Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 16, 2012, Barnes Group Inc. (the "Company"), entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement (the "Stock Purchase Agreement") with stock and option holders of Synventive Acquisition Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Synventive"), Synventive and Cetus Capital, LLC, in its capacity as Seller Representative, pursuant to which the Company has agreed to acquire all of the issued and outstanding shares of capital stock of Synventive. Together with its subsidiaries, Synventive, which is headquartered in Peabody, Massachusetts, is a leading designer and manufacturer of highly engineered and customized hot runner systems and components and provides related services.

The purchase price payable by the Company for such shares pursuant to the terms of the Stock Purchase Agreement is $335 million in cash, subject to (i) dollar for dollar increase or decrease based on deviation from a working capital target, (ii) decrease for indebtedness and certain transactions expenses of Synventive, (iii) increase for the amount of Synventive's cash as of the closing, and (iv) a potential increase for certain transaction related tax benefits not to exceed $5 million. The Stock Purchase Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants. Subject to certain limitations, each party has agreed to indemnify the other parties for breaches of representations, warranties and covenants, and other specified matters. The closing of the transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement is subject to the receipt of regulatory approvals and the satisfaction of other closing conditions, including obtaining necessary third party agreements. The acquisition is currently expected to occur during August 2012. The Company expects to fund the purchase price from cash on hand and borrowings under the recently executed accordion feature of the Company's existing credit agreement.
