ITEM 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On November 9, 2009, FTI Consulting, Inc. (FTI) entered into a collared master confirmation accelerated stock buyback agreement (ASB Agreement) with Goldman, Sachs & Co. (Goldman Sachs). On the same day, FTI and Goldman Sachs executed a supplemental confirmation to effect a $250 million accelerated stock buyback transaction under the ASB Agreement. FTI will repurchase these shares as part of the $500 million share repurchase program that it announced on November 4, 2009.

Under the ASB Agreement, FTI paid $250 million to Goldman Sachs on November 12, 2009 from available cash on hand to repurchase outstanding shares of FTI common stock. Also on November 12, 2009, FTI received a substantial majority of the shares to be delivered by Goldman Sachs in the transaction. The specific number of shares that FTI ultimately will repurchase in this transaction will be based generally on the volume-weighted average share price of FTI common stock over the duration of the transaction, subject to collar provisions that establish minimum and maximum numbers of repurchased shares. The minimum and maximum share numbers will depend upon the volume-weighted average share price of FTI's common stock during an agreed hedge period that will conclude in December 2009, subject to extension as permitted under the ASB Agreement. Final settlement of the repurchase transaction is to occur no later than July 2010, although under circumstances specified in the ASB Agreement the completion date may be accelerated by Goldman Sachs. At settlement, under certain circumstances specified in the ASB Agreement, FTI may be entitled to receive additional shares of FTI common stock from Goldman Sachs, or, FTI may be required to deliver shares or make a cash payment (at its option) to Goldman Sachs. In connection with this transaction, Goldman Sachs is expected to purchase FTI common stock in the open market. All of the repurchased shares will be retired.

The ASB Agreement contains the principal terms and provisions governing the accelerated stock buyback, including, but not limited to, the mechanism used to determine the number of shares that will be delivered (as well as the minimum and maximum share amounts), the required timing of delivery of the shares, the specific circumstances under which Goldman Sachs is permitted to make adjustments to valuation periods, the specific circumstances under which the accelerated stock buyback may be terminated early, certain specific circumstances under which Goldman Sachs could be entitled to deliver fewer than the minimum number of shares specified by the collar provisions (or FTI could be required to deliver shares or cash (at FTI's option) to Goldman Sachs), and various acknowledgements, representations and warranties made by FTI and Goldman Sachs to one another. Although the ASB Agreement is set up as a master confirmation, under which multiple transactions could be completed, FTI has not agreed to (or determined to pursue) any transactions other than the $250 million transaction entered into on November 9, 2009. A copy of the ASB Agreement and the supplemental confirmation entered into on November 9, 2009 are attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and Exhibit 99.2, respectively, and incorporated by reference herein. The above summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the ASB Agreement and the supplemental confirmation.
