Section 5 Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.03. Amendment to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

Amendment and Restatement of Bylaws

On February 28, 2012, the Board of Directors of Align Technology, Inc. (the Company) approved the amendment and restatement of the Company's Bylaws. The amendment and restatement of the Bylaws included the following revisions:

Majority Voting Beginning with the Company's 2013 annual meeting of stockholders, majority voting will apply in uncontested director elections. Plurality voting continues to apply at the Company's 2012 annual meeting of stockholders and in contested elections.

Advance Notice More specific advance notice requirements for stockholders' proposals at annual meetings and director nominations at both annual and special meetings were added.

Indemnification Additional details regarding the indemnification rights of the Company's officers and directors and the related procedural matters were added.

Electronic Transmissions The electronic transmission of certain corporate governance actions and communications are now permitted.

General Updates General revisions were made to the Bylaws to conform to current Delaware law and to clarify and update existing provisions.

The foregoing description of the amendment and restatement of the Bylaws is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the amended and restated Bylaws, a copy of which is filed hereto as Exhibit 3.2 and incorporated herein by reference.

In addition, the Company amended its Corporate Governance Guidelines to provide that with respect to director nominations, the Board of Directors will only nominate those directors who have submitted their resignations in advance of an election and that such resignation will become effective only upon the failure of such director nominee to receive the requisite number of votes and the acceptance by the Board of such resignation.

A revised version of the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines is available on the Company's investor relations website at investor.aligntech.com under Corporate Governance Documents & Charters.
