Item 2.02 Results of Operations and Financial Condition

The information set forth in Item 8.01 below with respect to the fourth quarter and fiscal year ended December 31, 2017, of The AES Corporation (the “Company” or “AES”) is incorporated by reference herein.

Item 8.01 Other Events

On December 22, 2017, the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (the “Tax Act”) was enacted. The legislation significantly revises the U.S. corporate income tax system by, among other things, lowering corporate income tax rates, introducing new limitations on interest expense, subjecting foreign earnings in excess of an allowable return to U.S. taxation, adopting a territorial tax regime and imposing a one-time transitional tax on deemed repatriated earnings of foreign subsidiaries.

The Company estimates, based on currently available information that the enactment of the Tax Act will result in a non-cash charge of approximately $1.10-$1.25 in Diluted EPS from Continuing Operations in the fourth quarter of 2017. The majority of this charge is due to the deemed repatriation tax. The remainder includes the effects of the re-measurement of U.S. deferred tax assets and liabilities to lower enacted corporate tax rates. This charge has no impact on the Company’s previously provided non-GAAP Adjusted EPS guidance as the Company will revise the definition of its non-GAAP measures to exclude this item.

The Company currently expects the Tax Act to have a non-cash impact on Adjusted EPS of $0.05-$0.08 in 2018, after $1 billion of debt pay down related to the sale of its Masinloc business in the Philippines, announced in December 2017. The Company will provide an update on the prospective impacts of the Tax Act and additional mitigation measures on its fourth quarter 2017 financial review call in February 2018.

The impact of the Tax Act may differ from this estimate, possibly materially, due to, among other things, changes in interpretations and assumptions the Company has made, guidance that may be issued and actions the Company may take as a result of the Tax Act.

The information set forth in this Item 8.01 is intended to be furnished under Item 8.01 of Form 8-K. This information shall not be deemed “filed” for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section. In addition, this information shall not be incorporated by reference into any registration statement filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Exchange Act, regardless of any general incorporation language in such filing, unless it is specifically incorporated by reference in such filing.
