CVRD and JBIC sign Cooperation Agreement

Rio de Janeiro, October 28, 2004 Companhia Vale do Rio Doce (CVRD), the largest diversified mining company of the Americas, and Japan Bank for International Cooperation (JBIC), financial institution from the Japanese government that supports projects for international development, signed today a Cooperation Agreement. The objective of this agreement is to stimulate the information flow in the areas of common interest, with focus on infrastructure and expansion of CVRD s mining activities.

The agreement results from the long-term vision of both institutions and from the partnerships that have marked the relationship between CVRD and its Japanese clients, and foresees annual meetings to discuss the partners respective strategies and projects. The first meeting will take place on October 29, in Tokyo.

JBIC already financed several projects of CVRD, among which Carajás, and the expansions of Cenibra, Albrás and Alunorte, and more recently, the modernization of the logistics infrastructure of CVRD.

It is the first agreement of this kind between a publicly traded Brazilian private company and JBIC. This agreement consolidates JBIC as a strong long-term resource for the financing of CVRD s growth projects, also contributing to the sustainable development of the country.

This press release may contain statements that express management s expectations about future events or results rather than historical facts. These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected in forward-looking statements, and CVRD cannot give assurance that such statements will prove correct. These risks and uncertainties include factors: relating to the Brazilian economy and securities markets, which exhibit volatility and can be adversely affected by developments in other countries; relating to the iron ore business and its dependence on the global steel industry, which is cyclical in nature; and relating to the highly competitive industries in which CVRD operates. For additional information on factors that could cause CVRD s actual results to differ from expectations reflected in forward-looking statements, please see CVRD s reports filed with the Brazilian Comissão de Valores Mobiliários and the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.
