Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Asset Purchase Agreement

On December 19, 2018, Identiv, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Identiv") entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement (the "APA") by and among Identiv, Viscount Acquisition ULC, a British Columbia unlimited liability company and a wholly owned subsidiary of Identiv ("Acquisition Sub" and together with Identiv, the "Purchaser"), Viscount Systems, Inc., a Nevada corporation ("VSI"), Viscount Communications and Control Systems, a British Columbia company and a wholly owned subsidiary of VSI ("VCCS"), Freedom Access and Indemnity, LLC, a Florida limited liability company and a wholly owned subsidiary of VSI ("FAI"), and collectively with VSI and VCCS, the "Seller"), and VS225LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and a special purpose vehicle. Capitalized terms used herein but not otherwise defined herein shall have the respective meanings ascribed thereto in the APA.

Pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in the APA, Purchaser will, following satisfaction or waiver of applicable conditions to closing, purchase substantially all of the assets of the Freedom, Liberty, and Enterphone MESH products and services of VSI (the "Purchased Assets") and assume certain liabilities related thereto (the "Asset Purchase"). Under the terms of the APA, the aggregate consideration to be paid by Identiv at the closing of the Asset Purchase is expected to be approximately $3.0 million, consisting of approximately $1.0 million in cash, subject to adjustments based on Seller's closing working capital, and the issuance of shares of Identiv's common stock with a value of approximately $2.0 million (based on the volume weighted average price of Identiv's stock over the 20 trading days ending on the trading day preceding the date of the APA). Additionally, in the event that revenue from the Purchased Assets in 2019 is greater than certain specified revenue targets, Identiv will be obligated to issue earn-out consideration of up to a maximum of $3.5 million payable in shares of Identiv's common stock (subject to certain conditions). In the event that such revenue targets are not met in 2019, but 2020 revenue from the Purchased Assets exceeds certain higher targets for 2020, then Identiv will be obligated to issue up to a maximum of $2.25 million in earnout consideration in the form of stock. The maximum total earnout consideration payable for all periods is $3.5 million in the aggregate, payable in Identiv common stock. $0.15 million of Identiv's common stock issuable at the closing of the Asset Purchase will be held back for 12 months following the closing for the satisfaction of certain indemnification claims. In addition, Identiv will assume certain lease obligations and will enter into an employment agreement with certain employees of the Seller.

The APA contains customary representations, warranties, and covenants of Seller and Identiv, including covenants by Seller to continue to operate the business in the ordinary course of business until the closing. The APA also includes restrictive covenants and termination rights for the benefit of the Company.

The parties' obligations to consummate the transactions contemplated by the APA are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions. The transaction is expected to close on or about January 2, 2019.

There is no material relationship between Identiv, on the one hand, and Seller, on the other hand, other than in respect of the APA.

The foregoing description of the APA does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the APA, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. The APA has been attached to provide investors with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about the parties. The terms of the APA govern the contractual rights and relationships, and allocate risks, among the parties in relation to the transactions contemplated by the APA. In particular, the assertions embodied in the representations and warranties in the APA reflect negotiations between, and are solely for the benefit of, the parties thereto and may be limited, qualified or modified by a variety of factors, including: subsequent events, information included in public filings, disclosures made during negotiations, correspondence between the parties and in confidential disclosure schedules to the APA. Moreover, certain representations and warranties in the APA were used for the purpose of allocating risk between the parties rather than establishing matters as facts and may not describe the actual state of affairs at the date they were made or at any other time. Accordingly, you should not rely on the representations and warranties in the APA as characterizations of the actual state of facts about the parties.
