Item 8.01. Other Events.

Litigation Related to the Proposed Merger between Patterson-UTI and SSE

As previously disclosed, on December 12, 2016, Patterson-UTI entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) with SSE, and Pyramid Merger Sub, Inc. (the Merger). Patterson-UTI is filing this Current Report on Form 8-K to provide certain updates in respect of the proposed Merger. The following information should be read in conjunction with the joint proxy statement/prospectus (the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus) relating to the proposed Merger, filed with the SEC on March 22, 2017.

As disclosed on page 125 of the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus, on February 22, 2017, Maria Comeaux, a purported stockholder of SSE filed a putative class action challenging the disclosures made in connection with the Merger against SSE and the members of SSE's board of directors. This lawsuit is styled Maria Comeaux et al. v. Seventy Seven Energy Inc., et al, Case No. CIV-5:17-191-M, in the United States District Court for the Western District of Oklahoma.

The related complaint (the Comeaux Complaint) alleges inadequacies in the merger price and the process leading up to it, and claims that the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus filed in connection with the merger fails to disclose certain allegedly material information in violation of Sections 14(a) and 20(a) of the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), and certain rules promulgated thereunder. The alleged omissions generally relate to (i) certain financial projections; (ii) certain valuation analyses performed by SSE's financial advisor, Morgan Stanley; and (iii) alleged conflicts of interest faced by Morgan Stanley and a director of SSE. Based on these allegations, Comeaux sought to enjoin the forthcoming stockholder vote on the Merger unless and until SSE discloses the allegedly omitted material information summarized above. Comeaux also seeks damages and attorneys' fees. On April 10, 2017, plaintiff Comeaux withdrew her motion for a preliminary injunction.

On March 31, 2017, Garud Sudarsan, a purported holder of Series B and Series C Warrants of SSE, filed a putative class action against SSE, Patterson-UTI and Merger Sub. This lawsuit is styled Garud Sudarsan et al v. Seventy Seven Energy Inc., et al, Case No. 1:17-cv-02342, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. The related complaint (the Sudarsan Complaint) alleges (i) that SSE breached the Warrant Agreement (the Warrant Agreement), dated as of August 1, 2016, among SSE, Computershare Inc. and Computershare Trust Company N.A. (collectively as warrant agent) relating to Series A, Series B and Series C Warrants of SSE and (ii) tortious interference with the Warrant Agreement by Patterson-UTI and Merger Sub. Based on these allegations, Sudarsan seeks to enjoin the cancellation of the Series A, Series B and Series C Warrants of SSE in connection with the proposed Merger. Sudarsan also seeks damages and attorneys' fees.

On April 7, 2017, Mainard Gael, a purported stockholder of SSE, filed a putative class action challenging the disclosures made in connection with the merger against SSE and the members of SSE's board of directors. This lawsuit is styled Mainard Gael et al v. Seventy Seven Energy, Inc. et al, Case No. 2017-0266, in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware. The related complaint (the Gael Complaint) alleges that SSE's board of directors breached its fiduciary duties by failing to disclose in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus filed in connection with the merger certain allegedly material information. The alleged omissions generally relate to (i) certain financial projections; (ii) the fact that Douglas Wall, a member of the SSE board of directors, previously served as President and CEO of Patterson-UTI as recently as 2012; (iii) the fact that Andrew Axelrod and Victor Danh, members of the SSE board of directors, are managing partners of certain of the SSE stockholders (the Significant SSE Stockholders) whose affiliates entered into voting and support agreements with Patterson-UTI in connection with the proposed Merger; (iv) the identities of holders of Series A Warrants of SSE, which information the Gael Complaint alleges is necessary in order to determine whether the Significant SSE Stockholders held significant Series A Warrants of SSE, notwithstanding the fact that had the Significant SSE Stockholders held Series

A Warrants, such ownership would have been required to be disclosed in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus; and (v) alleged conflicts of interest faced by Morgan Stanley. Based on these allegations, Gael seeks to enjoin the consummation of the Merger, and if the proposed Merger is consummated, Gael seeks damages.

On April 10, 2017, Louis Scarantino, a purported stockholder of SSE, filed a putative class action challenging the disclosures made in connection with the merger against SSE, the members of SSE's board of directors, Patterson-UTI and Merger Sub. This lawsuit is styled Louis Scarantino et al v. Seventy Seven Energy Inc. et al, Case No. 2017-0278, in the Court of Chancery in the State of Delaware. The complaint (the "Scarantino Complaint") contains allegations and seeks remedies that are similar to those contained in the Gael Complaint.

Patterson-UTI and SSE believe that each of these lawsuits is without merit, that the alleged omissions in the Comeaux, Sudarsan and Scarantino Complaints are not material and intend to vigorously defend against each of them. Neither Patterson-UTI nor SSE can predict the outcome of these lawsuits or any others that might be filed, nor can they predict the amount of time and expense that will be required to defend the lawsuits. None of the foregoing lawsuits are expected to affect the consummation of the Merger, which is currently expected to occur on April 20, 2017.
