Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On May 19, 2011, Fortune Brands, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement (the "Purchase Agreement") with Alexandria Operations Corp., a Delaware corporation (the "Buyer") a special purpose acquisition entity formed by Fila Korea Limited and Mirae Asset Private Equity. Pursuant to the terms of the Purchase Agreement, the Buyer will acquire from the Company all of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of Acushnet Company, a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of the Company engaged in the manufacturing and marketing of golf equipment (the "Acushnet Common Stock"). The purchase price for the Acushnet Common Stock is $1.225 billion, all cash, subject to a post-closing working capital adjustment as provided in the Purchase Agreement. Closing of the purchase is contingent on the satisfaction of customary conditions, including the receipt of applicable regulatory approvals. The closing is currently expected to be completed during the third quarter of fiscal 2011.

The Purchase Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants by each of the parties for transactions of this nature. Subject to certain exceptions, terms and limitations described in the Purchase Agreement, the Company and Buyer have agreed to indemnify and hold each other harmless for breaches or inaccuracies of certain representations or warranties or the failure of the other party to perform certain covenants or agreements contained in the Purchase Agreement. The Purchase Agreement includes certain restrictions on the Company's solicitation of certain Acushnet employees after the closing. The Purchase Agreement provides for a $100 million fee to be paid by Buyer to the Company if (i) the Purchase Agreement is terminated as a result of certain antitrust conditions or events, or (ii) Buyer breaches certain provisions in the Purchase Agreement, or (iii) there is a Terminable Breach (as defined) of the Purchase Agreement by Buyer. The Purchase Agreement provides for a $100 million fee to be paid by the Company to Buyer if there is a Terminable Breach of the Purchase Agreement by the Company and certain other conditions are satisfied as set forth in the Purchase Agreement. The Purchase Agreement also provides for the Company to pay Buyer a fee if the Company breaches a no-shop provision in the Purchase Agreement, in addition to any fee that may be payable by the Company for a Terminable Breach.

The Purchase Agreement may be terminated by either the Company or Buyer if the closing has not occurred by August 1, 2011 (subject to extension if certain regulatory approvals have not been obtained by that date) or upon the occurrence of certain customary events as set forth in the Purchase Agreement.

Neither the Company nor any of its affiliates have had a material relationship with the Buyer, other than in respect of the Purchase Agreement.

The description of the Purchase Agreement is summary in nature and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full and complete terms of the definitive agreement. A copy of the Purchase Agreement is expected to be filed as an exhibit to the Company's next Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q. When filed, that Form 10-Q will also be available on the Company's website at www.fortunebrands.com.
