AMENDMENT TO CURRENT REPORT ON FORM 8-K DATED February 15, 2007

This Amended Current Report on Form 8-K/A amends the report of the Company filed February 15, 2007 to correct the following errors in the original filing:

- 1. The Company's estimate of revenues that may be generated by each LCD panel that the Company may install and operate in the City of Nanjing, China, pursuant to the Business Joint Venture Agreement (English Translation of an Agreement drafted in Mandarin in Chinese) attached as Exhibit 10.1 to the original filing was incorrectly stated at RMB60,000 (approximately US$7,734) per installed panel. The correct estimate is US$60,000 per installed panel.
- 2. The form of the Agreement on Payment of Charges for the obtaining of Approval for Construction (English Translation of an Agreement drafted in Mandarin in Chinese) attached as Exhibit 10.2 to the original Form 8-K incorrectly stated the amount payable by the Company in Section 3(a) thereof as RMB300,000. The correct amount is RMB500,000 (approximately US$64,457).

Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On February 9, 2007, Shanghai Quo Advertising Company Limited ("Quo Advertising"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Network CN Inc. (the "Company"), entered into a business agreement (the "Agreement") with Nanjing Yiyi Culture Advertising Company Limited ("Nanjing Yiyi"), a company organized under the laws of the Peoples Republic of China ("PRC"), to construct, manage and operate up to 100 LED outdoor advertising panels in the City of Nanjing, China ("The Project"). Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, the Company, through its subsidiary, Quo Advertising, will design, fund, construct and maintain the Project. The Company will also be responsible for annual charges imposed by the relevant department of the People's Government of the City of Nanjing. The Company will own each of the LED panels constructed in the Project and have the exclusive right to manage the Project for 20 years. Nanjing Yiyi and the Company will jointly determine the locations of the LED panels. A portion of the airtime of the LED panels will be used to broadcast information of communal interest, as required by the applicable governmental agencies in the PRC, and the remainder of the airtime will be used for commercial advertisement. The Company will be entitled to the advertising and other revenues generated from the sale of airtime for the LED panels. The Company anticipates that it will complete the installation of all 100 LED panels by the end of 2007 and that it will begin to generate advertising and other revenues from installed panels during the second half of 2007. The Company anticipates that each of the panels could generate up to approximately RMB465,000 (approximately US$60,000) in revenues per year.

Nanjing Yiyi will be responsible for obtaining approvals from the relevant supervisory departments of the PRC government, however, the Company has agreed to pay Nanjing Yiyi RMB100,000 (approximately US$12,892) pursuant to an agreement dated February 9, 2007, by and among Quo Advertising and Nanjing Yiyi to cover charges related to obtaining approval of a construction permit from applicable governmental agencies in the PRC. The Company also agreed to pay to Nanjing Yiyi a deposit of RMB500,000 (approximately US$64,457) to cover additional expenses in connection with the Project. During the one year period commencing on the later to occur of (i) installation of the first LED panel (or approximately 45 days from the date such installation receives government approval) and (ii) issuance of governmental approvals for installation of at least 90% of the LED panels in the Project, the Company will be required to pay Nanjing Yiyi RMB10,000 (approximately US$1,289) for each LED panel installed. During the second and third years thereafter, the Company will be required to pay Nanjing Yiyi for all 100 panels, or RMB1,000,000.00 (approximately US$128,915) per year, and beginning in the fourth year thereafter, the annual payment will increase by 10% every three calendar years.

Nanjing Yiyi provides no guarantee that it has obtained all relevant governmental approvals for the Project in the PRC and, if approvals are necessary, the Company can provide no assurances that any such approvals will be granted to Nanjing Yiyi, or if granted, will be respected by the issuing agency or other governmental agencies in the PRC for any specific period of time. However, if no such approvals are granted, the Company's exposure under its agreement with Nanjing Yiyi will be limited to the RMB100,000 paid following the execution of the Agreement together with the RMB500,000 deposit. The Agreement and the expense reimbursement agreement are each governed by the law of the PRC.

The foregoing description of the Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K. The foregoing description of the expense reimbursement agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text thereof, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.2 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.
