PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Identiv, Inc. (the Company) is filing this Form 12b-25 with respect to its annual report on Form 10-K for the period ended December 31, 2014 (the Annual Report). The Company needs additional time to complete the information called for by Item III of Form 10-K, including the executive compensation information (the Part III Information) which the Company was not able to complete by April 30, 2015 (the prescribed due date for the inclusion of the Part III Information in the Company's Annual Report filing) without unreasonable effort or expense due to the circumstances described below.

The Company has been served with a complaint (the Complaint) from a former employee alleging, among other things, certain expense reimbursement issues with respect to certain executive officers and certain other employees of the Company. The Board of Directors of the Company has formed a special committee (the Committee) to investigate the allegations contained in the Complaint and related matters with the assistance of independent counsel.

The Company is currently unable to predict when it will be in a position to file an amendment to its Annual Report on Form 10-K/A to include the required Part III Information as well as to file a definitive proxy statement in connection with the 2015 annual meeting.

If the answer is no, identify report(s). ☒ Yes ☐ No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?
☐ Yes ☒ No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

This Form 12b-25 contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, including, without limitation, statements regarding: the timing of filing the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K/A; the timing of filing the Company's definitive proxy statement; anticipated significant changes in the Company's results of operations; and the timing required for the Committee to complete its investigation.

Forward-looking statements by their nature address matters that are, to different degrees, uncertain. Forward-looking statements involve a number of assumptions, risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those suggested by the forward-looking statements in this Current Report on Form 8-K include, but are not limited to, the timing required for the Committee to complete its investigation and the other factors discussed in our public company reports, including our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 and subsequent reports filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. All forward-looking statements are based on information available to us on the date hereof, and we assume no obligation to update such statements.
