Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

The information required by this item is included in Item 2.03 below and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 2.03. Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

On November 18, 2011, Host Hotels & Resorts, L.P. (Host L.P.), for whom Host Hotels & Resorts, Inc. (Host REIT) acts as sole general partner, issued $300 million aggregate principal amount of Series Y senior notes bearing interest at a rate of 6% per year due in 2021. The notes were issued pursuant to a supplement to Host L.P.'s Amended and Restated Indenture, dated August 5, 1998, originally among HMH Properties, Inc. (now, Host L.P.), the subsidiary guarantors named therein, and HSBC Bank USA f/k/a Marine Midland Bank (now succeeded by The Bank of New York Mellon), as trustee (the senior notes indenture). The notes pay interest semi-annually in arrears. The notes were offered in a private placement to qualified institutional buyers pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and to certain non-U.S. persons in transactions outside of the United States in reliance on Regulation S under the Securities Act.

Optional Redemption Provisions and Change of Control Repurchase Right

At any time, upon not less than 30 nor more than 60 days' notice, the Series Y senior notes will be redeemable at Host L.P.'s option, in whole or in part, at a price equal to 100% of their principal amount, plus a make-whole premium as set forth in the senior notes indenture, plus accrued and unpaid interest to the applicable redemption date.

Host L.P. may also redeem the Series Y senior notes within the period beginning 90 days prior to October 1, 2021, in whole or in part, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Series Y senior notes to be redeemed, plus accrued and unpaid interest to the applicable date of redemption.

The holders of Series Y senior notes will also have the right to require Host L.P. to repurchase their notes upon the occurrence of a change in control triggering event, as defined in the senior notes indenture, at an offer price equal to 101% of the principal amount of the senior notes plus accrued and unpaid interest to the date of purchase.

Ranking and Security

Under the terms of the senior notes indenture, the senior notes are equal in right of payment with all of Host L.P.'s unsubordinated indebtedness and senior to all subordinated obligations of Host L.P., subject to certain limitations set forth in the senior notes indenture. The senior notes are guaranteed by certain of Host L.P.'s subsidiaries and are currently secured by pledges of equity interests in certain of Host L.P.'s subsidiaries. The guarantees and pledges ratably benefit the notes outstanding under Host L.P.'s senior notes indenture, as well as Host L.P.'s credit facility and certain other senior debt, and interest rate swap agreements and other hedging agreements with lenders that are parties to the credit facility. In the event that Host L.P. completes the refinancing of its existing credit facility as described on the combined Current Report of Host REIT and Host L.P. on Form 8-K filed on November 14, 2011 (Item 8.01 - Negotiation of amended and restated credit facility), it is expected that all guarantees provided by Host L.P.'s subsidiaries and the pledges of the common equity interests of Host L.P.'s subsidiaries securing the Series Y senior notes and Host L.P.'s other outstanding senior notes will be automatically and unconditionally released. Host L.P.'s new credit facility is not expected to initially include any subsidiary guarantees or pledges of equity interests, and the guarantees and pledges are expected to be required only in the event that Host L.P.'s leverage ratio later exceeds 6.0x for two consecutive fiscal quarters at a time that Host L.P. does not have an investment grade long-term unsecured debt rating. In the event that such guarantee and pledge requirement is triggered, the guarantees and pledges would ratably benefit the new credit facility as well as the notes outstanding under Host L.P.'s senior notes indenture and certain hedging and bank product arrangements with lenders that are parties to the new credit facility.

Restrictive Covenants

Under the terms of the senior notes indenture, Host L.P.'s ability to incur indebtedness and make distributions is subject to restrictions and the satisfaction of various conditions, including the achievement of an EBITDA-to-interest coverage ratio of at least 2.0x by Host L.P. (1.7x in the case of distributions to enable Host REIT to pay dividends on any preferred stock). This ratio is calculated in accordance with Host L.P.'s senior notes indenture and excludes from interest expense items such as the gains and losses on the extinguishment of debt, deferred financing charges, and non-cash interest expense recorded as a result of the adoption of accounting standards relating to our exchangeable debentures which are included in interest expense on our consolidated statements of operations. In addition, the calculation is based on Host L.P.'s pro forma results for the four prior fiscal quarters giving effect to certain transactions, such as acquisitions, dispositions and financings, as if they occurred at the beginning of the period. Other covenants limiting Host L.P.'s ability to incur indebtedness and make distributions include maintaining total indebtedness of less than 65% of adjusted total assets (using undepreciated real estate values) and secured indebtedness of less than 45% of adjusted total assets. So long as Host L.P. maintains the required level of interest coverage and satisfies these and other conditions in the senior notes indenture, it may make distributions and incur additional debt under the senior notes indenture. There are exceptions permitting distributions by Host L.P. to Host REIT, and other holders of partnership interests, that are necessary for Host REIT to pay dividends required to maintain its status as a real estate investment trust, even when Host L.P. does not meet the financial covenant tests set forth above.

The senior notes indenture also imposes restrictions on customary matters, such as limitations on capital expenditures, acquisitions, investments, and transactions with affiliates and the incurrence of liens.

Registration Rights Agreement

In connection with the issuance of the Series Y senior notes, Host L.P. also entered into a registration rights agreement, dated as of November 18, 2011 (the "Registration Rights Agreement"), under which Host L.P. agreed, pursuant to customary terms, to make an offer to exchange the Series Y senior notes for registered, publicly tradable notes that have substantially identical terms to the Series Y senior notes. Under the terms of the Registration Rights Agreement, Host L.P. also agreed, in certain limited circumstances, to file a shelf registration statement that would allow certain holders of the Series Y senior notes to resell their respective notes to the public.

Use of Proceeds

Host L.P. intends to use the net proceeds from the sale of the Series Y senior notes, along with available cash and borrowings under Host L.P.'s credit facility, to repurchase or repay $421 million face amount of Host L.P.'s 2 5/8% exchangeable senior debentures due 2027, which holders have the right to put to Host L.P. on April 15, 2012.
