Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On December 17, 2015, the Board of Directors (the Board) of Wells Fargo & Company (the Company) amended and restated the Company's By-Laws (the By-Laws), effective immediately, to implement proxy access for eligible stockholders through a new Section 3.11(a)(iv) and to make other conforming changes, updates, and clarifications to the By-Laws as summarized below.

The amendments relating to the implementation of proxy access, as well as conforming changes and updates regarding the nomination of directors and the proposal of business by stockholders, include the following:

- i Permits a stockholder, or a group of up to 20 stockholders, who has continuously owned for 3 years at least 3 percent of the Company's outstanding shares to nominate and include in the Company's proxy statement nominees constituting up to the greater of 2 directors and 20 percent of the Board, subject to the terms and conditions specified in the By-Laws (Article III, Section 3.11(a)(iv));
- i Updates the majority voting standard for uncontested director elections to account for the potential for proxy access director nominations (Article III, Section 3.6);
- i Conforms and updates the informational requirements applicable to stockholders under the advance notice and proxy access provisions, including through updates to the definitions of derivative instrument and short interest and the relocation of those definitions to the Definitions section, and requires that a stockholder update and supplement information required to be provided to the Company under these provisions (Article III, Sections 3.11(a), (b), and (d) and Article I, Section 1.1);
- i Specifies procedures for circumstances where a stockholder (or such stockholder's qualified representative) does not appear at an annual or special stockholders' meeting to present a nomination or proposed business, and the requirements for a person to be considered a qualified representative of a stockholder (Article III, Section 3.11(c)); and
- i Clarifies the stockholders entitled to receive notice of the taking of a corporate action by written consent of stockholders (Article III, Section 3.12(a)).

Additional revisions to the By-Laws relating to developments in Delaware law, as well as other updates and clarifying changes, include the following:

- i Provides for the ability to designate separate record dates for stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at a meeting, clarifies the procedures for establishing the record date for stockholders entitled to notice of and vote at any adjourned meeting and the declaration of record dates for dividends and other distributions, and includes conforming changes to the content and timing of notices of meetings and adjourned meetings and the preparation of the stockholder list for stockholder meetings (Article III, Section 3.8(a), Section 3.4(a) and (b) and Section 3.7);
- i

Clarifies that holders of a majority in voting power (rather than a majority of the number of shares) of shares shall constitute a quorum for stockholder meetings and the business that can be transacted at adjourned meetings (Article III, Section 3.5);

- i Clarifies for purposes of the voting of shares that a matter will be decided by the affirmative vote of the majority in voting power (rather than a majority of the number of shares) of shares present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote on the matter, unless a different or minimum vote is required by the Company's Certificate of Incorporation, By-Laws, or applicable stock exchange rules, and makes conforming changes with respect to voting power when a separate vote by a class or series of shares is required and with respect to amendments to the By-Laws (Article III, Section 3.6(a) and (c) and Article VII, Section 7.4);

- i Clarifies for preferred stock, voting as a separate class, that the Company's Certificate of Incorporation specifies the voting rights relating to the election of directors for such shares of preferred stock (Article III, Section 3.6(b));
- i Clarifies the scope of authority of the Board and the presiding person at stockholders' meetings, including with respect to convening, recessing, and/or adjourning such meetings and establishing rules, regulations and procedures for the conduct of such meetings (Article III, Section 3.9);
- i Clarifies the duties of the inspector of election at any stockholders' meeting as those provided under Delaware law and as may be prescribed by the Board or chairman of such meeting (Article III, Section 3.10);
- i Clarifies the procedures for waiver of notice by a director of a special meeting of the Board (Article IV, Section 4.8);
- i Provides for a Board committee to designate an additional director to act as member at a meeting of the committee in the place of an absent or disqualified member of the committee (Article IV, Section 4.13); and
- i Clarifies the procedures for claiming a certificate for shares lost, stolen or destroyed (Article VI, Section 6.4).

The foregoing summary of the amendments to the By-Laws is qualified in its entirety by reference to the actual text of the By-Laws, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 3.1 and is incorporated by reference into this Item 5.03.
