PROXY STATEMENT
For
2001 ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS
TO BE HELD ON FRIDAY, MAY 18, 2001

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

This Proxy Statement is being furnished to the shareholders of Renaissance Capital Growth & Income Fund III, Inc. (the "Fund"), a Texas corporation regulated as a business development company under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (the "1940 Act"). The Fund's Board of Directors is soliciting proxies to be voted at the 2001 Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the "Annual Meeting") to be held on Friday, May 18, 2001, at the Renaissance Dallas Hotel, Dallas, Texas, at 8:00 a.m., local time and at any adjournment(s). This Proxy Statement is first being sent to shareholders on or about April 19, 2000.

The accompanying proxy card is designed to permit each Fund shareholder to vote for or against or to abstain from voting on the proposals described in this Proxy Statement, and to authorize the persons serving as proxies to vote in their discretion with respect to any other proposal properly presented at the Annual Meeting. When a shareholder's executed proxy card specifies a choice with respect to a voting matter, the shares will be voted accordingly. If no specifications are made, then the proxy will be voted by the persons serving as proxies at the Annual Meeting FOR (i) the election of one Class One director, and (ii) the ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the auditor for the Fund for the current fiscal year.

The Board of Directors encourages the shareholders to attend the Annual Meeting personally. Executing and returning the accompanying proxy card will not affect a shareholder's right to attend the Annual Meeting and to vote in person. Any shareholder given a proxy has the right to revoke it at any time before it is voted by giving written notice of revocation to Ms. Barbe Butschek, Secretary, Renaissance Capital Growth & Income Fund III, Inc., 8080 North Central Expressway, Suite 210, LB-59, Dallas, Texas 75206-1857, by executing and delivering a later-dated proxy, or by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person. No revocation notice or later-dated proxy, however, will be effective until received by the Fund at or prior to the Annual Meeting. Revocation will not affect a vote on any matters taken prior to the receipt of the revocation. Mere attendance at the Annual Meeting will not by itself revoke the proxy.

In addition to soliciting proxies by mail, officers and directors of the Fund, and officers, directors and regular employees of Renaissance Capital Group, Inc. ("Renaissance Group"), the investment advisor to the Fund, may solicit the return of proxies by personal interview, mail, telephone and facsimile. These persons will not receive additional compensation for their services, but will be reimbursed for out-of-pocket expenses. Brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries will be requested by the Fund to forward solicitation material to the beneficial owners of shares. The Fund will pay all costs of solicitation.

The Fund's 2000 Annual Report to shareholders is enclosed for the review of all shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. The Annual Report is not incorporated into this Proxy Statement and is not considered proxy soliciting material.

Edgar Filing: RENAISSANCE CAPITAL GROWTH & INCOME FUND III INC - Form DEF 14A

The Fund's principal offices are located at 8080 N. Central Expressway, Suite 210, LB-59, Dallas, Texas 75206-1857, and its telephone number is (214) 891-8294.

PURPOSES OF THE MEETING

At the Annual Meeting, Fund shareholders will have the opportunity to meet principal officers of selected Portfolio Companies and to hear their business reviews. In addition, the shareholders will consider and vote upon the following matters:

1. The election of one Class One director of the Fund, to hold office for a term of three years or until a successor is elected and qualified;
2. Ratification of the Board of Director's appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the auditor for the Fund for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2001; and
3. Such other and further business as may properly be presented at the Annual Meeting or any adjournment(s).

RECORD DATE AND SHARE OWNERSHIP

The close of business on March 29, 2001 has been fixed as the record date (the "Record Date") for determining shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting and any adjournment. At the close of business on the Record Date, the Fund had outstanding 4,341,618 shares of Common Stock and approximately 844 record holders.

VOTING

Each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote. The Common Stock is the only class of securities of the Fund entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. A Shareholder is entitled to vote all shares of Common Stock held of record at the close of business on the Record Date, in person or by proxy, at the Annual Meeting. There are no cumulative voting rights. All votes will be tabulated by the inspector of election appointed for the meeting, who will separately tabulate affirmative and negative votes, abstentions and broker non-votes.

A quorum for the Annual Meeting will consist of the presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the shares outstanding and entitled to vote as of the Record Date. Shares that are voted "FOR," "AGAINST," OR "WITHHELD FROM" a matter are treated as being present at the meeting for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum and are also treated as shares "represented and voting" at the Annual Meeting (the "Votes Cast") with respect to such matter.

Broker non-votes and abstentions will be counted for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum but will not be voted for or against a proposal. Accordingly, abstentions and broker non-votes effectively will be a vote against any proposal where the required vote is a percentage of the shares present or outstanding. Abstentions and broker non-votes will not be counted as votes cast for purposes of determining whether sufficient votes have been received to approve a proposal.

If a quorum is not present at the Annual Meeting or, although a quorum is present, an insufficient number of votes in favor of any of the proposals set forth in the Notice of Meeting are not received by the date of the Annual Meeting, the persons named as proxies may vote for one or more adjournment(s) of the Annual Meeting with no other notice than announcement at the Annual Meeting. Further solicitations of proxies with respect to these proposals may be made.

Edgar Filing: RENAISSANCE CAPITAL GROWTH & INCOME FUND III INC - Form DEF 14A

Broker non-votes and abstentions will not be voted for any adjournments.

PROPOSAL ONE ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Peter Collins has been nominated as a Class One director to serve for a term of three years or until his respective successor is elected and qualified. One Class One directorship shall remain vacant.

Pursuant to the Fund's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws, the Board of Directors consists of five directors and is divided into three classes. Each class serves for a three-year term. The term of office of the Class One directors expires at the Annual Meeting to be held this year, and the term of office of the Class Two directors expires at the Annual Meeting of shareholders to be held in 2002, the term of office of the Class Three directors expires at the Annual Meeting of shareholders to be held in 2003.

Because the Board is divided into classes, only those directors in a single class may be changed in any one year. Consequently, changing a majority of the Board of Directors would require two years (although under Texas law, procedures are available to remove directors even if they are not then standing for re-election and, under Securities and Exchange Commission regulations, procedures are available for including appropriate shareholder proposals in the annual proxy statement). Having a classified Board of Directors, which may be regarded as an "anti-takeover" provision, may make it more difficult for shareholders to change the majority of directors and thus have the effect of maintaining the continuity of management.

Class One Director -----

Peter Collins, age 55, has been a financial and management consultant to closely-held businesses for the last ten years in the USA, the UK, and Europe, in areas of finance, start-ups, joint ventures and mergers and acquisitions. Mr. Collins was educated in England, where he received a B.Sc. in Civil Engineering from Liverpool University and an M.Sc. in Business Administration from The City University, London. He has served as a Class One director since 1994.

Edward O. Boshell, Jr., age 65, is the retired Chairman of the Board and CEO of Columbia General Corporation and is a private investor. He has served as a Class Two director since November 1998.

Class Three Directors - Term Expires at 2003 Annual Meeting -----

Mr. Hill's prior experience includes service as Assistant Professor of Finance, Southern Methodist University and Associate Director of the Southwestern Graduate School of Banking. He has served as a Class Three director since 1994.

The nominee for the Class One director receiving the vote of a plurality of the shares present, in person or by proxy, and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting will be elected as a director. THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF THE NOMINEE FOR THE CLASS ONE DIRECTOR.
