Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On November 17, 2010, VeriFone Systems, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Merger Agreement") with Hypercom Corporation, a Delaware corporation ("Hypercom") and Honey Acquisition Co., a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company ("Merger Sub"). The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will merge with and into Hypercom, with Hypercom continuing as the surviving entity and as a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company (the "Merger"). The Board of Directors of the Company has unanimously approved the Merger and the Merger Agreement.

At the effective time and as a result of the Merger, Hypercom stockholders will receive, for each share of common stock, par value $0.001 per share (the "Hypercom Common Stock"), of Hypercom issued and outstanding (other than Hypercom Shares that are owned by the Company or Hypercom or any direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Hypercom and in each case not held on behalf of third parties) 0.23 shares (the "Exchange Ratio") of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company (the "Company Common Stock").

In addition, options to acquire Hypercom Common Stock, restricted stock unit awards and other equity-based awards denominated in shares of Hypercom Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the consummation of the Merger will be converted into options, restricted stock unit awards, or other equity-based awards, as the case may be, denominated in shares of Company Common Stock based on the Exchange Ratio, at an exercise price per share (in the case of options) equal to the exercise price of the option immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger divided by the Exchange Ratio. Each outstanding warrant to purchase Hypercom Common Stock shall be converted into a warrant to acquire a number of shares of Company Common Stock equal to the product of the number of shares of Hypercom Stock subject to such warrant multiplied by the Exchange Ratio, at an exercise price equal to the exercise price of the warrant immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger divided by the Exchange Ratio.

The Company and Hypercom have each made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement, including, among others, covenants (i) relating to the conduct of Hypercom's businesses during the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and consummation of the Merger, (ii) that Hypercom will convene and hold a meeting of its stockholders to consider and vote upon the approval of the Merger, and (iii) that, subject to certain exceptions, the Board of Directors of Hypercom will recommend adoption of the Merger by its stockholders. The Company has agreed that its obligation to use reasonable best efforts to obtain certain required regulatory approvals includes an obligation, subject to limitations described in the Merger Agreement, to hold separate or divest businesses or assets of the Company, Hypercom or its subsidiaries. Such limitations include a provision providing that the Company is not obligated to sell or dispose of businesses or assets that, in the aggregate, produced aggregate gross revenues in an amount in excess of $124 million for the Company, Hypercom and their respective subsidiaries during the 2009 fiscal year. Hypercom is also subject to a "no-shop" restriction on its ability to solicit alternative acquisition proposals, provide information and engage in discussions with third parties. The no-shop provision is subject to a "fiduciary-out" provision that allows Hypercom under certain circumstances to provide information and participate in discussions at any time with respect to unsolicited alternative acquisition proposals and prior to the time that Hypercom receives approval of the Merger Agreement from its stockholders.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to a number of conditions, including adoption of the Merger Agreement by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Hypercom Common Stock entitled to vote on such matter at a stockholders' meeting duly called and held for such purpose and the receipt of certain regulatory approvals. In addition, each party's obligation to consummate the Merger is subject to certain other conditions, including (i) subject to certain exceptions, the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party, (ii) performance in all material respects of the other party of its obligations and (iii) there not having occurred a material adverse effect with respect to the other party. The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both the Company and Hypercom, and further provides that, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, Hypercom may be required to pay to the Company a termination fee of $12.2 million. In addition, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances in which certain antitrust approvals are not obtained, the Company may be required to pay to Hypercom a termination fee of $28.4 million, which is subject to an increase to $30.4 million if the Company extends the termination date from August 31, 2011 to November 30, 2011 and such termination occurs after August 31, 2011.

The foregoing description of the Support Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Support Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto, and is incorporated into this report by reference.
