PROSPECTUS

OFFER BY SELLING STOCKHOLDER TO EXCHANGE UP TO 100,000 SHARES OF CLASS A COMMON STOCK FOR 100,000 SHARES OF CLASS B COMMON STOCK OF NACCO INDUSTRIES, INC.

Under the terms of NACCO Industries, Inc.'s restated certificate of incorporation, which we refer to as the certificate of incorporation, and an amended and restated stockholders' agreement, dated as of September 29, 2017, which we refer to as the stockholders' agreement, shares of our Class B common stock, par value $1.00 per share, which we refer to as Class B Common, are generally not transferable except to persons who are permitted transferees as specified in those documents. In accordance with those documents, parties to the stockholders' agreement may transfer shares of Class B Common to the selling stockholder for shares of our Class A common stock, par value $1.00 per share, which we refer to as Class A Common, on a share-for-share basis. As a result, the selling stockholder named in this prospectus is offering to transfer from time to time up to 100,000 shares of our Class A Common under this prospectus on a share-for-share basis, upon receipt, from time to time of shares of our Class B Common from holders of Class B Common that are parties to the stockholders' agreement and are permitted to transfer those shares to the selling stockholder pursuant to our certificate of incorporation and the stockholders' agreement. Each exchange will result in the selling stockholder transferring one share of Class A Common for each share of Class B Common transferred to the selling stockholder. We will not receive any proceeds from these transactions.

Our Class A Common is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "NC." On March 22, 2019, the last sale price of our Class A Common as reported by the New York Stock Exchange was $38.40 per share. Our Class B Common is not publicly traded. Each share of Class A Common is entitled to one vote per share. Each share of Class B Common is entitled to ten votes per share.

Persons who receive shares of Class A Common from the selling stockholder may resell those shares of Class A Common in brokerage transactions on the New York Stock Exchange in compliance with Rule 144 under the Securities Act of 1933, or the Securities Act, except that the six-month holding period requirement of Rule 144 will not apply.

Please consider carefully the "Risk Factors" beginning on page 2 for a discussion of risks you should consider prior to tendering your shares of Class B Common for exchange.

SUMMARY

This summary highlights some of the information in this prospectus. It is not complete and may not contain all of the information that you may want to consider. You should read carefully the more detailed information set forth elsewhere in this prospectus.

This prospectus contains forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. Our actual results may differ materially from the results discussed in the forward-looking statements. Factors that might cause a material difference include, but are not limited to, those discussed under “Risk Factors” and elsewhere in this prospectus. Investors should consider carefully the information set forth under the heading “Risk Factors” on page 2 and “Cautionary Notice Regarding Forward-Looking Statements” on page 2. In this prospectus, the terms “NACCO,” “the Company,” “we,” “us” and “our” refer to NACCO Industries, Inc.

NACCO

NACCO Industries, Inc. is the public holding company for The North American Coal Corporation. The North American Coal Corporation and its affiliated companies (“NACoal”) operate surface mines that supply coal primarily to power generation companies under long-term contracts, and provide other value-added services to natural resource companies. In addition, its North American Mining (“NAM”) business operates and maintains draglines and other equipment under contracts with sellers of aggregates.

NACCO was incorporated as a Delaware corporation in 1986 in connection with the formation of a holding company structure for a predecessor corporation organized in 1913.

Our principal executive offices are located at 5875 Landerbrook Drive, Suite 220, Cleveland, Ohio 44124-4069, and our telephone number is (440) 229-5151.

The Exchange Offer

The selling stockholder named in this prospectus is offering to transfer from time to time up to 100,000 shares of our Class A Common on a share-for-share basis, upon receipt, from time to time of shares of our Class B Common from holders of Class B Common that are parties to the stockholders' agreement and are permitted to transfer those shares to the selling stockholder pursuant to our certificate of incorporation and the stockholders' agreement. Each exchange will result in the selling stockholder transferring one share of Class A Common for each share of Class B Common transferred to the selling stockholder. See “Selling Stockholder” beginning on page 3.

As of February 28, 2019, the participating stockholders under the stockholders' agreement beneficially owned 98.34% of the Class B Common issued and outstanding on that date. Holders of shares of Class B Common that are not subject to the stockholders' agreement are permitted to transfer those shares subject to the transfer restrictions set forth in our certificate of incorporation, which include the ability of holders of shares of Class B Common that are not subject to the stockholders' agreement to transfer the shares to persons who are permitted transferees as specified in our certificate of incorporation or convert such shares of Class B Common into shares of Class A Common on a one-for-one basis. Only holders of shares of Class B Common that are subject to the stockholders' agreement may exchange their shares of Class B Common for shares of Class A Common pursuant to this prospectus.

In connection with the selling stockholder's offer to exchange up to 100,000 shares of Class A Common, you do not have any appraisal or dissenters' rights under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware. See “The Exchange Offer-No Appraisal or Dissenters' Rights” on page 13.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences

Gain or loss will generally not be recognized by NACCO stockholders who exchange shares of their Class B Common for shares of Class A Common held by the selling stockholder. See “Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences” beginning on page 13.

The tax consequences of an exchange will depend on the stockholder's particular facts and circumstances. Persons acquiring shares of Class A Common by exchanging shares of their Class B Common with the selling stockholder are urged to consult their own tax advisors to fully understand the tax consequences to them of an exchange.

Summary Historical Consolidated Financial Data

As a “smaller reporting company” as defined by Rule 12b-2 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Company is not required to provide this information.

RISK FACTORS

Prospective investors in the shares of Class A Common offered hereby should consider carefully the following risk factors as well as the risk factors set forth in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2018, which is incorporated into this prospectus by reference, in addition to the other information contained in this prospectus. This prospectus contains forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. Our actual results may differ materially from the results discussed in the forward-looking statements. Factors that might cause a material difference include, but are not limited to, those discussed below, as well as those discussed elsewhere in this prospectus and the documents incorporated into this prospectus by reference.

Risks Related to This Offering

The voting power of holders of Class B Common who transfer their shares to the selling stockholder and receive shares of Class A Common will diminish.

Holders of Class B Common have ten votes per share of Class B Common, while holders of Class A Common have one vote per share of Class A Common. Holders of Class B Common who transfer their shares to the selling stockholder in exchange for shares of Class A Common will reduce their voting power.

The voting power of the selling stockholder will increase if the selling stockholder exchanges its shares of Class A Common for shares of Class B Common in the exchange offer.

Holders of Class A Common and holders of Class B Common generally vote together on matters submitted to a vote of NACCO's stockholders. Consequently, if holders of Class B Common transfer their shares of Class B Common to the selling stockholder, the voting power of the selling stockholder will increase. As of February 28, 2019, the selling stockholder collectively controlled 50.9% of the voting power of outstanding shares of NACCO's Common based on the number of outstanding shares as of February 28, 2019. As of that date, there were 5,417,633 shares of Class A Common and 1,568,810 shares of Class B Common outstanding. As of February 28, 2019, if all shares of Class A Common offered by this prospectus were exchanged for shares of Class B Common, and the selling stockholder would have controlled 55.2% of the voting power of outstanding shares of NACCO's Common based on the number of outstanding shares as of February 28, 2019, and 70.5% of outstanding Class B Common with respect to any class vote of the Class B Common.

CAUTIONARY NOTICE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus and the documents incorporated herein by reference contain statements that constitute "forward-looking statements." These forward-looking statements are made subject to certain risks and uncertainties, which could cause actual results to differ materially from those presented in these forward-looking statements. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date hereof. We undertake no obligation to publicly revise these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances that arise after the date hereof. Such risks and uncertainties include, without limitation: (1) changes in tax laws or regulatory requirements, including changes in mining or power plant emission regulations and health, safety or environmental legislation, (2) changes in costs related to geological and geotechnical conditions, repairs and maintenance, new equipment and replacement parts, fuel or other similar items, (3) regulatory actions, changes in mining permit requirements or delays in obtaining mining permits that could affect deliveries to customers, (4) weather conditions, extended power plant outages, liquidity events or other events that would change the level of customers' coal or aggregates requirements, (5) weather or equipment problems that could affect deliveries to customers, (6) changes in the power industry that would affect demand for NACoal's reserves, (7) failure or delays by the Company's lessees in achieving expected production of natural gas and other hydrocarbons; the availability and cost of transportation and processing services in the areas where the Company's oil and gas reserves are located; federal and state legislative and regulatory initiatives relating to hydraulic fracturing; and the ability of lessees to obtain capital or financing needed for well development operations, (8) changes in the costs to reclaim NACoal mining areas, (9) costs to pursue and develop new mining and value-added service opportunities, (10) changes to or termination of a long-term mining contract, or a customer default under a contract, (11) delays or reductions in coal or aggregates deliveries at NACoal's or NAM's operations, (12) changes in the prices of hydrocarbons, particularly diesel fuel, natural gas and oil, and (13) increased competition, including consolidation within the industry.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We will not receive any proceeds from the exchange of any shares by the selling stockholder.

SELLING STOCKHOLDER

Class A Common and Class B Common Stock Beneficial Ownership Table for Selling Stockholder. The following table sets forth, as of February 28, 2019, certain information with respect to the selling stockholder, including:

- the name of the selling stockholder;
- the number of shares of Class A Common and Class B Common owned by the selling stockholder immediately prior to the exchange of shares offered by this prospectus;
- the number of shares of Class A Common offered for exchange by the selling stockholder by this prospectus;
- the number of shares of Class B Common that the selling stockholder may obtain if all of the shares of Class A Common that the selling stockholder is offering by this prospectus are exchanged for shares of Class B Common;
- the number of shares of Class A Common and Class B Common owned and the percentage of ownership of Class A Common and Class B Common of the selling stockholder immediately following the exchange of shares offered by this prospectus based on the number of shares of Class A Common and Class B Common outstanding, and the number of shares of Class A Common and Class B Common owned by the selling stockholder, on February 28, 2019; and
- the percentage of combined voting power of shares of Class A Common and Class B Common the selling stockholder would have immediately following the exchange of shares of Class A Common for Class B Common offered by this prospectus based on the number of shares of Class A Common and Class B Common outstanding, and the number of shares of Class A Common and Class B Common owned by the selling stockholder, on February 28, 2019.

A total of 100,000 shares of Class A Common is being offered by Alfred M. Rankin, Jr. pursuant to this prospectus. Mr. Rankin presently serves as the non-executive Chairman of the Company and, prior to September 30, 2017, was the Company's Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer. Because the selling stockholder or his revocable trust will offer to exchange the shares, both the selling stockholder and his trust are listed separately in the table below. However, the selling stockholder, together with his revocable trust, will only offer to exchange the number of shares of Class A Common listed above. In the table below, the disclosure of the beneficial ownership of shares for the selling stockholder reflects all shares deemed to be beneficially owned by the selling stockholder (including those shares held in the selling stockholder's revocable trust). The disclosure of the beneficial ownership of shares for the selling stockholder's revocable trust includes only those shares held directly by the trust.

Because the selling stockholder may offer all, a portion or none of the Class A Common offered by this prospectus, we cannot assure you as to the number of shares of Class A Common or Class B Common that will be held by the selling stockholder immediately following the offering. The table below assumes that the beneficial ownership of Class A Common for the selling stockholder, including shares held directly and indirectly by the selling stockholder's revocable trust, will decrease by an aggregate of the number of shares of Class A Common described above as a result of this offering and that the beneficial ownership of Class B Common for the selling stockholder, including shares held directly and indirectly by the selling stockholder's revocable trust, will increase by the same number of shares of Class B Common. The table does not, however, account for any changes in each selling stockholder's beneficial ownership that may result from transactions not contemplated by this prospectus such as an acquisition or disposition of shares of Class A Common or Class B Common.

(2) A Schedule 13D/A filed with the SEC with respect to Class A Common on February 8, 2019 reported that Dimensional Fund Advisors LP ("Dimensional") may be deemed to beneficially own the shares of Class A Common reported above as a result of being an investment adviser registered under Section 203 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 that furnishes investment advice to four investment companies registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 and serves as an investment manager or sub-adviser to certain other commingled funds, group trusts and separate accounts (the "Dimensional Funds"), which own the shares of Class A Common. In its role as investment adviser or manager, Dimensional possesses the sole power to vote 435,929 shares owned by the Dimensional Funds of Class A Common and the sole power to invest 451,546 shares of Class A Common owned by the Dimensional Funds.

However, all shares of Class A Common reported above are owned by the Dimensional Funds. Dimensional disclaims beneficial ownership of all such shares.

(3) A Schedule 13G filed with the SEC with respect to Class A Common on February 13, 2019 reported that FMR LLC may be deemed to beneficially own the shares of Class A Common reported above. (4) A Schedule 13G/A filed with the SEC with respect to Class A Common on February 13, 2019 reported that Rankin Associates II, L.P. ("Associates"), which is made up of the individuals and entities holding limited partnership interests in Associates and Rankin Management, Inc. ("RMI"), the general partner of Associates, may be deemed to be a "group" as defined under the Exchange Act that beneficially owns the 338,295 shares of Class A Common held by Associates. Although Associates holds the 338,295 shares of Class A Common, it does not have any power to vote or dispose of such shares of Class A Common. RMI has the sole power to vote such shares and shares the power to dispose of such shares with the other individuals and entities holding limited partnership interests in Associates. RMI exercises such powers by action of its board of directors, which acts by majority vote and consists of Alfred M. Rankin, Jr., Thomas T. Rankin, Claiborne R. Rankin and Roger F. Rankin, the individual trusts of whom are the shareholders of RMI. Under the terms of the Limited Partnership Agreement of Associates, Associates may not dispose of Class A Common without the consent of RMI and the approval of the holders of more than 75% of all of the partnership interests of Associates.

(7) Pursuant to our Non-Employee Directors' Plan, each non-employee Director has the right to acquire additional shares of Class A Common within 60 days after February 28, 2019. The shares each non-employee Director has the right to receive are not included in the table because the actual number of additional shares will be determined on April 1, 2019 by taking the amount of such Director's quarterly retainer required to be paid in shares of Class A Common plus any voluntary portion of such Director's quarterly retainer, if so elected, divided by the average of the closing price per share of Class A Common on the Friday (or if Friday is not a trading day, the last trading day before such Friday) for each week of the calendar quarter ending on March 31, 2019.

(8) As a result of Alfred M. (1) A Schedule 13D/A filed with the SEC with respect to Class B Common on February 13, 2018 ("the Stockholders' 13D") reported that, except for NACCO, including in its capacity as depository, the signatories to the stockholders' agreement, together in certain cases with trusts and custodianships, which are referred to collectively as the Signatories, may be deemed to be a "group" as defined under the Exchange Act, and therefore may be deemed as a group to beneficially own all of the Class B Common subject to the stockholders' agreement, which is an aggregate of 1,542,757 shares. The stockholders' agreement requires that each Signatory, prior to any conversion of such Signatory's shares of Class B Common into Class A Common or prior to any sale or transfer of Class B Common to any permitted transferee (under the terms of the Class B Common) who has not become a Signatory, offer such shares to all of the other Signatories on a pro-rata basis. The opinion assumes that NACCO and the holders of Class B Common who transfer their shares pursuant to an exchange will each pay their respective expenses, if any, incurred in connection with an exchange.
