did not expressly elect before January 1, 1991 to be governed by a majority or greater voting requirement must be approved by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the shares entitled to vote at a meeting called for that purpose. Marshall & Ilsley's articles of incorporation were not corporation's certificate of incorporation also may require, for action by the board of directors or by the holders of any class or series of voting securities, the vote of a greater number or proportion than is required by the Delaware Corporate Law, and the provision of the certificate of incorporation requiring such greater vote may also provide that such provision cannot be altered, amended or repealed except by such greater vote. North Star's certificate of incorporation provides that any of the provisions of the certificate of incorporation may be amended, altered or repealed at any time in accordance with the law.

amended prior to January 1, 1991 to reduce the vote required to amend its articles of incorporation.

Amendment of By-Laws

North Star

Under the Delaware Corporate Law, stockholders entitled to vote have the power to adopt, amend or repeal bylaws. In addition, a corporation may, in its certificate of incorporation, confer such power upon the board of directors. However, the stockholders always retain the power to adopt, amend or repeal the bylaws, even though the board of directors may also be delegated such power. North Star's certificate of incorporation authorizes the board of directors to alter, amend or repeal the bylaws. The bylaws state that the powers conferred on the board of directors to alter, amend or repeal the bylaws shall not divest the stockholders of the same powers.

Marshall & Ilsley

Under the Wisconsin Corporate Law, the board of directors or the shareholders of a corporation may adopt, amend or repeal the by-laws, except to the extent that the articles of incorporation reserve that power to the shareholders or the shareholders provide in adopting, amending or repealing a particular by-law, that the board of directors may not amend, repeal or readopt that by-law or the shareholders set specific voting requirements for the board of directors to amend, repeal or readopt that by-law. Marshall & Ilsley's articles of incorporation and by-laws provide that the by-laws may be amended, altered or repealed, and new by-laws may be enacted, only by the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of the outstanding shares entitled to vote, or by a vote of not less than three-quarters of the board of directors. Marshall & Ilsley's by-laws further provide that no by-law adopted, amended or repealed by the shareholders shall thereafter be enacted, amended or repealed by the directors unless such action by the shareholders shall expressly confer upon the directors' authority to thereafter enact, amend or repeal such by-law as so amended. Marshall & Ilsley's by-laws also provide that any by-law adopted, repealed, or amended by the board of directors shall be subject to reenactment, repeal or amendment by the shareholders acting at any meeting of the shareholders in accordance with the by-laws.

Shareholder's Inspection Rights

North Star

Under the Delaware Corporate Law, every stockholder of record has the right to inspect, upon

Under the Wisconsin Corporate Law, each shareholder of record and his or her agent or attorney written demand under oath stating the stockholder's purpose for inspection, in person or by agent or attorney, the corporation's stock ledger, stockholder list, its other books and records and, subject to certain restrictions, the books and records of a subsidiary of the corporation.

may, on written demand, inspect and copy for a proper purpose the list of shareholders prepared for a meeting. The list must be arranged by class or series of shares and must show the address of, and the number of shares owned by, each shareholder of record. Inspections must be conducted during regular business hours at the shareholder's expense. This right of inspection begins two business days after notice of the shareholders' meeting is given and continues through the meeting.

Both shareholders of record and beneficial shareholders of a Wisconsin corporation who satisfy specified requirements, and their attorneys and agents, have the right to inspect and copy the corporation's by-laws and, subject to the requirements discussed below, minutes of meetings and consent actions of the board of directors and shareholders, records of actions taken by a committee on behalf of the corporation, accounting records and the record of shareholders. Inspections must be conducted during regular business hours and are conducted at the shareholder's expense.

Notice of a demand must be given five business days before the date on which the shareholder wants to inspect and copy the records. For records other than the by-laws, the demand must be made in good faith and for proper purpose, and the person must have been a shareholder for at least six months or hold at least five percent of the outstanding shares of the corporation.

A Wisconsin corporation is also required to mail a copy of its latest financial statements to any shareholder who requests a copy in writing.

Issuance of New Shares

North Star

Under the Delaware Corporate Law, the division of stock into classes and into series within any class, the determination of the designation and the number of shares of any class or series and the determination of the voting rights, preferences, limitations and special rights, if any, of the shares of any class or series of a corporation may be accomplished by the original certificate of incorporation or by any amendment thereof.

Marshall & Ilsley

Under the Wisconsin Corporate Law, a corporation may, by action of its board of directors, issue up to the number of shares of a class or series authorized in the corporation's articles of incorporation. If a corporation wishes to increase the number of shares of a class or series authorized in its articles of incorporation, then it must amend its articles of incorporation in the manner described above.

The listing requirements of the NYSE applicable to Marshall & Ilsley require prior shareholder approval of specified issuances of shares, including issuances of shares bearing voting power equal to or exceeding 20 percent of the pre-issuance outstanding voting power or pre-issuance outstanding number of shares. These requirements do not apply to the issuance of Marshall & Ilsley common stock pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement because the shares to be issued do not exceed 20 percent of Marshall & Ilsley's outstanding shares of common stock.

Personal Liability of Shareholders

North Star

Under the Delaware Corporate Law, stockholders of a Delaware corporation will not be liable for the corporation's debts or obligations.

Marshall & Ilsley

Under the Wisconsin Corporate Law, shareholders of a Wisconsin corporation generally are not personally liable for the acts or debts of the corporation. Under former section 180.0622(2)(b) of the Wisconsin Corporate Law, shareholders of a Wisconsin corporation could be assessed up to the par value of their shares to satisfy the obligations of the corporation to its employees for services rendered, but not exceeding six months' service in the case of any individual employee. Certain Wisconsin courts interpreted "par value" to mean the full amount paid by the purchaser of shares upon issuance thereof. Pursuant to 2005 Wisconsin Act 474, Section 180.0622(2)(b) of the Wisconsin Corporate Law was repealed effective June 14, 2006 and is not applicable to obligations incurred by a Wisconsin corporation on or after such date.

(a) The closing of the Step One Merger and the transactions contemplated hereby (the Closing) shall be held at such time, date and location as may be mutually agreed by the parties. In the absence of such agreement, the Closing shall occur as soon as reasonably practical, but in no event later than two (2) business days, following the satisfaction or waiver of the latest to occur of the conditions set forth in Article VII, at the offices of Godfrey & Kahn, S.C., 780 North Water Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, commencing at 9:00 a.m. Central Time, or at such other date, time and location as the parties hereto agree to in writing.

(b) As promptly as practicable after the date of the Closing, the parties hereto shall cause the Step One Merger to be consummated by filing a certificate of merger (the Certificate of Merger) and any other required documents with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware (the Delaware Secretary of State) and the Department of Financial Institutions of the State of Wisconsin (DFI), in such form as required by, and executed in accordance with the relevant provisions of, Delaware Law and Wisconsin Law. The Step One Merger will become effective at such time as the Certificate of Merger is filed with the Delaware Secretary of State and DFI, or at such later time as the M&I, Merger Corp., Merger Sub and the Company, agree and specify in the Certificate of Merger (the date and time the Step One Merger becomes effective is referred to herein as the Effective Time) (but in no event will the Step Two Effective Time occur prior to the Effective Time).

At the Step Two Merger Effective Time, the officers of Merger Sub immediately prior to the Step Two Merger Effective Time shall be the initial officers of the Surviving Company, in each case until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed.

(f) Treatment of Capital Stock In Step Two Merger. Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, at the Step Two Merger Effective Time, automatically by virtue of the Step Two Merger and without any action on the part of any shareholder: (i) each membership interest of Merger Sub outstanding immediately prior to the Step Two Merger shall be unchanged and shall remain issued and outstanding; and (ii) each share of Interim Surviving Corporation common stock issued and outstanding prior to the Step Two Merger Effective Time shall be cancelled without consideration and shall cease to be an issued and outstanding share of Interim Surviving Corporation common stock.

SECTION 1.07. Conversion of Securities. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Mergers and without any action on the part of M&I, Merger Corp., Merger Sub, the Company, or the holders of any of the following securities:

(a) Each share of Series A Preferred will be converted into six shares of Common Stock. Each share of Series B Preferred will receive the liquidation preference to which it is entitled, which may be paid in either cash on hand in the Company at closing or by M&I Common Stock. Each share of the common stock $0.01 par value, of the Company (Company Common Stock) (all issued and outstanding shares of the Company Common Stock being hereinafter collectively referred to as the Shares) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than any Dissenting Shares (as defined in Section 1.07(f)) shall be canceled and extinguished and be converted into and become a right to receive $2.89 per share (the Merger Consideration), to be paid in the manner provided in Section 1.07(c) below.

M&I, Merger Corp., Merger Sub or the Company shall be canceled and extinguished and no payment shall be made with respect thereto.

(c) The Merger Consideration of $2.89 per share of Company Common Stock shall be paid with shares of $1.00 par value common stock of M&I (M&I Common Stock), for an aggregate purchase price of twenty-one million dollars ($21,000,000.00). Each shareholder of the Company will be entitled to exchange for each share of his or her Company Common Stock for the number of shares of M&I Common Stock equal to $2.89 divided by the Daily Average Price, which is equal to the average closing price per share of M&I Common Stock on the New York Stock Exchange (the NYSE) for the thirty (30) calendar days ending on and including the calendar day immediately preceding the Effective Time (as reported in an authoritative source).

(d) No fractional shares of M&I Common Stock and no certificates or scrip certificates therefore shall be issued to represent any such fractional interest, and any holder thereof shall be paid an amount pursuant to Section 1.08(e) hereof.

(e) The parties acknowledge and agree to the following: One of the Company's shareholders is the North Star Trust Company Employee Stock Ownership Plan (the ESOP). The Shares held by the ESOP (the ESOP Shares) were acquired with the proceeds of loans from the Company to the ESOP (the ESOP Loans). Section 6-1 of the ESOP provides for the ESOP Shares to be allocated to a Suspense Account and to be released from the Suspense Account and allocated to the accounts of the ESOP participants over the term of the ESOP Loans. Section 7-12 of the ESOP provides that if the Trustee of the ESOP shall sell any of the ESOP Shares that are allocated to the Suspense Account (the Suspense Account Shares), the proceeds from that sale are to be allocated, first, toward repayment of the ESOP Loans, with the balance allocated to the Other Investments Accounts of the ESOP participants. In order to comply with the provisions of Section 7-12 of the ESOP, the ESOP Trustee shall pay off the ESOP Loans immediately after the completion of the exchange by the ESOP Trustee of the Suspense Account Shares for shares of M&I Common Stock. The ESOP Trustee shall pay off the ESOP Loans by transferring to M&I the cash proceeds received from the sale of that number of shares of M&I Common Stock with a value equal to the sum of the outstanding principal balance of the ESOP Loans plus all accrued interest on the ESOP Loans. Upon receipt of this payment, M&I shall deliver to the ESOP Trustee the note evidencing the ESOP Loans.

(f) Each Share which shall be issued and outstanding as of the Effective Time and held by a shareholder who has validly perfected dissenter's rights in accordance with Delaware Law, shall not be converted into or represent a right to receive the Merger Consideration pursuant to this Section 1.07 (all such Shares are hereinafter called Dissenting Shares). The Company shall give M&I prompt notice upon receipt by the Company of any written notice from any such shareholder of the Company (Dissenting Shareholder). The Company agrees that prior to the Effective Time, it will not, except with prior written consent of M&I, voluntarily make any payment with respect to, or settle or offer to settle, any request for withdrawal pursuant to the exercise of dissenter's rights. Each Dissenting Shareholder who becomes entitled, pursuant to the provisions of applicable law, to payment for his or her Shares shall receive payment therefore from M&I (but only after the amount thereof shall be agreed upon or finally determined pursuant to the provisions of applicable law). If any Dissenting Shareholder shall fail to perfect or shall effectively withdraw or lose his or her right to receive the value of his or her Shares, his or her Shares shall be thereupon be deemed to have been canceled as of the Effective Time and converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration in accordance with the provisions of this Section 1.07.

(g) The parties acknowledge that, no later than the Effective Time, the Company will terminate its stock appreciation rights plan and will pay to the participants therein the amounts they are entitled to receive under the terms of the plan assuming a fair market value for each share of Company Common Stock equal to the amount of consideration to be received in the Merger for a share of Company Common Stock. All payments in connection with the termination shall be made in cash, and shall only be made to the extent a participant would be vested under the plan immediately after the Effective Time.

SECTION 1.08. Exchange of Certificates.

(a) Exchange Agent. As of the Effective Time, M&I shall deposit, or shall cause to be deposited, with Illinois Stock Transfer Company (the Exchange Agent), and such deposit shall be solely for the benefit of the holders of Company Common Stock, for exchange in accordance with this Article I through the Exchange Agent, the aggregate Merger Consideration consisting of certificates representing the shares of M&I Common Stock (such certificates for shares of M&I Common Stock, together with any dividends or distributions with respect thereto, being hereinafter referred to as the Exchange Fund) issuable or payable, as the case may be, pursuant to Section 1.07 in exchange for outstanding shares of Company Common Stock.

(b) Exchange Procedures. As soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time, the Exchange Agent shall mail or personally deliver to each holder of record (or his or her attorney-in-fact) of a certificate or certificates which immediately prior to the Effective Time represented outstanding Shares (the Certificates), whose Shares were converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration pursuant to Section 1.07 and cash in lieu of fractional shares (if any), (i) a letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon delivery of the Certificates to the Exchange Agent and shall be in such form and have such other provisions as M&I may reasonably specify) and (ii) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates in exchange for the applicable amount and form of Merger Consideration. Upon surrender of a Certificate for cancellation to the Exchange Agent, together with such letter of transmittal, duly executed, the holder of such Certificate shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefore the applicable amount of the Merger Consideration which such holder has the right to receive in respect of the Certificate surrendered pursuant to the provisions of this Article I (after taking into account all Shares then held by such holder) and cash in lieu of fractional shares (if any), and the Certificate so surrendered shall forthwith be canceled. In the event of a transfer of ownership of Shares which is not registered in the transfer records of the Company, a certificate representing the proper Merger Consideration may be delivered (or cash may be paid in lieu of fractional shares, if applicable), to a transferee if the Certificate representing such shares is presented to the Exchange Agent, accompanied by all documents required to evidence and effect such transfer and by evidence that any applicable stock transfer taxes have been paid. Certificates surrendered for exchange by any affiliate of the Company shall not be exchanged for the Merger Consideration until M&I has received a written agreement from such person as provided in Section 4.04 hereof. Until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 1.08, each Certificate shall be deemed at any time after the Effective Time to represent only the right to receive upon such surrender the applicable amount of the Merger Consideration and cash in lieu of any fractional shares of M&I Common Stock as contemplated by Section 1.08(e).

(c) Distributions with Respect to Unexchanged Shares. No dividends or other distributions declared or made after the Effective Time with respect to M&I Common Stock with a record date after the Effective Time shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Certificate with respect to the shares of M&I Common Stock represented thereby, and no cash payment in lieu of fractional shares shall be paid to any such holder pursuant to Section 1.08(e), until the holder of such Certificate shall surrender such Certificate. Subject to the effect of applicable laws, following surrender of any such Certificate, there shall be paid to the holder of the certificates representing whole shares of M&I Common Stock issued in exchange therefore, without interest, (i) promptly, the amount of any cash payable with respect to a fractional share of M&I Common Stock to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 1.08(e) and the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time theretofore paid with respect to such whole shares of M&I Common Stock, and (ii) at the appropriate payment date, the amount of dividends or other distributions, with a record date after the Effective Time but prior to surrender and a payment date occurring after surrender, payable with respect to such whole shares of M&I Common Stock.

(d) No Further Rights in the Shares. All shares of M&I Common Stock issued and cash paid, as the case may be, upon conversion of the Shares in accordance with the terms hereof (including any cash paid pursuant to Section 1.08(e)) shall be deemed to have been issued or paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to such Shares.

(e) No Fractional Shares. No certificates or scrip representing fractional shares of M&I Common Stock shall be issued upon the surrender for exchange of Certificates, and such fractional share interest will not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any rights of a shareholder of M&I. Each holder of a fractional share interest shall be paid an amount in cash equal to the product obtained by multiplying such fractional share interest to which such holder (after taking into account all fractional share interests then held by such holder) would otherwise be entitled by the Merger Consideration.

(f) Termination of Exchange Fund. Any portion of the Exchange Fund which remains undistributed to the shareholders of the Company for six (6) months after the Effective Time shall be delivered to M&I, upon demand, and any shareholders of the Company who have not theretofore complied with this Article I shall thereafter look only to M&I for payment of their claim to the applicable amount and form of the Merger Consideration, any cash in lieu of fractional shares of M&I Common Stock and any dividends or distributions with respect to M&I Common Stock.

(g) Liability. Neither M&I, Merger Corp. nor the Company shall be liable to any holder of Shares for any such shares (or dividends or distributions with respect thereto) or cash delivered to a public official pursuant to any abandoned property, escheat or similar law.

(h) Withholding Rights. M&I shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from any cash consideration payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of Shares such amounts as M&I is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code, or any provision of state, local or foreign tax law. To the extent that amounts are so withheld by M&I, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of the Shares in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made by M&I.

SECTION 1.09. Stock Transfer Books. At the Effective Time, the stock transfer books of the Company shall be closed and there shall be no further registration of transfers of Shares thereafter on the records of the Company. From and after the Effective Time, the holders of certificates evidencing ownership of Shares outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall cease to have any rights with respect to such Shares except as otherwise provided herein or by law. On or after the Effective Time, any Certificates presented to the Exchange Agent or M&I for any reason shall be converted into shares of M&I Common Stock or cash, as the case may be, in accordance with this Article I.

ARTICLE II

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE COMPANY

For purposes of any representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or statement of the Company or the Subsidiaries in this Agreement, the term Company and Subsidiaries or Company or Subsidiaries shall mean the Company and the Subsidiaries. Except as expressly set forth in the Disclosure Schedule attached hereto (the "Company Disclosure Schedule"), the Company hereby represents and warrants to M&I, Merger Corp. and Merger Sub as of the date of this Agreement, that:

SECTION 2.01. Organization and Qualification of the Company; Subsidiaries. The Company is a corporation duly organized and validly existing under the laws of the State of Delaware. Each of the Subsidiaries is a state-chartered trust company, association, corporation, limited liability company, limited partnership, charitable foundation or trust duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the state of its incorporation or organization. The Company and the Subsidiaries have the requisite corporate power and authority and are in possession of all franchises, grants, authorizations, licenses, permits, easements, consents, certificates, approvals and orders ("Approvals") necessary to own, lease and operate their respective properties and to carry on their business as it is now being conducted (including, without limitation, appropriate authorizations from the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (the "NASD") and the Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation, except where the failure to be so organized, existing and in good standing or to have such power, authority and Approvals would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect (as defined below) on the Company and the Subsidiaries, taken as a whole. The term "Material Adverse Effect" as used in this Agreement shall mean any change or effect that, individually or in the aggregate, is or is reasonably likely to be materially adverse to a party's business, operations, properties (including intangible properties), condition (financial or otherwise), assets or liabilities (including contingent liabilities) except to the extent caused by an act of terrorism or events that affect the entire national economy or the financial services industry as a whole. Neither the Company nor the Subsidiaries have received notice of proceedings relating to the revocation or modification of any Approvals. The Company and the Subsidiaries are duly qualified or licensed as foreign corporations to do business, and are in good standing, in each jurisdiction where the character of their properties owned, leased or operated by them or the nature of their activities makes such qualification or licensing necessary, except for such failures to be so duly qualified or licensed and in good standing that would not, either individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company and the Subsidiaries, taken as a whole. In addition to the Subsidiaries, the Company holds interests, either directly or indirectly, in other entities, all of which are duly organized and validly existing under the laws of their respective state of organization and each of which has the requisite corporate power and authority and is in possession of all Approvals necessary to own, lease and operate its property and to carry on its business as is now being conducted.

SECTION 2.02. Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws. The Company and the Subsidiaries have heretofore furnished to M&I a complete and correct copy of the Certificate of Incorporation and the Bylaws, as amended or restated, of each entity and such Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws are in full force and effect and none of the entities is in violation of any of the provisions of its Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws.

SECTION 2.03. Capitalization. The authorized capital stock of the Company consists of 12,800,000 shares of Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share; Series A Preferred Stock, par value $0.01 per share, 1,200,000 shares authorized ("Series A Preferred"); and Series B Preferred, par value $0.01 per share, 325,000 shares authorized ("Series B Preferred"). As of the date of this Agreement, (i) 5,997,909 shares of the Company's Common Stock, 200,000 shares of the Company's Series A Preferred Stock, and 55,155 shares of the Company's Series B Preferred Stock are issued and outstanding, all of which are validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable (except as provided by Delaware Law), and all of which common and preferred shares have been issued in compliance with applicable securities laws; and (ii) no shares of the Company's Common Stock are held in the Company's treasury. Upon conversion of the Series A and Series B Preferred Stock, a total of 7,253,064 shares of the Company's Common Stock shall be outstanding. Except as set forth in the Company's Disclosure Schedule at Section 2.03(a), as of the date of this Agreement, there are no options, warrants or other rights, agreements, arrangements or commitments of any character relating to the issued or unissued capital stock of the Company or the Subsidiaries or obligating the Company to issue or sell any shares of capital stock of, or other equity interests in the Company or the Subsidiaries. There are no obligations, contingent or otherwise, of the Company to repurchase, redeem or otherwise acquire any shares of the Company's Common Stock or the unissued capital stock of any Subsidiary or to provide funds to or make any investment (in the form of a loan, capital contribution or otherwise) in any other entity. No shares of the Company's Common Stock were issued in violation of any preemptive rights. Each of the outstanding shares of capital stock or other equity interests in each of the Subsidiaries are duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable, and were not issued in violation of any preemptive rights applicable to any Subsidiary and such shares or other equity interests owned by the Company or any Subsidiary are owned free and clear of all security interests, liens, claims, pledges, agreements, limitations of the Company's voting rights, charges or other encumbrances of any nature whatsoever.

SECTION 2.04. Authority. The Company has the requisite corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement, to perform its obligations hereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Company and the consummation by the Company of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly and validly authorized by all necessary corporate action and no other corporate proceedings on the part of the Company are necessary to authorize this Agreement or to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby (other than, with respect to the Merger, the approval and adoption of this Agreement by (i) the Board of Directors and (ii) the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Company's Common Stock in accordance with Delaware Law and the Company's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws). This Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by the Company and, assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery by M&I, Merger Corp. and Merger Sub constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Company enforceable in accordance with its terms.

SECTION 2.05. No Conflict; Required Filings and Consents.

(a) The execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Company does not, and the performance of this Agreement by the Company shall not, (i) conflict with or violate the Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws of the Company and the Subsidiaries, (ii) conflict with or violate any domestic (Federal, state or local) law, statute, ordinance, rule, regulation, order, judgment or decree (collectively, "Laws") applicable to the Company and the Subsidiaries, or by which their respective properties are bound or affected, or (iii) result in any breach of or constitute a default (or an event that with notice or lapse of time or both would become a default) under, or give to others any rights of termination, amendment, acceleration or cancellation of, or result in the creation of a lien or encumbrance on any of the properties or assets of the Company and the Subsidiaries pursuant to, or require the giving of any notice to a party to or third party beneficiary of, any note, bond, mortgage, indenture, contract, agreement, lease, license, permit, franchise or other instrument or obligation to which the Company and the Subsidiaries is a party or by which the Company and the Subsidiaries or its or any of their respective properties are bound or affected, except for any such breaches, defaults or other occurrences that would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company and the Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

(b) Except as disclosed in the Company's Disclosure Schedule at Section 2.05(b), the execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Company does not, and the performance of this Agreement by the Company shall not, require any consent, approval, authorization or permit of, or filing with or notification to, any governmental or regulatory authority, domestic or foreign, except (i) for applicable requirements, if any, of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), and the Securities Exchange of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), state securities or blue sky laws ("Blue Sky Laws"), the Division of Banking of the Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation ("Trust Company Laws"), regulations and rules promulgated by the NASD, the state and Federal banking laws and regulations, and the filing and recordation of appropriate merger or other documents as required by Delaware Law and Wisconsin Law and (ii) where the failure to obtain such consents, approvals, authorizations or permits, or to make such filings or notifications, would not prevent or delay consummation of the Merger, or otherwise prevent the Company from performing its obligations under this Agreement, and would not have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company and the Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, all of the foregoing being disclosed in the Company's Disclosure Schedule at Section 2.05(b).

SECTION 2.07. Regulatory Reports and Financial Statements.

(a) The Company and the Subsidiaries have timely filed all forms, reports and other documents required to be filed with the Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation and any other applicable federal or state securities or banking authorities (all such reports and statements are collectively referred to as the Company Reports). (d) To the extent applicable, the Company, and to the knowledge of the Company, each of its officers and directors are in compliance with and have complied in all material respects with the applicable provisions of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, as amended (Sarbanes-Oxley), and any related rules and regulations promulgated by the SEC thereunder.

For purposes of this agreement, a significant deficiency in controls means a control deficiency that adversely affects an entity's ability to initiate, authorize, record, process, or report external financial data reliably in accordance with GAAP. A significant deficiency may be a single deficiency or a combination of deficiencies that results in more than a remote likelihood that a misstatement of the annual or interim financial statements that is more than inconsequential will not be prevented or detected. For purposes of this Agreement, a material weakness in controls means a significant deficiency, or a combination of significant deficiencies, that results in more than a remote likelihood that a material misstatement of the annual or interim financial statements will not be prevented or detected.

(f) Except as disclosed on Section 2.07(f) of the Company's Disclosure Schedule, there are no outstanding loans made by the Company or any of the Subsidiaries to any executive officer or director of the Company.

(g) Except (i) for those liabilities that are fully reflected or reserved against on the consolidated balance sheets of the Company as of September 30, 2006, (ii) for liabilities incurred in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice since September 30, 2006 and (iii) as set forth in Section 2.07(g) of the Company's Disclosure Schedule, neither the Company nor any of the Subsidiaries has incurred any liability of any nature whatsoever (whether absolute, accrued, contingent or otherwise due or to become due), required to be disclosed on a balance sheet prepared in accordance with GAAP, that, either alone or when combined with all similar liabilities, has had, or would reasonably be expected to have, a Material Adverse Effect on the Company or the Subsidiaries taken as a whole.

(h) The Company has not been notified by its independent registered public accounting firm that such accounting firm is of the view that any financial statement included in any registration statement or report filed by the Company under any Federal or state securities law should be restated, or that the Company should modify its accounting in future periods in a manner that would have, or would be reasonably expected to have, a Material Adverse Effect on the Company or the Subsidiaries taken as a whole.

(i) Since January 1, 2006, neither the Company nor the Subsidiaries nor, to the Company's knowledge, any director, officer, employee, auditor, accountant or representative of the Company or the Subsidiaries, has received or otherwise had or obtained knowledge of any complaint, allegation, assertion or claim, whether written or oral, regarding the accounting or auditing practices, procedures, methodologies or methods of the Company or the Subsidiaries or their respective internal accounting controls, including any complaint, allegation, assertion or claim that the Company or the Subsidiaries has engaged in questionable accounting or auditing practices. To the Company's knowledge, no attorney representing the Company or the Subsidiaries, whether or not employed by the Company or the Subsidiaries, has reported evidence of a material violation of securities laws, breach of fiduciary duty or similar violation by the Company or any of its officers, directors, employees or agents to the Company's Board of Directors or any committee thereof or to any director or officer of the Company. Since January 1, 2006, there have been no internal investigations regarding accounting or revenue recognition discussed with, reviewed by or initiated at the direction of the chief executive officer, chief financial officer, general counsel or the Company's Board of Directors or any committee thereof.

Except as disclosed in the Financial Statements or in the Company's Disclosure Schedules pursuant to this Agreement, since December 31, 2005, to the date of this Agreement, the Company and the Subsidiaries have conducted their businesses only in the ordinary course and in a manner consistent with past practice and, since December 31, 2005, there has not been (a) any change in the financial condition, results of operations or business of the Company or the Subsidiaries having a Material Adverse Effect on the Company or the Subsidiaries taken as a whole, (b) any damage, destruction or loss (whether or not covered by insurance) with respect to any assets of the Company or the Subsidiaries having a Material Adverse Effect on the Company or the Subsidiaries taken as a whole, (c) any change by the Company or the Subsidiaries in their accounting methods, principles or practices, except for compliance with applicable new SECTION 2.09. Absence of Litigation.

(b) The Company is not aware of, has not been advised of, and has no reason to believe that any facts or circumstances exist, which would cause it or any of the Subsidiaries to be deemed (i) to be operating in violation of any material respect of the Bank Secrecy Act, as amended, the USA PATRIOT ACT of 2001 and the regulations promulgated thereunder, as amended (the Patriot Act), any order issued with respect to anti-money laundering by the U.S. Department of the Treasury's Office of Foreign Assets Control, or any other applicable anti-money laundering statute, rule or regulation; or (ii) not to be in satisfactory compliance in any material respect with the applicable privacy, data protection, security breach notification and customer information requirements contained in any Laws including, without limitation, in Title V of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act of 1999 and the Fair Credit Reporting Act and the regulations, promulgated thereunder, as well as the provisions of the information security program adopted pursuant to 12 Code of Federal Regulations Part 40. The Company is not aware of any facts or circumstances which would cause it to believe that any non-public customer information has been disclosed to or accessed by an unauthorized third party in a manner which would cause it or any of the Subsidiaries to undertake any material remedial action or be subject to any applicable data breach notification Laws. The Company's Board of Directors (or where appropriate the board of any of the Subsidiaries) has adopted and implemented an anti-money laundering program that contains adequate and appropriate customer identification verification procedures that comply with Section 326 of the Patriot Act and such anti-money laundering program meets the requirements in all material respects of Section 352 of the Patriot Act and the regulations thereunder, and it (or such other of the Subsidiaries) has complied in all material respects with any requirements to file reports and other necessary documents as required by the Patriot Act and the regulations thereunder.

SECTION 2.13. Title to Property. The Company Disclosure Schedule at Section 2.13 correctly identifies all real property leased by the Company and the Subsidiaries. Neither the Company nor its Subsidiaries owns any real property. The Company and the Subsidiaries each has good and defensible title to all of their personal properties and assets, tangible and intangible, free and clear of all mortgage liens, and free and clear of all other liens, charges and encumbrances except liens for taxes not yet due and payable and such minor imperfections of title, if any, as to not materially detract from the value of or interfere with the present use of the property affected thereby or which, individually or in the aggregate, would not have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company or the Subsidiaries, taken as a whole; and all leases pursuant to which the Company or the Subsidiaries leases from others real or personal property including, without limitation, leases for branch offices are in good standing, valid and effective in accordance with their respective terms, and there is not, under any of such leases, any existing material default or event of default (or event which with notice or lapse of time, or both, would constitute a material default and in respect of which the Company or the Subsidiaries has not taken adequate steps to prevent such a default from occurring). The Company's and the Subsidiaries' buildings and equipment in regular use have been reasonably maintained and are in good and serviceable condition, reasonable wear and tear excepted. To the Company's knowledge, none of the buildings, structures or appurtenances owned or leased by the Company or the Subsidiaries for their operation or maintenance as now operated or maintained, contravenes any zoning ordinances or other administrative regulations (whether or not permitted because of prior non-conforming use) or violates any restrictive covenant or any provision of law, the effect of which would materially interfere with or prevent the continued use of such properties for the purposes for which they are now being used or would materially and adversely affect the value thereof.

SECTION 2.14. Compliance with Environmental Laws.

(a) The term Company's Property shall mean any real property and improvements currently owned, leased, used, operated or occupied by the Company or the Subsidiaries;

(b) The term Environmental Claims shall mean any and all administrative, regulatory or judicial actions, suits, demands, demand letters, claims, liens, notices of noncompliance or violation, investigations or proceedings relating in any way to any Environmental Law or Environmental Permit;

(c) The term Environmental Laws shall mean all Federal, state and local laws including statutes, regulations and other governmental restrictions and requirements relating to the discharge of air pollutants, water pollutants or process wastewater or the disposal of solid or hazardous waste or otherwise relating to the environment or hazardous substances or employee health and safety.

(e) The term Hazardous Substances shall mean all hazardous and toxic substances, wastes and materials; any pollutants or contaminants (including, without limitation, petroleum products, asbestos and raw materials which include hazardous constituents); and any other similar substances or materials which are regulated under Environmental Laws.

(f) The Environmental Permits (if any) are in full force and effect and, to the Company's knowledge, constitute all permits, licenses, approvals and consents relating to Environmental Laws or Hazardous Substances required for the conduct of the Company's and the Subsidiaries' businesses and the use of the Company's Property (as presently conducted and used) is in compliance with Environmental Laws.

Edgar Filing: MARSHALL & ILSLEY CORP/WI/ - Form S-4/A

(g) The Company and the Subsidiaries have filed all reports, returns and other filings required to be filed with respect to the Company's Property under Environmental Laws and the Environmental Permits except where the failure to do so would not have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company's or Subsidiaries' businesses or financial condition, taken as a whole.

(h) Except as set forth in the Company's Disclosure Schedule at Section 2.14(h), to the Company's knowledge, the business of the Company and the Subsidiaries and the Company's Property have been and are being operated by the Company and the Subsidiaries in accordance with all Environmental Laws and Environmental Permits and neither the Company nor the Subsidiaries has received any written notice nor does the Company or the Subsidiaries have knowledge that the Company's Property is not in material compliance with all Environmental Laws and Environmental Permits and no proceeding for the suspension, revocation or cancellation of any Environmental Permit is pending or, to the Company's knowledge, threatened.

(i) Except as set forth in the Company's Disclosure Schedule at Section 2.14(i), there are no actions pending, or to the Company's knowledge, threatened against the Company or any of the Subsidiaries (naming the Company or the Subsidiaries), which in any case assert or allege (i) the Company or the Subsidiaries (naming the Company or the Subsidiaries) violated any Environmental Law or Environmental Permit or are in default with respect to any Environmental Permit or any order, writ, judgment, variance, award or decree of any government authority; (ii) the Company or the Subsidiaries is required to clean up or take remedial or other response action due to the disposal, discharge or other release of any Hazardous Substance on the Company's Property or elsewhere; or (iii) the Company or the Subsidiaries is required to contribute to the cost of any past, present or future cleanup or remedial or other response action which arises out of or is related to the disposal, discharge or other release of any Hazardous Substance by the Company, the Subsidiaries or others. The Company, the Subsidiaries, and the Company's Property are not subject to any judgment, stipulation, order, decree or agreement arising under Environmental Laws.

(j) Except as set forth in the Company's Disclosure Schedule at Section 2.14(j), with respect to the period during which the Company or the Subsidiaries occupied the Company's Property (i) no Hazardous Substances have been treated, recycled or disposed of by the Company or the Subsidiaries (intentionally or unintentionally) on, under or at the Company's Property; (ii) there has been no release or threatened release by the Company or the Subsidiaries of any Hazardous Substance from the Company's Property; (iii) to the Company's knowledge, there have been no activities on the Company's or the Subsidiaries Property which would subject M&I, its subsidiaries, or any subsequent occupier of the Company's Property to damages, penalties, injunctive relief or cleanup costs under any Environmental Laws or common law theory of liability.

SECTION 2.15. Absence of Agreements. Neither the Company nor the Subsidiaries is a party to any written agreement or memorandum of understanding with, or a party to any commitment letter or similar undertaking to, or is subject to any order or directive by, or is a recipient of any extraordinary supervisory letter which restricts materially the conduct of its business (including any contract containing covenants which limit the ability of the Company or the Subsidiaries to compete in any line of business or with any person or which involve any restriction of the geographical area in which, or method by which, the Company or the Subsidiaries may carry on its business), or in any manner relates to its capital adequacy, its credit policies or its management nor has the Company or the Subsidiaries been advised that any Federal, state or governmental agency is contemplating issuing or requesting (or is considering the appropriateness of issuing or requesting) any such order, decree, agreement, memorandum of understanding, extraordinary supervisory letter, commitment letter or similar submission.

SECTION 2.16. Taxes. The Company and the Subsidiaries have timely filed all Tax Returns (as defined below) required to be filed by them, and the Company and the Subsidiaries have timely paid and discharged all Taxes (as defined below) due in connection with or with respect to the filing of such Tax Returns and have timely paid all other Taxes as are due, except such as are being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings and with respect to which the Company is maintaining reserves adequate for their payment. To the best knowledge of the Company, the liability for Taxes set forth on each such Tax Return adequately reflects the Taxes required to be reflected on such Tax Return. For purposes of this Agreement, Tax or Taxes shall mean taxes, charges, fees, levies, and other governmental assessments and impositions of any kind, payable to any Federal, state, local or foreign governmental entity or taxing authority or agency, including, without limitation, (a) income, franchise, profits, gross receipts, estimated, ad valorem, value added, sales, use, service, real or personal property, capital stock, license, payroll, withholding, disability, employment, social security, workers compensation, unemployment compensation, utility, severance, production, excise, stamp, occupation, premiums, windfall profits, transfer and gains taxes, (b) customs, duties, imposts, charges, levies or other similar assessments of any kind, and (c) interest, penalties and additions to tax imposed with respect thereto, and Tax Returns shall mean returns, reports, and information statements with respect to Taxes required to be filed with the United States Internal Revenue Service (the IRS) or any other governmental entity or taxing authority or agency, domestic or foreign, including, without limitation, consolidated, combined and unitary tax returns. Neither the IRS nor any other governmental entity or taxing authority or agency is now asserting, either through audits, administrative proceedings, court proceedings or otherwise, or, to the best of the Company's knowledge, threatening to assert against the Company or the Subsidiaries any deficiency or claim for additional Taxes. Neither the Company nor the Subsidiaries has granted any waiver of any statute of limitation with respect to, or any extension of a period for the assessment of any Tax. There are no Tax liens on any assets of the Company or the Subsidiaries. Neither the Company nor the Subsidiaries has received a ruling or entered into an agreement with the IRS or any other governmental entity or taxing authority or agency that would have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company or the Subsidiaries taken as a whole, after the Effective Time. The accruals and reserves for Taxes reflected in the Company's Balance Sheet are adequate to cover all Taxes accruable by the Company and the Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis through the date thereof (including Taxes being contested) in accordance with GAAP. Except as may be set forth in the Company's Disclosure Schedule at Section 2.16, no agreements relating to allocating or sharing of Taxes exist between the Company and the Subsidiaries.

SECTION 2.17. Insurance. Complete and correct copies of all material policies of fire, product or other liability, workers compensation and other similar forms of insurance owned or held by the Company and the Subsidiaries have been delivered to M&I. Subject to expirations and renewals of insurance policies in the ordinary course of business, all such policies are in full force and effect, all premiums with respect thereto covering all periods up to and including the date as of which this representation is being made have been paid (other than retrospective premiums which may be payable with respect to workers compensation insurance policies), and no notice of cancellation or termination has been received with respect to any such policy. Such policies are and shall remain valid, outstanding and enforceable policies, and will not be terminated prior to the Effective Time. To the best knowledge of the Company, the insurance policies to which the Company or the Subsidiaries are parties are sufficient for compliance with all material requirements of law and all material agreements to which the Company or the Subsidiaries are parties and will be maintained by the Company and the Subsidiaries until the Effective Time. Neither the Company nor the Subsidiaries has been refused any insurance with respect to any material assets or operations, nor has coverage been limited in any respect material to their operations by any insurance carrier to which they have applied for any such insurance or with which they have carried insurance during the last five (5) years.

SECTION 2.23. Accounting and Tax Matters.

(a) To the knowledge of the Company, neither the Company nor the Subsidiaries has through the date of this Agreement taken or agreed to take any action that would prevent M&I from accounting for the business combination to be effected by the Mergers as a purchase transaction or would prevent the Merger from qualifying as a reorganization under Section 368(a)(1) of the Code.

(b) To the knowledge of the Company, there is no plan or intention on the part of shareholders of the Company who will receive M&I Common Stock to sell or otherwise dispose of an amount of M&I Common Stock to be received in the Mergers which would reduce their ownership of M&I Common Stock to a number of shares having in the aggregate a value at the time of the Merger of less than fifty percent (50%) of the total value of the Company's Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Merger.

SECTION 2.24. Full Disclosure. No statement contained in any document, certificate, or other writing furnished or to be furnished by or at the direction of the Company to M&I, Merger Corp. or Merger Sub in, or pursuant to the provisions of, this Agreement contains or shall contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omits or shall omit to state any material fact necessary, in light of the circumstances under which it was made, in order to make the statements herein or therein not misleading.

Neither NS Trust, nor the Company or any other Subsidiary, has taken any action or omitted to take any action, that would cause either NS Trust, or the Company or any other Subsidiary, to be subject to disqualification or removal for cause as trustee, custodian, payment agent or recordkeeper, as applicable, or other similar capacity under any Trust Agreement nor has NS Trust, nor the Company or any other Subsidiary, been so disqualified or removed from such capacity.

In the event M&I or its environmental consultants discover or determine the existence of any environmental condition (including, without limitation, a spill, discharge or contamination) the result of which may require investigative or remedial action pursuant to any Federal, state, or local law, statute or regulation or may be the basis for the assertion of any third-party claims, including the claims of governmental entities, M&I shall promptly notify the Company thereof and the Company shall, at its sole cost and expense, proceed with due diligence to take reasonably appropriate action in response thereto.

SECTION 6.07. Insurance and Indemnification.

The Company represents that such current annual premium amount is set forth in Section 6.07(b) of the Company Disclosure Schedule.

In connection with the Mergers, the ESOP shall be terminated. Immediately prior to and effective as of the Step Two Effective Time, the Company shall amend the ESOP as follows: (a) to provide that the ESOP no longer is an employee stock ownership plan within the meaning of Section 4975 of the Code; (b) to terminate the plan; and (c) to permit immediate distributions to participants of up to 50 percent of the balances credited to their accounts under the ESOP, in addition to distributions to participants and beneficiaries in the ordinary course and pursuant to the

(e) Tax Opinion. An opinion of Godfrey & Kahn, S.C., independent counsel for M&I, to the effect that the Mergers will be treated for Federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, and that M&I, Merger Corp., Merger Sub and the Company will each be a party to that reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(b) of the Code, dated on or about the date that is two business days prior to the date the Proxy Statement/Prospectus is first mailed to shareholders of the Company, shall have been delivered and shall not have been withdrawn or modified in any material respect. SECTION 8.01. Termination.

(a) This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Effective Time, whether before or after approval of the matters presented in connection with the Mergers by the shareholders of the Company:

(i) By mutual written consent of M&I, Merger Corp., Merger Sub and the Company;

(ii) By M&I, Merger Corp., Merger Sub or the Company (A) if there has been a breach in any material respect (except that where any statement in a representation or warranty expressly includes a standard of materiality, such statement shall have been breached in any respect) of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement on the part of the Company, on the one hand, or M&I, Merger Corp. or Merger Sub, on the other hand, respectively, set forth in this Agreement, or (B) if any representation or warranty of the Company, on the one hand, or M&I, Merger Corp. or Merger Sub on the other hand, respectively, shall be discovered to have become untrue in any material respect (except that where any statement in a representation or warranty expressly includes a standard of materiality, such statement shall have become untrue in any respect), in either case which breach or other condition has not been cured within 10 business days following receipt by the non-terminating party of notice of such breach or other condition, provided, however, this Agreement may not be terminated pursuant to this clause (ii) by the breaching party or party making any representation or warranty which shall have become untrue in any material respect.

(iii) By any of M&I, Merger Corp., Merger Sub or the Company if any permanent injunction preventing the consummation of the Merger shall have become final and non-appealable;

(iv) By any of M&I, Merger Corp., Merger Sub or the Company if the merger shall not have been consummated before May 31, 2007, for a reason other than the failure of the terminating party to comply with its obligations under this Agreement;

(v) By any of M&I, Merger Corp., Merger Sub or the Company if the Federal Reserve Board or any other Federal or state government agency authorized to act in the matter has denied approval of the Mergers or the transactions contemplated hereby or the consequences thereof (including, without limitation, the change in control of NS Trust or any of the other Subsidiaries) and neither M&I, Merger Corp., Merger Sub nor the Company has, within thirty (30) days after the entry of such order denying approval, filed a petition seeking review of such order as provided by applicable law;

(b) In the event of termination and abandonment by any party as provided above, written notice shall forthwith be given to other party, which notice shall specifically describe the basis for such termination.

SECTION 8.02. Effect of Termination.

(a) If the Mergers are not consummated as the result of termination of this Agreement caused otherwise than by breach of a party hereto, the Company and M&I each shall pay its Expenses in accordance with the terms and conditions under Section 4.05(a) and as the term Expenses is defined in Section 4.05(b) above, and this Agreement shall immediately terminate, except as set forth in Section 9.01 hereof, and neither the Company nor M&I shall have any liability under this Agreement for damages or otherwise.

(b) If termination of this Agreement shall have been caused by breach of this Agreement by any party hereto, then, in addition to other remedies at law or equity for breach of this Agreement, the party so found to have breached this Agreement shall promptly (but not later than five (5) business days after receipt of notice from the non-breaching party) pay the non-breaching party for its documented out-of-pocket expenses and fees incurred in connection with or related to the Mergers.

SECTION 8.03. Amendment. This Agreement may be amended by the parties hereto by action taken by or on behalf of their respective Boards of Directors at any time prior to the Effective Time; provided, however, that, after approval of the Mergers by the shareholders of the Company, no amendment may be made which would change the amount or type of consideration into which each Share of Company Common Stock shall be converted pursuant to this Agreement upon consummation of the Mergers. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed by each of the parties hereto.

SECTION 8.04. Waiver. At any time prior to the Effective Time, any party hereto may (a) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other party hereto, (b) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto and (c) to the extent permitted by Law, waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained herein. AMENDMENT TO
AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER AND REORGANIZATION

THIS AMENDMENT TO AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER AND REORGANIZATION, dated as of February 21, 2007 (the Amendment), among Marshall & Ilsley Corporation, a Wisconsin corporation (M&I), M&I Merger Corp., a Wisconsin corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of M&I (Merger Corp.), M&I Merger Sub, LLC, a single member Wisconsin limited liability company and a wholly owned subsidiary of M&I (Merger Sub), and North Star Financial Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the Company).

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, M&I, Merger Corp., Merger Sub and the Company have heretofore entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger and Reorganization dated as of January 12, 2007 (the Agreement) relating to the merger of the Company, in a two-step merger, with and into Merger Sub; and

WHEREAS, the parties hereto desire to amend the Agreement in certain respects and in the manner set forth herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and the mutual covenants and agreements contained herein, and intending to be legally bound hereby, M&I, Merger Corp., Merger Sub and the Company hereby agree as follows:

1. Subsections (a) and (c) of Section 1.07 of the Agreement are hereby amended by deleting said subsections (a) and (c) and inserting the following in lieu thereof:

(a) Each share of outstanding Series A Preferred Stock will be converted into six shares of Company Common Stock, as defined below. Each share of outstanding Series B Preferred Stock will receive the liquidation preference to which it is entitled, which will be paid in cash on hand in the Company at Closing. Each share of the common stock, $0.01 par value, of the Company (Company Common Stock) (all issued and outstanding shares of the Company Common Stock being hereinafter collectively referred to as the Shares) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than any Dissenting Shares (as defined in Section 1.07(f)) shall be cancelled and extinguished and be converted into and become a right to receive an amount equal to twenty-one million dollars ($21,000,000) divided by the number of Shares outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (the Merger Consideration). By way of example, the Merger Consideration as of the date hereof would be $2.9169 (i.e., $21,000,000 ÷ 7,199,209 Shares as set forth in the Disclosure Schedules).

(c) The aggregate Merger Consideration of twenty-one million dollars (\$21,000,000) shall be paid with shares of \$1.00 par value common stock of M&I (M&I Common Stock). The number of shares of M&I Common Stock payable in exchange for the Shares shall be equal to twenty-one million dollars (\$21,000,000) divided by the average closing price per share of M&I Common Stock on the New York Stock Exchange (the NYSE) for the thirty (30) calendar days ending on and including the calendar day immediately preceding the Effective Time, as reported in an authoritative source (the M&I Exchange Shares). Each shareholder of the Company will be entitled to exchange each share of his or her Company Common Stock for the number of shares of M&I Common Stock equal to the product of one times a fraction the numerator of which is the M&I Exchange Shares and the denominator of which is the number of Shares outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. By way of example, if the average closing price of a share of M&I Common Stock is \$48.13 on the thirty calendar days immediately preceding the Effective Time, the number of M&I Exchange Shares would be 436,319 shares (i.e., $\$21,000,000 \div \48.13) and the fraction of a share of M&I Common Stock that would be exchanged for each share of Company Common Stock would be .0606 shares (i.e., $436,319 \div 7,199,209$).

2. For the purposes of Section 6.01 of the Agreement, the term Proxy Statement/Prospectus shall mean and include an Information Statement/Prospectus covering M&I Common Stock to be issued in the Merger to the extent that approval of the Agreement and the Merger by the stockholders of the Company is obtained by means of a consent solicitation rather than through a special meeting of stockholders and a proxy solicitation.

3. Subsection (f) of Section 7.03 is hereby deleted in its entirety.

4. Except as specifically amended as set forth in this Amendment, all other provisions, terms and conditions of the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

5. Capitalized terms used this Amendment that are not defined herein shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Agreement.

SECTION 1.06. The Step Two Merger.

(a) Timing. On the date of the Closing, immediately following the Effective Time, the Interim Surviving Corporation shall be merged with and into Merger Sub in accordance with Delaware Law and Wisconsin Law. As a result of the Step Two Merger, the separate corporate existence of the Interim Surviving Corporation shall cease and Merger Sub, as a direct, wholly owned subsidiary of M&I, shall continue as the Surviving Company of the Step Two Merger.

(b) The Step Two Merger Effective Time. On the date of the Closing, immediately following the Effective Time, Merger Sub shall cause the Step Two Merger to be consummated by filing a certificate of merger (the Step Two Certificate of Merger) and any other required documents with the Delaware Secretary of State and DFI, in such form as required by, and executed in accordance with the relevant provisions of, Delaware Law and Wisconsin Law. The Step Two Merger will become effective at such time as the Step Two Certificate of Merger is filed with the Delaware Secretary of State and DFI, or at such later time as M&I, Merger Sub and the Interim Surviving Corporation agree and specify in the Step Two Certificate of Merger (the date and time the Step Two Merger becomes effective is referred to herein as the Step Two Merger Effective Time).

(c) Effect of the Step Two Merger. From and after the Step Two Merger Effective Time, the effect of the Step Two Merger shall be as provided in this Agreement, the Step Two Certificate of Merger and the applicable provisions of Delaware Law and Wisconsin Law. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, and subject thereto, at the Step Two Merger Effective Time, except as otherwise provided herein, all the property, rights, privileges, powers and franchises of Merger Sub and the Interim Surviving Corporation shall vest in the Surviving Company, and all debts, liabilities and duties of Merger Sub and the Interim Surviving Corporation shall become the debts, liabilities and duties of the Surviving Company.

(d) Certificate of Formation: Operating Agreement. The certificate of formation of Merger Sub, as in effect immediately prior to the Step Two Merger Effective Time, will be the certificate of formation of the Surviving Company; provided, however, that Article I of such certificate of formation shall be amended as of the Step Two Merger Effective Time to read as follows: The name of the limited liability company is: North Star Financial, LLC until thereafter changed or amended as provided therein or by applicable law (the Certificate of Formation). The operating agreement of Merger Sub, as in effect immediately prior to the Step Two Merger Effective Time, will be the operating agreement of the Surviving Company, until thereafter changed or amended as provided therein, by the Certificate of Formation or by applicable law (the Operating Agreement).

(e) Manager and Officers. At the Step Two Merger Effective Time, the manager of Merger Sub immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the initial manager of the Surviving Company, to hold its position in accordance with the Certificate of Formation and the Operating Agreement of the Surviving Company. At the Step Two Merger Effective Time, the officers of Merger Sub immediately prior to the Step Two Merger Effective Time shall be the initial officers of the Surviving Company, in each case until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed.

(f) Treatment of Capital Stock In Step Two Merger. Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, at the Step Two Merger Effective Time, automatically by virtue of the Step Two Merger and without any action on the part of any shareholder: (i) each membership interest of Merger Sub outstanding immediately prior to the Step Two Merger shall be unchanged and shall remain issued and outstanding; and (ii) each share of Interim Surviving Corporation common stock issued and outstanding prior to the Step Two Merger Effective Time shall be cancelled without consideration and shall cease to be an issued and outstanding share of Interim Surviving Corporation common stock.

SECTION 1.07. Conversion of Securities. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Mergers and without any action on the part of M&I, Merger Corp., Merger Sub, the Company, or the holders of any of the following securities:

(a) Each share of outstanding Series A Preferred Stock will be converted into six shares of Company Common Stock, as defined below. Each share of outstanding Series B Preferred Stock will receive the liquidation preference to which it is entitled, which will be paid in cash on hand in the Company at Closing. Each share of the common stock, $0.01 par value, of the Company (Company Common Stock) (all issued and outstanding shares of the Company Common Stock being hereinafter collectively referred to as the Shares) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than any Dissenting Shares (as defined in Section 1.07(f)) shall be cancelled and extinguished and be converted into and become a right to receive an amount equal to twenty-one million dollars ($21,000,000) divided by the number of Shares outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (the Merger Consideration). By way of example, the Merger Consideration as of the date hereof would be $2.9169 (i.e., $$21,000,000 \div 7,199,209$ Shares as set forth in the Disclosure Schedules).

(b) Each share of the Company Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and owned by M&I, Merger Corp., Merger Sub or the Company or any direct or indirect subsidiary of M&I, Merger Corp., Merger Sub or the Company shall be canceled and extinguished and no payment shall be made with respect thereto.

(c) The aggregate Merger Consideration of twenty-one million dollars ($21,000,000) shall be paid with shares of $1.00 par value common stock of M&I (M&I Common Stock). The number of shares of M&I Common Stock payable in exchange for the Shares shall be equal to twenty-one million dollars ($21,000,000) divided by the average closing price per share of M&I Common Stock on the New York Stock Exchange (the NYSE) for the thirty (30) calendar days ending on and including the calendar day immediately preceding the Effective Time, as reported in an authoritative source (the M&I Exchange Shares). Each shareholder of the Company will be entitled to exchange each share of his or her Company Common Stock for the number of shares of M&I Common Stock equal to the product of one times a fraction the numerator of which is the M&I Exchange Shares and the denominator of which is the number of Shares outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. By way of example, if the average closing price of a share of M&I Common Stock is $48.13 on the thirty calendar days immediately preceding the Effective Time, the number of M&I Exchange Shares would be 436,319 shares (i.e., $21,000,000 ÷ $48.13) and the fraction of a share of M&I Common Stock that would be exchanged for each share of Company Common Stock would be .0606 shares (i.e., 436,319 ÷ 7,199,209).

(d) No fractional shares of M&I Common Stock and no certificates or scrip certificates therefore shall be issued to represent any such fractional interest, and any holder thereof shall be paid an amount pursuant to Section 1.08(e) hereof.

(e) The parties acknowledge and agree to the following: One of the Company's shareholders is the North Star Trust Company Employee Stock Ownership Plan (the "ESOP"). The Shares held by the ESOP (the "ESOP Shares") were acquired with the proceeds of loans from the Company to the ESOP (the "ESOP Loans"). Section 6-1 of the ESOP provides for the ESOP Shares to be allocated to a "Suspense Account" and to be released from the Suspense Account and allocated to the accounts of the ESOP participants over the term of the ESOP Loans. Section 7-12 of the ESOP provides that if the Trustee of the ESOP shall sell any of the ESOP Shares that are allocated to the Suspense Account (the "Suspense Account Shares"), the proceeds from that sale are to be allocated, first, toward repayment of the ESOP Loans, with the balance allocated to the "Other Investments Accounts" of the ESOP participants. In order to comply with the provisions of Section 7-12 of the ESOP, the ESOP Trustee shall pay off the ESOP Loans immediately after the completion of the exchange by the ESOP Trustee of the Suspense Account Shares for shares of M&I Common Stock. The ESOP Trustee shall pay off the ESOP Loans by transferring to M&I the cash proceeds received from the sale of that number of shares of M&I Common Stock with a value equal to the sum of the outstanding principal balance of the ESOP Loans plus all accrued interest on the ESOP Loans. Upon receipt of this payment, M&I shall deliver to the ESOP Trustee the note evidencing the ESOP Loans.

(f) Each Share which shall be issued and outstanding as of the Effective Time and held by a shareholder who has validly perfected dissenter's rights in accordance with Delaware Law, shall not be converted into or represent a right to receive the Merger Consideration pursuant to this Section 1.07 (all such Shares are hereinafter called "Dissenting Shares"). The Company shall give M&I prompt notice upon receipt by the Company of any written notice from any such shareholder of the Company ("Dissenting Shareholder"). The Company agrees that prior to the Effective Time, it will not, except with prior written consent of M&I, voluntarily make any payment with respect to, or settle or offer to settle, any request for withdrawal pursuant to the exercise of dissenter's rights. Each Dissenting Shareholder who becomes entitled, pursuant to the provisions of applicable law, to payment for his or her Shares shall receive payment therefore from M&I (but only after the amount thereof shall be agreed upon or finally determined pursuant to the provisions of applicable law). If any Dissenting Shareholder shall fail to perfect or shall effectively withdraw or lose his or her right to receive the value of his or her Shares, his or her Shares shall be thereupon be deemed to have been canceled as of the Effective Time and converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration in accordance with the provisions of this Section 1.07.

(g) The parties acknowledge that, no later than the Effective Time, the Company will terminate its stock appreciation rights plan and will pay to the participants therein the amounts they are entitled to receive under the terms of the plan assuming a fair market value for each share of Company Common Stock equal to the amount of consideration to be received in the Merger for a share of Company Common Stock. All payments in connection with the termination shall be made in cash, and shall only be made to the extent a participant would be vested under the plan immediately after the Effective Time.

SECTION 1.08. Exchange of Certificates.

(a) Exchange Agent. As of the Effective Time, M&I shall deposit, or shall cause to be deposited, with Continental Stock Transfer & Trust Company (the "Exchange Agent"), and such deposit shall be solely for the benefit of the holders of Company Common Stock, for exchange in accordance with this Article I through the Exchange Agent, the aggregate Merger Consideration consisting of certificates representing the shares of M&I Common Stock (such certificates for shares of M&I Common Stock, together with any dividends or distributions with respect thereto, being hereinafter referred to as the Exchange Fund) issuable or payable, as the case may be, pursuant to Section 1.07 in exchange for outstanding shares of Company Common Stock.

(b) Exchange Procedures. As soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time, the Exchange Agent shall mail or personally deliver to each holder of record (or his or her attorney-in-fact) of a certificate or certificates which immediately prior to the Effective Time represented outstanding Shares (the Certificates), whose Shares were converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration pursuant to Section 1.07 and cash in lieu of fractional shares (if any), (i) a letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon delivery of the Certificates to the Exchange Agent and shall be in such form and have such other provisions as M&I may reasonably specify) and (ii) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates in exchange for the applicable amount and form of Merger Consideration. Upon surrender of a Certificate for cancellation to the Exchange Agent, together with such letter of transmittal, duly executed, the holder of such Certificate shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefore the applicable amount of the Merger Consideration which such holder has the right to receive in respect of the Certificate surrendered pursuant to the provisions of this Article I (after taking into account all Shares then held by such holder) and cash in lieu of fractional shares (if any), and the Certificate so surrendered shall forthwith be canceled. In the event of a transfer of ownership of Shares which is not registered in the transfer records of the Company, a certificate representing the proper Merger Consideration may be delivered (or cash may be paid in lieu of fractional shares, if applicable), to a transferee if the Certificate representing such shares is presented to the Exchange Agent, accompanied by all documents required to evidence and effect such transfer and by evidence that any applicable stock transfer taxes have been paid. Certificates surrendered for exchange by any affiliate of the Company shall not be exchanged for the Merger Consideration until M&I has received a written agreement from such person as provided in Section 4.04 hereof. Until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 1.08, each Certificate shall be deemed at any time after the Effective Time to represent only the right to receive upon such surrender the applicable amount of the Merger Consideration and cash in lieu of any fractional shares of M&I Common Stock as contemplated by Section 1.08(e).

(c) Distributions with Respect to Unexchanged Shares. No dividends or other distributions declared or made after the Effective Time with respect to M&I Common Stock with a record date after the Effective Time shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Certificate with respect to the shares of M&I Common Stock represented thereby, and no cash payment in lieu of fractional shares shall be paid to any such holder pursuant to Section 1.08(e), until the holder of such Certificate shall surrender such Certificate. Subject to the effect of applicable laws, following surrender of any such Certificate, there shall be paid to the holder of the certificates representing whole shares of M&I Common Stock issued in exchange therefore, without interest, (i) promptly, the amount of any cash payable with respect to a fractional share of M&I Common Stock to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 1.08(e) and the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time theretofore paid with respect to such whole shares of M&I Common Stock, and (ii) at the appropriate payment date, the amount of dividends or other distributions, with a record date after the Effective Time but prior to surrender and a payment date occurring after surrender, payable with respect to such whole shares of M&I Common Stock.

(d) No Further Rights in the Shares. All shares of M&I Common Stock issued and cash paid, as the case may be, upon conversion of the Shares in accordance with the terms hereof (including any cash paid pursuant to Section 1.08(e)) shall be deemed to have been issued or paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to such Shares.

(e) No Fractional Shares. No certificates or scrip representing fractional shares of M&I Common Stock shall be issued upon the surrender for exchange of Certificates, and such fractional share interest will not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any rights of a shareholder of M&I. Each holder of a fractional share interest shall be paid an amount in cash equal to the product obtained by multiplying such fractional share interest to which such holder (after taking into account all fractional share interests then held by such holder) would otherwise be entitled by the Merger Consideration.

(f) Termination of Exchange Fund. Any portion of the Exchange Fund which remains undistributed to the shareholders of the Company for six (6) months after the Effective Time shall be delivered to M&I, upon demand, and any shareholders of the Company who have not theretofore complied with this Article I shall thereafter look only to M&I for payment of their claim to the applicable amount and form of the Merger Consideration, any cash in lieu of fractional shares of M&I Common Stock and any dividends or distributions with respect to M&I Common Stock.

(g) Liability. Neither M&I, Merger Corp. nor the Company shall be liable to any holder of Shares for any such shares (or dividends or distributions with respect thereto) or cash delivered to a public official pursuant to any abandoned property, escheat or similar law.

(h) Withholding Rights. M&I shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from any cash consideration payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of Shares such amounts as M&I is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code, or any provision of state, local or foreign tax law. To the extent that amounts are so withheld by M&I, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of the Shares in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made by M&I.

SECTION 1.09. Stock Transfer Books. At the Effective Time, the stock transfer books of the Company shall be closed and there shall be no further registration of transfers of Shares thereafter on the records of the Company. From and after the Effective Time, the holders of certificates evidencing ownership of Shares outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall cease to have any rights with respect to such Shares except as otherwise provided herein or by law. On or after the Effective Time, any Certificates presented to the Exchange Agent or M&I for any reason shall be converted into shares of M&I Common Stock or cash, as the case may be, in accordance with this Article I.

SECTION 2. Termination. This Plan of Merger may be terminated at any time on or before the Effective Time by agreement of the Boards of Directors of the Constituent Companies. This Plan of Merger shall be automatically terminated if the Merger Agreement is terminated in accordance with the terms thereof.

APPENDIX C

SECTION 262 OF THE DELAWARE CORPORATION LAW

§ 262. Appraisal rights

(a) Any stockholder of a corporation of this State who holds shares of stock on the date of the making of a demand pursuant to subsection (d) of this section with respect to such shares, who continuously holds such shares through the effective date of the merger or consolidation, who has otherwise complied with subsection (d) of this section and who has neither voted in favor of the merger or consolidation nor consented thereto in writing pursuant to § 228 of this title shall be entitled to an appraisal by the Court of Chancery of the fair value of the stockholder's shares of stock under the circumstances described in subsections (b) and (c) of this section. As used in this section, the word "stockholder" means a holder of record of stock in a stock corporation and also a member of record of a nonstock corporation; the words "stock" and "share" mean and include what is ordinarily meant by those words and also membership or membership interest of a member of a nonstock corporation; and the words "depository receipt" mean a receipt or other instrument issued by a depository representing an interest in one or more shares, or fractions thereof, solely of stock of a corporation, which stock is deposited with the depository.

(b) Appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation in a merger or consolidation to be effected pursuant to § 251 (other than a merger effected pursuant to § 251(g) of this title), § 252, § 254, § 257, § 258, § 263 or § 264 of this title:

(1) Provided, however, that no appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock, which stock, or depository receipts in respect thereof, at the record date fixed to determine the stockholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the meeting of stockholders to act upon the agreement of merger or consolidation, were either (i) listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or (ii) held of record by more than 2,000 holders; and further provided that no appraisal rights shall be available for any shares of stock of the constituent corporation surviving a merger if the merger did not require for its approval the vote of the stockholders of the surviving corporation as provided in subsection (f) of §251 of this title.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) of this subsection, appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation if the holders thereof are required by the terms of an agreement of merger or consolidation pursuant to §§ 251, 252, 254, 257, 258, 263 and 264 of this title to accept for such stock anything except:

a. Shares of stock of the corporation surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation, or depository receipts in respect thereof;

b. Shares of stock of any other corporation, or depository receipts in respect thereof, which shares of stock (or depository receipts in respect thereof) or depository receipts at the effective date of the merger or consolidation will be either listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or held of record by more than 2,000 holders;

- c. Cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a. and b. of this paragraph; or

 - d. Any combination of the shares of stock, depository receipts and cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a., b. and c. of this paragraph.
- (3) In the event all of the stock of a subsidiary Delaware corporation party to a merger effected under § 253 of this title is not owned by the parent corporation immediately prior to the merger, appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of the subsidiary Delaware corporation.

Table of Contents

(c) Any corporation may provide in its certificate of incorporation that appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of its stock as a result of an amendment to its certificate of incorporation, any merger or consolidation in which the corporation is a constituent corporation or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation. If the certificate of incorporation contains such a provision, the procedures of this section, including those set forth in subsections (d) and (e) of this section, shall apply as nearly as is practicable.

(d) Appraisal rights shall be perfected as follows:

(1) If a proposed merger or consolidation for which appraisal rights are provided under this section is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders, the corporation, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, shall notify each of its stockholders who was such on the record date for such meeting with respect to shares for which appraisal rights are available pursuant to subsection (b) or (c) hereof that appraisal rights are available for any or all of the shares of the constituent corporations, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Each stockholder electing to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares shall deliver to the corporation, before the taking of the vote on the merger or consolidation, a written demand for appraisal of such stockholder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares. A proxy or vote against the merger or consolidation shall not constitute such a demand. A stockholder electing to take such action must do so by a separate written demand as herein provided. Within 10 days after the effective date of such merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation shall notify each stockholder of each constituent corporation who has complied with this subsection and has not voted in favor of or consented to the merger or consolidation of the date that the merger or consolidation has become effective; or

(2) If the merger or consolidation was approved pursuant to § 228 or § 253 of this title, then either a constituent corporation before the effective date of the merger or consolidation or the surviving or resulting corporation within 10 days thereafter shall notify each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation who are entitled to appraisal rights of the approval of the merger or consolidation and that appraisal rights are available for any or all shares of such class or series of stock of such constituent corporation, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Such notice may, and, if given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, shall, also notify such stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation. Any stockholder entitled to appraisal rights may, within 20 days after the date of mailing of such notice, demand in writing from the surviving or resulting corporation the appraisal of such holder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such holder's shares. If such notice did not notify stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation, either (i) each such constituent corporation shall send a second notice before the effective date of the merger or consolidation notifying each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation that are entitled to appraisal rights of the effective date of the merger or consolidation or (ii) the surviving or resulting corporation shall send such a second notice to all such holders on or within 10 days after such effective date; provided, however, that if such second notice is sent more than 20 days following the sending of the first notice, such second notice need only be sent to each stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights and who has demanded appraisal of such holder's shares in accordance with this subsection. An affidavit of the secretary or assistant secretary or of the transfer agent of the corporation that is required to give either notice that such notice has been given shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein. For purposes of determining the stockholders entitled to receive either notice, each constituent corporation may fix, in advance, a record date that shall be not more than 10 days prior to the date the notice is given, provided, that if the notice is given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the record date shall be such effective date. If no record date is fixed and the notice is given prior to the effective date, the record date shall be the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the notice is given.

(e) Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation or any stockholder who has complied with subsections (a) and (d) hereof and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights, may file a petition in the Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the value of the stock of all such stockholders. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder shall have the right to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation. Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of subsections (a) and (d) hereof, upon written request, shall be entitled to receive from the corporation surviving the merger or resulting from the consolidation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger or consolidation and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. Such written statement shall be mailed to the stockholder within 10 days after such stockholder's written request for such a statement is received by the surviving or resulting corporation or within 10 days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal under subsection (d) hereof, whichever is later.

(f) Upon the filing of any such petition by a stockholder, service of a copy thereof shall be made upon the surviving or resulting corporation, which shall within 20 days after such service file in the office of the Register in Chancery in which the petition was filed a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by the surviving or resulting corporation. If the petition shall be filed by the surviving or resulting corporation, the petition shall be accompanied by such a duly verified list. The Register in Chancery, if so ordered by the Court, shall give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of such petition by registered or certified mail to the surviving or resulting corporation and to the stockholders shown on the list at the addresses therein stated. Such notice shall also be given by 1 or more publications at least 1 week before the day of the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Wilmington, Delaware or such publication as the Court deems advisable. The forms of the notices by mail and by publication shall be approved by the Court, and the costs thereof shall be borne by the surviving or resulting corporation.

(g) At the hearing on such petition, the Court shall determine the stockholders who have complied with this section and who have become entitled to appraisal rights. The Court may require the stockholders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with such direction, the Court may dismiss the proceedings as to such stockholder.

(h) After determining the stockholders entitled to an appraisal, the Court shall appraise the shares, determining their fair value exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger or consolidation, together with a fair rate of interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. In determining such fair value, the Court shall take into account all relevant factors. In determining the fair rate of interest, the Court may consider all relevant factors, including the rate of interest which the surviving or resulting corporation would have had to pay to borrow money during the pendency of the proceeding. Upon application by the surviving or resulting corporation or by any stockholder entitled to participate in the appraisal proceeding, the Court may, in its discretion, permit discovery or other pretrial proceedings and may proceed to trial upon the appraisal prior to the final determination of the stockholder entitled to an appraisal. Any stockholder whose name appears on the list filed by the surviving or resulting corporation pursuant to subsection (f) of this section and who has submitted such stockholder's certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery, if such is required, may participate fully in all proceedings until it is finally determined that such stockholder is not entitled to appraisal rights under this section.

(i) The Court shall direct the payment of the fair value of the shares, together with interest, if any, by the surviving or resulting corporation to the stockholders entitled thereto. Interest may be simple or compound, as the Court may direct. Payment shall be so made to each such stockholder, in the case of holders of uncertificated stock forthwith, and the case of holders of shares represented by certificates upon the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing such stock. The Court's decree may be enforced as other decrees in the Court of Chancery may be enforced, whether such surviving or resulting corporation be a corporation of this State or of any state.

(j) The costs of the proceeding may be determined by the Court and taxed upon the parties as the Court deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon application of a stockholder, the Court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all the shares entitled to an appraisal.

(k) From and after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, no stockholder who has demanded appraisal rights as provided in subsection (d) of this section shall be entitled to vote such stock for any purpose or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on the stock (except dividends or other distributions payable to stockholders of record at a date which is prior to the effective date of the merger or consolidation); provided, however, that if no petition for an appraisal shall be filed within the time provided in subsection (e) of this section, or if such stockholder shall deliver to the surviving or resulting corporation a written withdrawal of such stockholder's demand for an appraisal and an acceptance of the merger or consolidation, either within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation as provided in subsection (e) of this section or thereafter with the written approval of the corporation, then the right of such stockholder to an appraisal shall cease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no appraisal proceeding in the Court of Chancery shall be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the Court, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Court deems just.

(l) The shares of the surviving or resulting corporation to which the shares of such objecting stockholders would have been converted had they assented to the merger or consolidation shall have the status of authorized and unissued shares of the surviving or resulting corporation.
