EXPLANATORY NOTE

The registrant, Delek US Holdings, Inc., files this amendment to our Current Report on Form 8-K (the "Form 8-K") filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") on February 23, 2009 to (a) correct the date of the report, and (b) provide additional clarification in the text of Item 1.01.

Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement

On February 18, 2009, Delek Refining, Ltd. and Delek Pipeline Texas, Inc. (collectively, the "Borrowers"), both of which are wholly-owned subsidiaries of the registrant, Delek US Holdings, Inc., entered into the fourth amendment to their Second Amended and Restated Credit Agreement dated October 13, 2006 (the "SunTrust ABL") with various financial institutions including SunTrust Bank as administrative agent, issuing bank, swingline lender and collateral agent. The Borrowers sought and entered into the fourth amendment and entered into certain prior amendments (collectively, the "Amendments") in response to the shutdown of the registrant's refinery after the fire and explosion that occurred there on November 20, 2008. Among other things, the Amendments (a) permit the Borrowers to sell certain crude delivery and storage system assets to the registrant's marketing segment for a total consideration of not less than $27.5 million, (b) increase the interest rate margin by 1.25% annually and the unused lender commitment fees by at least 0.125%, (c) suspend utilization of the SunTrust ABL during the current period of refinery inactivity, (d) set the terms and availability under the SunTrust ABL during a defined refinery start up period, (e) add a covenant that requires the restart of refinery operations at a prescribed level and for a prescribed period of time beginning on or before September 30, 2009, and (f) confirm that the property maintenance covenant does not apply during the current period of refinery inactivity. SunTrust Bank also serves as syndication agent under the senior secured credit facility for MAPCO Express, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of the registrant and affiliate of the Borrowers.
