PART I

Item 1. Description of Business

Gold Dynamics Corp formerly known as Vita Spirit's Corp, formerly known as Revo Ventures Inc. began primary operations began in April 2006. The Company changed its focus of primary operations from a producer of vitamin infused alcoholic beverages to exploration of mining opportunities. As part of the change in operations, the Company has undergone a name change from Vita Spirits Corp. to Gold Dynamics Corp. to better reflect the Company's new focus. We currently have not advanced beyond the business plan state from our inception until the date of this filing. We anticipate that in order for us to begin commercialization and retail sale of any of our intended products, we will need to raise additional capital. We currently do not have any specific plans to raise these funds.

Competition

We will have to compete with other mineral resource exploration and development companies for financing and for the acquisition of new mineral properties. Many of the mineral resource exploration and development companies with whom we compete have greater financial and technical resources than us. Accordingly, these competitors may be able to spend greater amounts on acquisitions of mineral properties of merit, on exploration of their mineral properties and on development of their mineral properties. In addition, they may be able to afford greater geological expertise in the targeting and exploration of mineral properties. This competition could result in competitors having mineral properties of greater quality and interest to prospective investors who may finance additional exploration and development. This competition could adversely impact on our ability to finance further exploration and to achieve the financing necessary for us to develop our mineral properties.

Insurance

Currently, we have no insurance coverage.

Government Regulation

We are currently not subject to any government regulations.

2248 Meridian Blvd. Ste H, Minden, NV 89423

We currently do not have any employees.

Subsidiaries

We do not have any subsidiaries

Bankruptcy, Receivership, or Similar Proceedings

There has been no bankruptcy, receivership, or similar proceedings

Patents and Trademarks

We do not have any patents or trademarks

Legal Proceedings

We are not a party to any material legal proceeding, nor are any of our officers, directors or affiliates' a party adverse to us in any legal proceeding.

Item 1A: Risk Factors

In addition to the other information in this report and our other filings with the SEC, you should carefully consider the risks described below. These risks are not the only ones facing us. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to us or that we currently believe to be immaterial may also impair our business operations. If any of the following risks occur, our business, financial condition or operating results could be materially and adversely affected.

Risks associated with Gold Dynamics Corp.:

1. Our auditors have issued a going concern opinion. This means we may not be able to achieve our objectives and may have to suspend or cease operations. Our auditors have issued a going concern opinion as at July 31, 2010. This means that there is substantial doubt that we can continue as an ongoing business without additional financing and/or generating profits. If we are unable to do so, we will have to cease operations and you will lose your investment.

2. Because all of our assets and our officers and directors are located outside the United States of America, it may be difficult for an investor to enforce within the United States any judgments obtained against us or any of our officers and directors. All of our assets are located outside of the United States and we do not currently maintain a permanent place of business within the United States. In addition, our directors and officers are nationals and/or residents of countries other than the United States, and all or a substantial portion of such persons' assets are located outside the United States. As a result, it may be difficult for an investor to effect service of process or enforce within the United States any judgments obtained against us or our officers or directors, including judgments predicated upon the civil liability provisions of the securities laws of the United States or any state thereof. In addition, there is uncertainty as to whether the courts of Canada and other jurisdictions would recognize or enforce judgments of United States courts obtained against us or our director and officer predicated upon the civil liability provisions of the securities laws of the United States or any state thereof, or be competent to hear original actions brought in Canada or other jurisdictions against us or our director and officer predicated upon the securities laws of the United States or any state thereof.

3. Because we have only one officer and director who are responsible for our managerial and organizational structure, in the future, there may not be effective disclosure and accounting controls to comply with applicable laws and regulations which could result in fines, penalties and assessments against us. We have only one officer and director. He is responsible for our managerial and organizational structure which will include preparation of disclosure and accounting controls under the Sarbanes Oxley Act of 2002. When theses controls are implemented, they will be responsible for the administration of the controls. Should they not have sufficient experience, they may be incapable of creating and implementing the controls which may cause us to be subject to sanctions and fines by the SEC which ultimately could cause you to lose your investment.

4. Because our sole executive officer will only be devoting limited time to our operations, our operations could be sporadic which may result in periodic interruptions or suspensions of operations and a lack of revenues which may cause us to cease operations. Mr. Tie Ming Li, our sole executive officer will only be devoting limited time to our operations. Mr. Li will be devoting approximately twenty five hours a week to our operations. Because Mr. Li will only be devoting limited time to our operations, our operations may be sporadic and occur at times which are convenient to Mr. Li. As a result, operations may be periodically interrupted or suspended which could result in a lack of revenues and a possible cessation of operations.

5. Because we do not maintain any insurance, if a judgment is rendered against us, we may have to cease operations. We do not maintain any insurance and do not intend to maintain insurance in the future. Because we do not have any insurance, if we are made a party to a lawsuit, we may not have sufficient funds to defend the litigation. In the event that we do not defend the litigation or a judgment is rendered against us, we may have to cease operations.

6. Because of the speculative nature of mineral exploration, there is substantial risk that no commercially viable mineral deposits will be found.

Exploration for commercially viable mineral deposits is a speculative venture involving substantial risk. We cannot guarantee our investors that our mining claim contains commercially viable mineral deposits. The exploration program that we will conduct on our claim may not result in the discovery of commercial viable mineral deposits. Problems such as unusual and unexpected rock formations and other conditions are involved in mineral exploration and often result in unsuccessful exploration efforts. In such a case, we may be unable to complete our business plan and investors could lose their entire investment in this offering.

7. We need to raise additional investment capital in the future in order to commence our business operations. If we are unable to raise the required investment capital, you may lose all of your investment in the current economic environment; it is extremely difficult for companies without profits or revenues, such as us, to raise capital. We currently do not have a specific plan of how we will obtain such funding; however, we anticipate that additional funding will be in the form of equity financing from the sale of our common stock. In the event we are not successful in selling our common stock, we may also seek to obtain short-term loans from our director, although no such arrangement has been made. At this time, we cannot provide investors with any assurance that we will be able to raise sufficient funding from the sale of our common stock or through a loan from our director to meet our initial capital requirement needs. If we are unable to raise the required financing, we will be unable to proceed with our business plan and you may lose your entire investment.

8. Our principal shareholder controls the majority of our common stock; investors will have little control over our management or other matters requiring shareholder approval. Mr. Tie Ming Li currently owns 37,500,000, or approximately 70.42%, of our outstanding common stock if the offering is completely sold, giving him the ability to control all matters submitted to our stockholders for approval and to control our management and affairs, including the election of our directors; the acquisition or disposition of our assets, the future issuance of our shares and approval of other significant corporate transactions. Our principal shareholder may also have interests that differ from yours and may vote in a way with which you disagree and which may be adverse to your interests.

9. Because our articles of incorporation authorize the issuance of 75,000,000 shares of common stock, an investor faces the risk of having their percentage ownership diluted in the future. We anticipate that any additional funding will be in the form of equity financing from the sale of our common stock. In the future, if we do sell more common stock, your investment could be subject to dilution. Dilution is the difference between what you pay for your stock and the net tangible book value per share immediately after the additional shares are sold by us. These shares may also be issued without security holder approval and, if issued, may be granted voting powers, rights, and preferences that differ from and may be superior to those of the registered shares.

10. The market price for our Common Stock may be volatile. In the future, there may be volatility in the market price for our Common Stock. Furthermore, the market price of our Common Stock could fluctuate substantially in the future in response to a number of factors, including the following:

* fluctuations in our quarterly operating results or the operating results of our competitors;

* changes in general conditions in the economy, the financial markets, or our industry;

* announcements of significant acquisitions, strategic alliances or joint ventures by us, our customers or our competitors;

* introduction of new products or services;

* increases in the price of energy sources and other raw materials; and

* other developments affecting us, our industry, customers or competitors.

In addition, in recent years the stock market has experienced extreme price and volume fluctuations. This volatility has had a significant effect on the market prices of securities issued by many companies for reasons unrelated to their operating performance. These broad market fluctuations may materially adversely affect our Common Stock price, regardless of our operating results. Given its relatively small public float and average daily trading volume, our Common Stock may be relatively more susceptible to volatility arising from any of these factors. There can be no assurance that the price of our Common Stock will increase in the future or be maintained at its recent levels.

11. Future sales of our Common Stock could depress its market price. Future sales of shares of our Common Stock could adversely affect its prevailing market price. If our officers, directors or significant stockholders sell a large number of shares, or if we issue a large number of shares, the market price of our Common Stock could significantly decline. Moreover, the perception in the public market that stockholders might sell shares of Common Stock could depress the market for our Common Stock. Our Common Stock's relatively small public float and average daily trading volume may make it relatively more susceptible to these risks.

--------------Item 7: Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation

The following discussion and analysis provides information which management of Gold Dynamics Corp. (the "Company") believes to be relevant to an assessment and understanding of the Company's results of operations and financial condition. This discussion should be read together with the Company's financial statements and the notes to financial statements, which are included in this report.

Overview Gold Dynamics Corp formerly known as Vita Spirit's Corp, formerly known as Revo Ventures Inc. began primary operations began in April 2006. The Company changed its focus of primary operations from a producer of vitamin infused alcoholic beverages to exploration of mining opportunities. As part of the change in operations, the Company has undergone a name change from Vita Spirits Corp. to Gold Dynamics Corp. to better reflect the Company's new focus. We currently have not advanced beyond the business plan state from our inception until the date of this filing. We anticipate that in order for us to begin commercialization and retail sale of any of our intended products, we will need to raise additional capital. We currently do not have any specific plans to raise these funds

Results of Operations

Revenues

There were no revenues generated for the fiscal period ended July 31, 2011 and no revenues have been earned by the Company since it's inception.

General & Administrative Expenses

General and administrative expenses totaled $5,658 for the fiscal year ended July 31, 2011. This is compared to general and administrative expenses totaling $47,509 for the fiscal year ended July 31, 2010. This decrease in general and administrative expenses is largely attributed to a decrease in fees paid for professional services and consulting fees.

We experienced a net loss of $5,658 for the fiscal year ended July 31, 2011 compared to a net loss of $47,509 for the fiscal year ended July 31, 2010.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

As of July 31, 2011, the Company had cash of $0. Management does not expect that the current level of cash on hand will be sufficient to fund our operation for the next twelve month period. In the event that additional funds are required to maintain operations, our officers and directors have agreed to advance us sufficient capital to allow us to continue operations. We may also be able to obtain loans from our shareholders, but there are no agreements or understandings in place currently.

We believe that we will require additional funding to expand our business and ensure its future profitability. We anticipate that any additional funding will be in the form of equity financing from the sale of our common stock. However, we do not have any agreements in place for any future equity financing. In the event we are not successful in selling our common stock, we may also seek to obtain short-term loans from our director.

Item 7A: Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk

Please see Item 1A above, "Risk Factors," for a discussion of these and other risks and uncertainties we face in our business.

Item 8: Financial Statements

The financial statements required to be filed pursuant to this Item 8 begin on page F-1 of this report.

The Financial Statements of the Company have been audited by Stan Lee CPA, CMA for the fiscal year ended July 31, 2011 and 2010. There have been no changes in or disagreements with Stan Lee CPA on accounting and financial disclosure matters at any time.

Item 9A: Controls and Procedures

Managements Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

Our management has evaluated, under the supervision and with the participation of our chief executive officer and chief financial officer, the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures as of the end of the period covered by this report pursuant to Rule 13a-15(b) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act). Based on that evaluation, our chief executive officer and chief financial officer have concluded that, as of the end of the period covered by this report, our disclosure controls and procedures are effective in ensuring that information required to be disclosed in our Exchange Act reports is (1) recorded, processed, and summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the Securities and Exchange Commissions rules and forms and (2) accumulated and communicated to our management, including our chief executive officer and chief financial officer, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

Our Principal Executive Officer and Principal Financial Officer do not expect that our disclosure controls or internal controls will prevent all error and all fraud. Although our disclosure controls and procedures were designed to provide reasonable assurance of achieving their objectives and our principal executive and financial officer have determined that our disclosure controls and procedures are not effective at doing so, a control system, no matter how well conceived and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute assurance that the objectives of the system are met. Further, the design of a control system must reflect the fact that there are resource constraints, and the benefits of controls must be considered relative to their costs. Because of the inherent limitations in all control systems, no evaluation of controls can provide absolute assurance that all control issues and instances of fraud, if any, within the Company have been detected. These inherent limitations include the realities that judgments in decision-making can be faulty, and that breakdowns can occur because of simple error or mistake. Additionally, controls can be circumvented if there exists in an individual a desire to do so. There can be no assurance that any design will succeed in achieving its stated goals under all potential future conditions.

Furthermore, smaller reporting companies face additional limitations. Smaller reporting companies employ fewer individuals and find it difficult to properly segregate duties. Often, one or two individuals control every aspect of the Company's operation and are in a position to override any system of internal control. Additionally, smaller reporting companies tend to utilize general accounting software packages that lack a rigorous set of software controls.

Managements Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

Our management is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting, as defined in Rule 13a-15(f) under the Exchange Act. Our internal control system was designed to provide reasonable assurance to our management and board of directors regarding the preparation and fair presentation of published financial statements. Our management assessed the effectiveness of our internal control over financial reporting as of July 31, 2011. In making this assessment, it used the criteria set forth by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission in Internal Control Integrated Framework. Based on our assessment we believe that, as of July 31, 2011, our internal control over financial reporting was effective based on those criteria.

Changes in Internal control Over Financial Reporting

There have been no changes in the Company's internal control over financial reporting through the date of this report or during the quarter ended July 31, 2011, that materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

Independent Registered Accountants Internal Control Attestation

This annual report does not include an attestation report of the Company's registered public accounting firm regarding internal control over financial reporting. Managements report was not subject to attestation by the Company's registered public accounting firm pursuant to temporary rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission that permit the Company to provide only managements report in this annual report.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Directors and Management of

Gold Dynamics Corp.

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of Gold Dynamics Corp. as of July 31, 2011 and 2010 and the related statements of operations, changes in shareholders' equity (deficit) , and cash flows for the fiscal years then ended . These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. The Company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. Our audit included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purposes of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit includes examining on a test basis, evidence supporting the amount and disclosures in the combined financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Gold Dynamics Corp. as of July 31, 2011 and 2010 and the results of their operations and their cash flows for the fiscal years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in the notes , the Company's continuing significant operating losses and lack of liquidity raise substantial doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern. The accompanying financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

Gold Dynamics Corp.

(A Development Stage Company)

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the Year Ended July 31, 2011

1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The accompanying unaudited interim financial statements of Gold Dynamics formerly known as Vita Spirits Corp., formerly known as Revo Ventures Inc, have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission, and should be read in conjunction with Gold Dynamics Corp. audited 2010 annual financial statements and notes thereto filed with the SEC on form 10-K. In the opinion of management, all adjustments, consisting of normal recurring adjustments, necessary for a fair presentation of financial position and the result of operations for the interim periods presented have been reflected herein. The results of operations for interim periods are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year. Notes to the financial statements, which would substantially duplicate the disclosure required in Gold Dynamics 2010 annual financial statements have been omitted.

The Company's primary operations began in April 2006. The Company intends to change its primary operations from an e-commerce focus to a producer of vitamin infused alcoholic beverages. As part of the change in operations, the Company has undergone a name change from Revo Ventures Inc. to Vita Spirits Corp.to Gold Dynamics Corp. to better reflect the Company's new focus.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In June 2009 the FASB established the Accounting Standards Codification ("Codification'" or "ASC") as the source of authoritative accounting principles recognized by the FASB to be applied by nongovernmental entities in the preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States ("GAAP"). Rules and interpretive releases of the Securities and Exchange Commission issued under authority of federal securities laws are also sources of GAAP for SEC registrants. Existing GAAP was not intended to be changed as a result of the Codification, and accordingly the change did not impact our financial statements. The ASC does change the way the guidance is organized and presented.

Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS'") SFAS No. 165 (ASC Topic 855), "Subsequent Events", SFAS No. 166 (ASC Topic 810), "Accounting for Transfers of Financial Assets-an Amendment of FASB Statement No. 140", SFAS No. 167 (ASC Topic 810), "Amendments to FASB Interpretation No. 46(R)", and SFAS No. 168 (ASC Topic 105), "The FASB Accounting Standards Codification and the Hierarchy of Generally Accepted Accounting Principles-a replacement of FASB Statement No. 162" were recently issued. SFAS No. 165, 166, 167, and 168 have no current applicability to the Company or their effect on the financial statements would not have been significant.

Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") ASU No. 2009-05 (ASC Topic 820), which amends Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures - Overall, ASU No. 2009-13 (ASC Topic 605), Multiple-Deliverable Revenue arrangements, ASU No. 2009-14 (ASC Topic 985), Certain Revenue Arrangements that include Software Elements, and various other ASU's No. 2009-2 through ASU No. 2009-15 which contain technical corrections to existing guidance or affect guidance to specialized industries or entities were recently issued. These updates have no current applicability to the Company or their effect on the financial statements would not have been significant.

The Company does not expect that adoption of these or other recently issued accounting pronouncements will have a material impact on its financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

Recently Issued Accounting Standards

In August 2009, the FASB issued an amendment to the accounting standards related to the measurement of liabilities that are recognized or disclosed at fair value on a recurring basis. This standard clarifies how a company should measure the fair value of liabilities and that restrictions preventing the transfer of a liability should not be considered as a factor in the measurement of liabilities within the scope of this standard. This standard was effective for the Company on October 1, 2009. The Company does not expect the impact of its adoption to be material to its financial statements.

In October 2009, the FASB issued an amendment to the accounting standards related to the accounting for revenue in arrangements with multiple deliverables including how the arrangement consideration is allocated among delivered and undelivered items of the arrangement. Among the amendments, this standard eliminated the use of the residual method for allocating arrangement considerations and requires an entity to allocate the overall consideration to each deliverable based on an estimated selling price of each individual deliverable in the arrangement in the absence of having vendor-specific objective evidence or other third party evidence of fair value of the undelivered items. This standard also provides further guidance on how to determine a separate unit of accounting in a multiple-deliverable revenue arrangement and expands the disclosure requirements about the judgments made in applying the estimated selling price method and how those judgments affect the timing or amount of revenue recognition. This standard, for which the Company is currently assessing the impact, will become effective for the Company on January 1, 2011.

In October 2009, the FASB issued an amendment to the accounting standards related to certain revenue arrangements that include software elements. This standard clarifies the existing accounting guidance such that tangible products that contain both software and non-software components that function together to deliver the product's essential functionality, shall be excluded from the scope of the software revenue recognition accounting standards. Accordingly, sales of these products may fall within the scope of other revenue recognition standards or may now be within the scope of this standard and may require an allocation of the arrangement consideration for each element of the arrangement. This standard, for which the Company is currently assessing the impact, will become effective for the Company on January 1, 2011.

2. GOING CONCERN

Gold Dynamic’s financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates the realization of assets and settlement of liabilities and commitments in the normal course of business for the foreseeable future. Since inception, the Company has accumulated losses aggregating to $ 108,874 and has insufficient working capital to meet operating needs for the next twelve months as of July 31, 2011, all of which raise substantial doubt about Vita's ability to continue as a going concern.

3. COMMON STOCK TRANSACTIONS

On July 14, 2006, the Company sold 5,000,000 common shares at $0.001 per share to the sole director of the Company for total proceeds of$5,000.

On May 6, 2007, the Company sold 2,100,000 common shares pursuant to a registration statement at $0.01 per share for total proceeds of $21,000.

On April 22, 2008, the Company approved a forward split a 15 for 2 forward stock split to our stockholders of record as of April 23, 2008. The Company increased the authorized shares from 50,000,000 to 75,000,000. The Company did not change the par value of the shares. All references to share value in these financial statements have been restated to reflect this split. Subsequent to the forward split, the Company had 53,250,000 common shares issued and outstanding.

On November 12, 2009, the Company sold 4,000.000 common shares at $ 0.0125 per share to an investor for the total proceeds of $50,000. As of July 31, 2010, total common share authorized is 500,000,000.

Common share issued and outstanding for the same period is 103,250,000.

4. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

An officer has loaned the Company $15,937, without a fixed term of repayment. Imputed interest in the amount of $ 2,850 has been included in additional paid in capital.

5. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS
