ESPP Participants,

Below are answers to frequently asked questions with respect to the ESPP program in light of the potential transaction with Marlin. If you have any additional questions please contact stockadmin@bazaarvoice.com.

Q: What happens to stock purchased through the ESPP?

A: All stock purchased already or in the future through the ESPP program will be sold like all other shares, at $5.50, upon completion of the Marlin transaction.

Q: Can I make any changes to my current ESPP election between now and the final purchase?

A: As of now, participants in the ESPP are no longer allowed to increase the percentage amount of payroll deductions to defer into the ESPP, nor are any new participants allowed to participate. Current participants do, however, have other options to withdraw from the program:

1. Submit a withdraw and purchase request via Workday
2. Submit a withdraw and refund via Workday

Q: What happens to the money that is currently being deducted for this ESPP period?

A: There will be one final ESPP purchase. The purchase will happen on the earlier of 10 business days prior to the closing or the last payroll before closing. The ESPP stock that is purchased will be treated like all other ESPP stock mentioned above.

Q: Will there be a future ESPP plan?

A: No. Upon the earlier of the natural termination of the current Offering Period or the termination of the Offering Period upon closing, no new Offering Period will begin. Similarly, the ESPP will terminate immediately before the close of the acquisition.

We will provide further detail and communication on what you should be aware of and what you might need to do with regards to the exchange of your shares of common stock and equity awards for cash at the appropriate time.
