The following legends explain the future expected fees in these categories based upon the Company's audit and non-audit pre-approval policy and procedures, as modified by the Audit and Finance Committee effective October 1, 2004 and described in the Company's proxy statement.

- (a) These services are being transitioned to a new service provider, and the Company estimates that the total fees to be paid to PricewaterhouseCoopers in this category in fiscal 2005 should be less than $750,000. After fiscal 2005, the only services PricewaterhouseCoopers may perform in this category will be support for audits of tax returns for which PricewaterhouseCoopers provided preparation services.

- (b) These services should be reduced significantly in fiscal 2005. On an ongoing basis, the fees to be paid to PricewaterhouseCoopers in this category should be limited to tax returns for acquired companies in the initial year after acquisition.
 - (c) These services are being transitioned to a new service provider, and the Company estimates that the total fees to be paid to PricewaterhouseCoopers in this category in fiscal 2005 should be less than $1,000,000. After fiscal 2005, there should be no fees paid to PricewaterhouseCoopers for services in this category.
 - (d) No further services are being performed by PricewaterhouseCoopers in this category and no fees should be paid to PricewaterhouseCoopers in fiscal 2005 and thereafter for these services.
- The Company estimates that the total fees to be paid to PricewaterhouseCoopers in fiscal 2005 for all tax services should be less than $2,500,000.

Note About Fee Estimates: The fee estimates above are based upon our current expectations and may be subject to changes based upon various factors, such as the rate at which these tax services are transitioned to the new service provider.
