Arrhythmia Research Technology, Inc.
Announces Stock Buy-Back Program

Austin, Texas

Arrhythmia Research Technology, Inc. (the "Company") today announced that the Board of Directors of the Company has approved a continuation of its stock buy-back program to purchase up to 200,000 additional shares of the Company's Common Stock, $.01 par value, which is registered pursuant to Section 12(b) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. The Company intends to purchase shares of its Common Stock pursuant to the buy-back program from time to time until December 31, 2001, which may be extended by the Board of Directors of the Company. It is intended that all repurchased shares will become treasury stock of the Company. The Company's common stock is listed on the American Stock Exchange and trades under the ticker symbol HRT.

Forward looking statements made herein are based on current expectations of the Company and involve a number of risks and uncertainties and should not be considered as guarantees of future performance. These statements are made under the Safe Harbor Provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The factors that could cause actual results to differ materially include: interruptions or cancellation of existing contracts, impact of competitive products and pricing, product demand and market acceptance, risks, the presence of competitors with greater financial resources than the Company, product development and commercialization risks and an inability to arrange additional debt or equity financing.
